ng Department booming with the

of the Season's Production

s all the leading varieties of Worsteds, in the most carefully selected patterns, arly inspection.

CH BROS.

AND GENERAL MILL SUPPLIES power and guy ropes.

Telegraph & Electrical Apparatus & Supplies.

ELECTRO-PLATERS. Chandeliers and Brass Goods of every description, pol-ished and lacquered equal to new.

Medical Batteries and other Electrical Apparatus atom promptly attended to, in the city or out. send for sp foi B & K

Stove Flue, absolutely Terra Cotta Chimney nd Stove Thimbles.

IME,≫ MENTS, RAIN PIPE,---IRE BRICK, -PIRE CLAY,--MARBLE DUST,--SHOP COAL,-GRATE COAL.

9 Whitehall Street,

ALE!

RCOATS,

HAVE BEEN

HE UNIFORM PRICE OF

al Bargains in

Men's Furnishings. MAN BROS.

9 Whitehall Stree

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

VOL. XIX.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 21, 1888.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

SCENES IN THE HOUSE. A Debate Which May Result in

SPAT BETWEEN ROGERS AND O'NEILL. In Which Mr. O'Neill Comes Out Victor

-Mr. Rogers's Chagrin-Rumors of a Duel-Other Gossip. WASHINGTON, March 20.—[Special.]—This was a kind of red-letter day in the house. All offthese who got the floor during the day could not help displaying exceedingly bad feeling. It seemed that all of them when rising in the

It seemed that all of them when rising in the morning had climbed out over the footboard. The inclemency of the weather on the outside seemed to create a like inclemency among the statesmen. The most serious and exciting episode of the day's proceedings was in the tilt between Mr. O'Neill, of Missodri, chairman of the committee on labor, and Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, the latter posing to a considerable extent as the great constitutional teners of the house. The question arose on lawyer of the house. The question arose on Mr. O'Neil's motion to have a few days set aside for the consideration of bills from the laaside for the consideration of bills from the labor committee. Mr. Rogers was a formidable antagonist and consumed a great portion of the day in filibustering with the hope of preventing such bills having consideration by the house. Mr. O'Neil characterized Mr. Rogers as a tool in the hands of certain gentlemen upon the floor, meaning "but a glittering ass." Roger Q. Mills, of Texas, who is opposed to the consideration of any labor bills, wherein the laboring people are interested. Mr. O'Niel insinuated that, in consequence of the Texan's cowardice

to come out fairly and oppose the proposition himself, he had persuaded the young man from Arkansas to do it for him. This brought to his Arkansas to do it for him. This brought to his feet the fiery young Rogers, who is perhaps one of the most elegant and interesting speakers in the house. He is hot-headed and easily angered. The remarks of Mr. O'Neill fairly turned his eyes into little balls of fire. Everything was hushed and silent when Mr. Rogers allowed the speaker at which time the essed the speaker, at which time the ourian was also reiterating what he had Missourian was also retterating what he had previously said about Mr. Rogers, and referring to Mr. Mills. The young man from Arkansas took refuge behind the rules of the house by asking that the words of Mr. O'Neill honse by asking that the words of Mr. O'Neill be taken down. This procedure, by virtue of parliamentary usage, took Mr. O'Neill off his feet, the speaker ordering him to take his seat. Mr. Rogers denied the statement made by Mr. O'Neill, saying that he was not the tool of anybody, but his course against the bill had been prompted by what he thought was right. In a menacing manner, he shook his finger under the nose of Mr. O'Neill in real Arkansaw Traveler style, while the man from Missouri, whose seat is just across the aisle from Mr. Rogers, gesticulated in a manner as if to indicate that he would hurl a few bottles of St. Louis beer at the bald and forensic head of the Arkansas the rule and been guilty of unparliamentary A resolution was offered by Mr. Cox exonerating Mr. O'Neill, which was carried almost unanimously, whereupon Mr. O'Neill was allowed to proceed and his resolution went through in great haste. Mr. Rogers immediately retired from the arena and took a seat upon a sofa in the lobby, where he summoned his colleague, Mr. C. R. Breckenridge, and other intimate friends, and in a long consulta-tion, which indicated that Mr. Rogers felt keenly the insult heaped upon him and desired that others means for a settlement of the affair statesman. Mr. Rogers having sprung upo

Mr O'Neill the question of upparliamentary language, it was then left for the house to say whether Mr. O'Neill had or had not violated should be engaged in.

Mr. O'Neill said to me tonight that in the event Mr. Rogers sent him a challange, he would have to send a very stout, able-bodied thump the messenger who bore it. When the house adjourned the two antagonists were in close consultation with their numerous friends, and it is said by those who are in a position to know that the end has not been reached. E. W. B.

RILLS PRESENTED IN THE HOUSE.

Mr. Bland Still Fighting Appropriation Bills
—Public Buildings.

Washington, March 20.—Mr. Rockwell, of Massachusetts, called up the bill appropriating $75,000 for the erection of a fire-proof workshop at the National armory, Springfield, Massachusetts. Iassachusetts.

Mr. Bland fought the measure at every

Mr. Bland fought the measure at every point, but it was finally passed.
Mr. O'Neill introduced a bill to protect free labor and the industries in which it is employed from the injurious effects of convict labor by conferring the sale of goods, wares, merchandise manufactured by convict labor to the state in which they are produced. The penalty is fine and imprisonment and the forfeiture of goods is imposed for any violation of the law. Referred.
Mr. O'Neill, from the committee on labor.

the law. Referred.

Mr. O'Neill, from the committee on labor, reported a bill to establish a department of labor. Referred to committee of the whole.

Also, a bill to prevent the product of convict labor from being furnished to or for use in any department of the government. Placed on the house calendar.

ouse calendar.

Mr. Dibble, from the committee on public

Mr. Dibble, from the committee on public buildings, reported a bill for the erection of a public building at Charlotte, N. C. Referred to committee of the whole.

Mr. Tarsney, of Michigan, from the committee on labor, reported a bill to prevent the employment of convict labor and alien labor on public works. Placed on the house calendar.

calendar.

The committee on military affairs reported a bill authorizing the construction of ordnance and ordnance stores at Columbia. Referred to the committee of the whole.

Mr. Weaver introduced a bill providing for the issue of legal tender treasury notes in lieu of notes estimated as lost or destroyed. Referred.

of notes estimated as lost or destroyed. Referred.

In the morning hour, the house resumed consideration of the resolution assigning two days for the transaction of business reported by the committee on labor.

Opponents of the resolution led by Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, proceeded to obstructive methods to prevent action. After one roll call, Mr. O'Neill, of Missouri, stated that he was willing to amend the resolution by striking out the clause limiting the time of debate on each measure called up. He would do this, he said, in order to remove the pretext under which the gentlemen were resorting to filabustering tactics.

Mr. Rogers said the gentleman had no right to impugn the motive of any gentleman by charging that he was acting under a pretext. The charge made by the gentleman from Missouri was not true. So far trom acting under a pretext he was acting in good faith and to the country's benefit. The reason he was offering obstruction to this resolution was that the committee on labor, with four bills on the calendar, was asking to have four days assigned to it, when the appropriation bills remained undisposed of and when the committee on ways and means was maturing a bill affecting the interests of honest labor a hundred times more than any conceivable proposition over which the committee on labor had jurisdiction, Mr. O'Neill mentioned seven important bills

Mr. O'Neill mentioned seven important bills upon the calendar under the report of the committee on labor.

"I will tell these gentlemen," he said, "that you (indicating Mr. Rogers) have talked out this morning hour; that you have accomplished.

your purpose, and you have simply been the tool that had been used for that purpose."

Mr. Rogers demanded that the words be taken down; which was done, and they were read at the clerk's desk.

Mr. Cox, of New York, moved that the gentleman from Missouri be allowed to proceed in order, and the motion being agreed to, Mr. O'Niell resumed the floor amid applause. He said that the duties of members of the committee on labor were very ardueus, and that gentlemen on that committee were placed in a very peculiar position, being liable to be denounced as demagogues and catering to the workingmen whenever they brought in a bill in the interest of labor. As chairman of that committee, he had been obliged to sfand here for two days in an effort to secure consideration of a number of important labor bills, and see the time frittered away by men who, as leaders of the house, should be first to respond to the demands of the workingmen for the right to be heard. [Applause.]

Mr. Buchanan, of New Jersey, in behalf of the committee on labor proposed an elimination of the objectionable clause, and this laving been agreed to, Mr. Rogers withdrew his opposition and the resolution was adopted. It sets aside the 20th and 21st of March, 18th of April and the 16th of May for the purpose stated.

Mr. O'Neil withdrew any remarks of a per-

April and the 16th of May for the purpose stated.

Mr. O'Neil withdrew any remarks of a personal and offensive character, being, he said, willing to forgive everybody and anybody. In pursuance of the terms of the resolution just adopted, the floor was accorded to the committee on labor and bills were passed for the protection, in their wages, of mechanics, laborers and servants in the district of Columbia and territories; and extending the provisions of the eight hour law to letter carriers. The bill referring to the court of claims for the adjustment of the accounts of laborers, workmen and mechanics arising under the eight hour law, was discussed without action till adjournment.

HAMMERING AT THE TARIFF.

Several Important Changes Made in the Washington, March 20.—In addition to those already indicated, several amendments were made by the ways and means committee in the Mills tariff before its completion in were made by the ways and means committee in the Mills tariff before its completion in committee. One of these touches ornamented earthenware, which is made datiable by the bill at 40 per cent ad valorem. This earthenware is by the amendment raised to the class above it in the bill, and made to pay a daty of 45 per cent ad valorem, whereas the present duty is 55 per cent. In the iron schedule the entire clause relating to steel ingots, and fixing the duty on that class of manufactures which was re-classified to some extent at 57 per cent ad valorem, was stricken from the bill, leaving the duty at the present figure of 45 per cent ad valorem. In the section relating to gloves and fixing the duty on them at 40 per cent ad valorem, an exception was made in the case of gloves made of silk taffeta, which were placed at 50 per cent ad valorem, to equal duty on the silk from which they are manufactured. Hemp, fiax and jute twines, which now pay about 30 per cent duty ad valorem, and which the original bill proposed to place at 25 per cent, was still further reduced last night to 15 per cent. The present indications are that the bill will be reported to the house in the early part of next week, although the committee has not yet formally directed a report to be made.

FAIRBANKS'S WITNESSES.

FAIRBANKS'S WITNESSES. A New Development in the Lard Investiga-

A New Development in the Lard Investigation.

Washington, March 20.—Counsel for the manufacturers of refined lard opened their case before the house committee on agriculture this morning. Two men, who had for several years been employes of Squire & Co., of Massachusetts, a firm which has been particularly active in pushing the proposed bill for the branding and taxatlen of lard compounds, themselves used in one of their brands of lard the products of the rendering of the heads, feet and the offal parts of the hog.

On cross-examination witness stated that they had left the employment of Squire & Co., Saturday last, having been offered a better position with Fairbanks & Co., of Chicago. They had been promised this by Henry Rekstein, of Fairbanks' employes, who said that if they would come here and testify they would get a good position in Chicago. Their expenses while here were paid.

Mr. Cromwell, of counsel, said that allusion having been made to the use of petroleum tanks for the transportation of cotton seed oil, he wished to put on record the affidavits of shippers throughout the south upon the sub-

THEY DIDN'T ASK IT. Southern Senators Thank Mr. Blair for the Kindness

SHOWN IN HIS EX-CONFEDERATE BILL

onthern Soldiers Do Not Expect Any Special Favor From the Govern

Washington, March 20 .- In the senate among the bills reported from committees and placed on the calendar were the following:

To encourage the holding of a national industrial exposition of the arts, mechanics and products of the colored race in the United apply the surplus money in the treasury to apply the surplus money in the treasury to the purchase of United States bonds, and to the prepayment of interest. (Notice was given by Mr. Aldrich, who reported this bill, that he would call it up at an early day.)

To authorize the secretary of the treasury to

Mr. Blair, who yesterday introduced a bill giving preference for civil service appointments (among men who had been disloyal dur-Confederate army and who were suffering from wounds or disabilities, asked Mr. Platt, who had objected to the second reading of the bill, to withdraw his objection.

Mr. Platt said that he could not object to the bill, to withdraw his objection.

Mr. Platt said that he could not object to the bill being read the second time today, and referred to a committee. His objection yesterday had been based upon what seemed to be an inference from the title of the bill.

Mr. Blair remarked that the object of the bill was simply to provide that in appointments to the civil service, made from among those who had been disloyal, preference should be given to those who were suffering from wounds or disabilities resulting from service in the army of the confederacy. He had introduced the bill in entire good faith. He understood that in the state of North Carolina there were today 20,000 ex-soldjers of the confederacy who had lost limbs in the service, and that a very large number of them were in poor circumstances. It seemed to him that if the government under this administration, or under any other administration, gave appointments to men who had been disloyal, preference should be given to those who had served in the confederate army and were now disabled (other things being equal).

Debate on Mr. Blair's bill was continued up to two o'clock, when at his suggestion the bill went over till tomorrow, without action. Speeches were made by Messrs. Platt, Hale, Berry, Blair, Hoar and Hawley. Southern senators, while expressing the kindest feeling for the generosity and philanthrophy which had prompted the introduction of the bill, disclaimed all desire on the part of the ex-confederates for the passage of any such excep-for the generosity and philantirophy which had prompted the introduction of the bill, disclaimed all desire on the part of the ex-confederates for the passage of any such exceptional measures; but thought that as a matter of courtesy and uniformity of practice, the bill should be read the second time and referred. Northern senators were of one accord in con-demming the measure as unwise and ill-con-

In the course of the debate Mr. Blair repeated that the bill simply made a discrimination among those who had been disloyal, giving prefereuce to the man who had served in the confederate army and been disabled, as against a man who had also been disloyal but who had while here were paid.

Mr. Cromwell, of commel, said that alluston tank for the transportation of cotton seed oil, he wished to put on record the affidavis of shipper throughout the south upon the subcotton seed oil is shipped—in tanks exclusively used for that purpose. Some is shipped in the purpose is some is shipped in the season of the south of the which had previously been used to transport the which had previously been used to transport petroleum, containing cotton seed oil. There which had previously been used to transport petroleum, containing cotton seed oil. There which had previously been used to transport petroleum, containing cotton seed oil. There oil, which was perfectly sweet.

THE COLORED FEOTLES EXTOSITION

Frederick Douglass in about 200,000 to add the exposition and their efforts were seconded by Frederick Douglass in about a special containing the proposal of the seed of the s lic spirit of the country. All that the confederate soldier asked from the United States was that he should stand equal before its laws, and should have a fair opportunity to work out his own salvation. He would venture to say that there was not a town or hamlet, from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, where a confederate soldier was to be seen in rags or tatters, or begging his bread in its streets. There was not a place but where the confederate soldier was always welcomed as an honored guest. There was no danger of any honorable and true man, however humble he might be, or however small his fortune, dying on the road side because no good Samaritan would come by to lend him a helping hand. All that the ex-confederates asked was, not special privileges, but to be respected in their rights of American citizonship, which they had assumed knowingly and intentionally, and which they intended to abide by (God helping them) in such a manner that no man could justly lift against them the finger of scorn or apply to them an insulting epithet.

Mr. Hawley expressed himself as personally grateful to the Senator from Virginia (Daniel) for his manly and statesmanlike speech. There had been nothing so disagreeable in connection with the bill as its introduction by the senator from New Hampshire, and if the bill had been referred to a committee without notice he should not have cared about the question being raised, preferring to wait for the report of the committee. But the point had been made, and there was no proposition in the bill which could not be just as well understood and acted on now, as if there were a long report from the committee upon it. He thought that the bill was fundamentally a mistake. He not only disclaimed any feeling of hatred towards those who had been confederates, but he would not do anything to bar the progress or disqualify or dishonor them. The generous and manly confederate soldier knew as well as any of them that the issue had been joined before the greatest tribunal of the world on the question of South Carolina, if she did not remember such men in the days of restoration. At the same time he would not, by his vote or without a vigoroug protest, permit to be placed on the statute book anything which would, in any degree, reward a man for fighting on the confederate side in the war. He was obliged to the senator from Virginia, (Daniel.) He honored him, for remembering with gratitude and love the men who fought on his side, and he thanked him for not asking senators from the north to do that which in his (Hawley's) judgment, if they did they would be making fools of themselves.

The senate then passed bills to provide for the warehousing of fruit brandy; for the relief of ironclad builders—the Perines and the McKays; touching the grade of commander in the navy, and to correct an order in relation to an hays, and to correct an order in relation to an appointment therein (this was the case of Commander Quackenbusch and caused considerable debate). After executive session, the

WON'T HAUL THE CARS. . Engineers at Decatur, Ala., Refuse to Pull a Train With a "Q" Car in It. a Train With a "Q" Car in It.

DECATUR, Ala., March 20.—The engineers on the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Decatur today refused to pull a freight train to which a "Q" car was attached. The car was then taken out and turned over to the Memphis and Charleston, whose engineers also refused to move it. The car is now standing in the yard, and the engineers all refuse to pull a train to which the car is attached.

Kansas City, March 20.—The situation at the union denot this morning presents no

KANSAS CITY, March 20.—The situation at the union depot this morning presents no appearance of a strike. The Santa Fe is getting all of its trains out on time, and the accumulation of freight in the yards is being so greatly reduced that the officials of that company will be ready to receive all business by this evening. Six freight trains, carrying 146 this evening. Six freight trains, carrying 146 cars, went out this morning.

CAINO, Ill., March 20—The Illinois Central engineers at Jackson, Tenn., last nightlyefused to pull a train until three Burlington cars were cut out and side tracked, which was done. At Fulton, Ky., the company was obliged to refuse several Burlington cars from the Chesapeake and Ohib for the the same reason. It is generally understood on the line of the Illinois Central south that the engineers will handle no "Q" cars. A dispatch from East St. Louis says a freight train made up exclusively of cars for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, was brought over the Louisville and Nashville yesterday from Mount Vernon by a master mechanic.

ATTACHING THEIR PROPERTY. Excitement Over the Galtman Failure in Aberdeen.

They Complain of Ill Treatment.

Tucson. Ariz., March 20.—Marshal Meade and posse, who have returned from Janos, where they were arrested February 29 while pursuing the Stein passenger train robbers on Mexican soil, state that they were released on the 4th but their arms and horses were retained because they refused to sign a statement exonarating the officials from blame in the arrest, which they claimed was made for a violation of certain laws. The posse complain of ill treatment during their detention and have forwarded a statement to the department at Washington.

Change in the Mail and Express.

New York, March 20.—The Mail and Express this afternoon announces that Colonel Elliott F. Shepard, formerly president of the New York State Bar association, has this day purchased from Cyrus W. Field the Mail and Express newspaper. The Mail and Express will continue republican and favor protection to American industries.

Death of an Editor.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 20.—C. N. Shaw, formerly managing editor of the Pittsburg Dispatch, with a proprietary interest, died at 1 o'clock this morning, after a prolonged illness. Decembed was 40 years of age and until his health falled four years ago was widely khown as one of the brightest and most a uccessful of newspaper workers in the country.

SWINDLING THE STATE Disappearance of Kentucky's

Treasurer.

LEAVING A DEFICIT OF HALF MILLION Queer Actions of Treasurer Tate—His aquirles About the Extradition Treaty —His Sudden Disappearance.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 20.—A special to the Evening Times from Frankfort, Ky., says that Governor Buckner this morning suspended the treasurer of the state, James W. Tate. Tate is charged with defalcation in his office, and it is said has fled from the state. The defaulting official has been treasurer for treasurer for twenty-one years. He was considered the soul of honor, and the news will prove a tremen-

The defaulting official has been treasurer for twenty-one years. He was considered the soul of honor, and the news will prove a tremendous sensation throughout the state. A later dispatch from Frankfort states that an investigation immediately instituted on the recommendation of Governor Buckner has up to 11 o'clock this morning disclosed a deficit in Tate's office of $150,000, and that the irregularities seem to run back eleven years.

The discovery of Tate's shortage is a result of an examination of his books, commenced days ago by an expert accountant. The governor has placed the treasurer's office in charge of Auditor Hewitt and Attorney-General Pardin. In his message to the legislature, Governor Buckner says he has reasons for believing the deficit is large and that an immediate investigation be ordered. In the house a committee was at once appointed and ordered to prosecute the investigation in connection with officers in charge of the office. Pending the investigation the office will be closed. The state has abundant resources at hand. All current expenses, payments, dues, etc., will be met without interruption or delay. Treasurer Tate's bond is for $300,000, and the shortage is well covered. He was in Louisville Saturday night, when he was observed to be drinking hard, an unusual thing for him. Since that time he has not been seen and his whereabouts is unknown.

James William Tate was elected state treasurer in 1807, having been nominated by the democrats. He has been re-elected continuously at each election since, making his tenure of office twenty years on August 31st last. In the last democratic campaign Tate had no opposition for the nomination. Everybody laughed at the idea of opposing "Honest Old Tate." He received the democratic nomination for the tenth consecutive time. His majority has always stood among the largest on his ticket, and merry, honest, joky "Dick." Tate has been one of the most widely known and universally liked jmen, in Kentucky. In addition to being state treasurer, he was comm amount was not there. This, coupled with the fact that the treasurer had not been seen since Friday morning, when he left ostonsibly for Louisville, caused an examination to be made, with the result that the state's money was discovered to have been squandered in large amounts. Up to 11 a.m. the books had been examined sufficiently to show a shortage of nearly $150,000. The investigation was brought about by the strange conduct of Tate himself. On Thursday last Senator Wright states that he had a long talk with Tate, who questioned him closely, and at great length, as to the exact conditions of the extradition treaty between the United States and Canada, and also made lengthy inquiries on the treaty between the United States and Mexico. At the conclusion of the talk, which was one of great length, Tate thanked Senator Wright for the information. It began to be rumored that there was only a small amount in the banks to the credit of Tate, and when the treasurer was not seen on Thursday or Friday, Auditor Hewett suggested that an investigation of the circumstances should be made.

What has become of the money no one can tell. Tate never speculated nor gambled. He is said to have been an extravagant liver, but year by year the money has dropped out, the

What has become of the money no one can tell. Tate never speculated nor gambled. He is said to have been an extravagant liver, but year by year the money has dropped out, the shortage seeming to run back a dozen years. Mr. Herndon, of this city, who was at one time teller in a bank in Frankfort, says that Tate's defalcation will involve parties and state officials of high standing. He says that it was the custom of many state officers to go to Tate and get him to cash notes for them, promising to pay as soon as they had their vouchers. When they secured their vouchers, however, they would defer payment and the goodnatured treasurer, failing to push the claims, accumulated a mass of such securities as by this time must be simply appalling. There is no indication that he took any amount with him. The largest part of the shortage seems to have occurred in 1886 and 1887. Of course the report of the investigators alone will furnish definite light as to when and to whom Tate loaned the money. It has been Take's custom to settle up every year, and never till now was there the least he sitation on the part of the treasurer to compare accounts with the auditor. Some say Tate has gone to Mexico; others to Canada and others he has not left the state. His wife and daughter are very much prostrated. A dispatch from Frankfort to an afternoon paper says: Experts have not yet gone far enough in the investigation, but rumor says that the defalcation has already run up as high as $400,000, and there is no signs of cessation in the discovery of these startling facts. covery of these startling facts.

SHE IS FROM ATLANTA. But She was Decidedly Bashful at the Last Moment.

But She was Decidedly Bashul at the Last Moment.

Stalours, March 20.—[Special.]—A wedding, with romantic colorings, was celebrated in a quiet way in the palors of the Merchant's hotel this afternoon. S. C. Tucker of O'Fallon, Mo., is a prosperous lumber dealer and undertaker. He is about fifty years old. It was about two months ago that he first hit upon the idea of getting married. He looked around among the matrimonially inclined maidens of O'Fallon, but he found none that suited his fancy. He forwarded to an eastern journal a six months subscription. The first copy of the paper came promptly to hand. Mr. Tucker, in looking over the column of "Chances offered," saw one from an Atlanta lady, that struck him favorably. He replied to the advertisement, and in the course of a few days received an answer, written in a style that convinced him that his selection had not been a bad one. More letters were written, and then photographs were exchanged. An immediate wedding was decided upon. It was agreed that they should meet in St. Louis this morning. The lady came alone, and registered as Mrs. F. H. Miller. Mr. Tucker asrended to the parlor, Mrs. Miller was there waiting his arrival. They had a long talk. The interview ended in a satisfactory manner, evidently, for Mr. Tucker came down stalrs smilling, and whispered to the reverend gentleman, that "everything was all right." They ascended together to the parlor. Louis Jenks and wife were selected as witnesses, and in a very brief space of time the words had been said that made the couple man and wife. They remained in St. Louis until this morning, when they left for their future home. The bride is a good looking, but bashful widow. ST. Louis, March 20.-[Special.]-A wed-

Burned to Death.

RALEJOH, N. C., March 20.—[Special.]—
Near Rutherfordton, the house of Mrs. Lawson
Davis was burned. The bodies of Mrs. Davis and her sister were found in the ashes. In the same county Elsa Freeman was also burned while burning brush in the new ground.

SENATOR CARNOT'S FUNERAL.

tence of the Decoration Dealers.

Paris, March 20.—The funeral of Senator Carnot, father of the president, was held to-day. After the funeral, as the cortege was leaving the cemetery, a crowd of people rushed towards -M. Ferry's carriage, shouting "Abas Ferry; Vive Boulanger!" Order was finally restored. M. Ferry was compelled to accept police protection.

In the chamber of deputies today M. Cassignac spoke in behalf of Boulanger, protesting against his removal from the army. He disciamed being a partisan of Boulanger. During his remarks he quoted from an article in the Borsen Conrier of Berlin, which asserted that the government had removed Boulanger at Gormany's request. M. Tirard declared that M. Cassignac's remarks were insulting and requested that he would not continue to talk in that strain. (Applause.) The president of the chamber, then addressing Cassignac, said, "The country will judge."

General Cafferel and Madame Limousia were sentenced today for complicity in the sale of decorations. In the former's case extenuating circumstances were found, and the court only imposed a fine of 3,000 francs. The latter was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

THE REICHSTAG'S ADDRESS

rick.

Berlin, March 20.—In the reighstag today the president read the address of that body in reply to the imperial messace. The address expressed the gratitude of the reichstag to the emperor for overcoming all obstacles and assuming without delay the imperial dignity and its rights and duties; thanks his majesty for his assurances and expresses sorrow for the loss of the great ruler to whom Germany owes her reconstruction and her unity; whose life was devoted to strengthening Germany's influence and position; who was the guardian of peace; whose efforts were aimed to promoting the welfare of all classes; assures Emperor Frederick of its unswerving fidelity to accomplish all tasks Emperor William marked out and bequeathed to the Germans as a legacy. The address was adopted without debate. The session was closed with three cheers for Emperor Frederick.

It is expected that Emperor Frederick will proclaim an extensive amnesty on Thursday.

MACON'S LEGISLATORS.

The City Council Gets Through With a Variety of Business.

Macon, Ga., Mach 20.—[Special.]—The regular meeting of council was held tonight. A full board of aldermen was present. The reading of the market committee report was dispensed with, Mayor Price giving notice he would move to reconsider certain portions of the report.

the report.

The reading of petitions was then begun. A petition from the entire street force, asking that they be paid off weekly instead of monthly was granted.

A petition from the Macon Gas and Water

A petition from the Macon Gas and Water company, asking that the Covington and Macon Gas and be asked to buy four acres of ground between their road and the old Georgia road, below 9th street, was referred to the committee on public property.

Chief Wiley handed in his report for work done by the police this month.

The bid of E. Vannuki for park privileges for a year was accepted, as it was the highest bid offered.

The report of the markethouse committee was read and adopted. As stalls have not yet been put in, and work on them will be going on at the time, it was thought best not to grant the use of the building to the Southern Cadets, who wished to hold a fair the first week in April.

Notes from Columbu

Notes from Columbus.

Columbus, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—This morning Mr. Isham Sanders received a telegram stating that his brother, Mr. Adolphus Sanders, formerly of this city, died yesterday in Los Augeles, Cal.

Mr. W. T. Jones, foreman of the sash and blind department of the Columbus iron works, was married at 8 o'clock tonight to Miss Josie McCracken, of Girard.

The steamer Aid, which sank at the wharf last week, has been raised and is being put in tip top order. She will be ready to resume her trips in ten days. The Aid is the only independent boat on the river.

Collision at Sea BALTIMORE, March 20.—The bark Serene, Captain Segerman, at this port today from Rio Janiero, brought Captain McLeod and Mate McDonald, of the schooner Florence Mate McDonald, of the schooner Florence Rogers, from Charleston for New York, with railroad ties. About 2 o'clock on the morning of the 12th inst, some distance south from Cape Henry, the Serene collided with the schooner, by which the jib-boom and cat-heads were carried away and about twenty-five feet of the bulwarks were broken. The captain and mate of the schooner succeeded in boarding the bark, when the Rogers drifted off and was not seen again. Captain McLeod, of the Florence Rogers, reports that about three hours previous to the collision with the Serene, his vessel was in collision with the Serene, his vessel was in collision with an unknown three-masted schooner, in which he lost the jib-boom and bowsprit. After the collision with the Serene the Schooner began to fill, and seeing no hope to save the schooner, himself and mate got to the Serene, but the crew could not. The schooner had previously lost her boat. Both captains report a heavy sea and the wind blowing sixty-five to seventy miles an hour when the vessels collided.

Detectives Arouse Bad Feeling.

miles an hour when the vessels collided.

Detectives Arouse Bad Feeling.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 20.—[Special.]—
There is considerable excitement at Durham, growing out of the arrest of a number of liquor dealers, on the charge of viotating the local option law. Last week a New York detective came there, and soon got evidence against a number of them. Arrests followed, and the defendants were today required to give heavy bonds for their appearance at court. They will make a desperate fight in the case, and have employed ablejcoursel. It is the first time detectives were ever employed there for such a purpose, and people are stirred up. such a purpose, and people are stirred up, while great feeling is aroused between prohi-bitionists and anti-prohibitionists.

Accused of Libelling a Judge.

Ralmon, N. C., March 20.—[Special.]—At Wilmington today, S. B. Dudley and F. F. Aldrich were tried upon a charge of publishing a libel upon Judge O. P. Mears, of New Andover superior court, in their paper, the Weekly Bulletin, their editorial charging that Judge Mears grossly discriminated between white and colored people in court, and was very abusive in tone. Both editors are represented by able counsel.

The Bald Knobbers Confess St. Louis, March 20. -Two more of the in-dicted Bald Knobbers have presented written con-fessions to the sheriff. Amos Jones and William fessions to the sheriff. Almos Jones and wintam stanler follow Join Mathews in the plea for marcy, and manage to weave a story showing their presence had a tendency for a peace gathering. They accuse Charles Graves of being responsible, with Bill Walker, in the afrocious murders, while they used every endeavor to restore order and prevent bloodshed. Each one declares Charley Simmons innocent of any act or intention against the Edens family. They plea savors of a cry for mercy and revenge on Charley Graves.

Storms in the West. LINCOLN, Neb., March 20.—Information from different points in the state indicate that the storm that has raged for the last twelve hours has been severe. In western Nebraska eight inches of anow have fallen and the wind reached fifty miles an hour. All trains were delayed. The storm commenced with a high temperature and rain, then changed to snow. Reports from west of here saya many bridges have washed away since Saturday.

An Epidemic of Measles.

Lynchburg, Va., March 20.—An Advance special from Buckingham courthouse says an epidemic of measles is raging. Whole families are down with it. One family consisting of a man, his wife and fourteen children are prostrated, and an old couple, aged respectively 91 and 87, are down with the disease. A great many have died. An Epidemic of Measles.

TESTIMONIALS ACCUMULATING

Wonderful Cures

Natural Electricity

ELECTRIFIED WATER

ELECTRIC HEALTH RESORT

HILLMAN, TALIAFERRO COUNTY, GA.

While a great deal has been published about

GREAT GEORGIA WONDER

SPEEDY AND PERMANENT RELIEF

Afforded to many who have suffered from Rheumatism!

> Kidney Diseases! Insomnia!

Dyspepsia! Diseases Peculiar to Women! Loss of Appetite!

> Nervous Prostration! General Debility

Prof. J. R. Blake, Sr., of Greenwood, S. C. recently visited the resort, and gives the result of his observations in the following extract clipped from the Greenwood Tribune:

The curative value of the place for some diseases is very remarkable. Rheumatism, dyspepsia, paralysis and some forms of nervousness were signally relieved in individuals coming under my personal observation, one dyspepsia, paralysis and some forms of nervousness were signally relieved in individuals coming under my personal observation; one young man from McCormick, S. C., who had been prostrated for seventeen months by deranged digestion, was thoroughly cured, gaining eighteen pounds in one month. An elderly gentleman from Penfield, Ga., who had been partially paralyzed on one side, for eight years, arrived at the shaft in the same hack with myself. His right hand was disabled, and he walked with great difficulty when he arrived, but after six days in the shaft he could write letters to his family, and walked with comparative ease about the grounds. Many such cases are reported by reliable persons familiar with the history of the place.

Now as to the remedial agencies at work in effecting these wonderful cures, I must speak with more caution. A very common impression prevailing at a distance is that the relief afforced partakes of the nature of the "faith cures" of which we hear so much; but no one can remain long at the place without being convinced that this hypothesis is indefensible. In many cases cures come to the incredulous, and in spite of all the laws of faith. The prevailing theory among the visitors at the shaft is that the effect is produced from electricity derived from the walls and earth floor of the rooms. To test this belief in some practical form I made the following experiment: Two No. 16 copper wires, each 12 feet long, were inserted into the walls at opposite corners of shaft No. 1. In the absence of a scientific galverneter, I introduced into the circuit of these wires several of the most equable and selfserted into the walls at opposite corners of shaft No. 1. In the absence of a scientific galvemeter, I introduced into the circuit of these wires several of the most equable and self-poised patients who were present, to see if they could detect any current from the wall through the wires. Six persons were introduced in succession, and all except one claimed to feel in the wires the same tingling sensations which they derived directly from the wall. Of course, excited imagination and nervous irritability are unknown quantities which cannot be elimirated from this problem, so long as the human system is employed in its solution, but it is scarcely credible that so many reliable and sober persons would be mistaken in identifying the sensation derived from the wires with the sensation given by the walls. There is much difficulty still remaining in this problem, as to the origin of the electricity, the irregular fitful way in which it acts, and many other points suggested by the abnormal conditions of the case.

Among the remedial agencies at work, the excellent mineral water cannot be overlooked, indeed, I was at first disposed to ascribe all the cures chiefly to this agent, which is obtained in abundance from pumps in the corners of the shafts, and freely used by the patients.

Washington, Ga., January 23, 1888.—Mr.

washington, Ga., January 23, 1888.—Mr. James A. Benson, President: I certify that for ten years I have been a great sufferer with rheumatism, which became very much aggravated in the last two or three years. At times I was confined to my bed and house; was unable to walk without crutches, and was compelled to give up all work. My sufferings were intense. I applied to different doctors for relief, but experienced none from their treatment. Last summer I visited the Electric Health Resort at Hillman, and after staying there awhile and drinking the Electric Waters, my rheumatism was entirely cured, and I have not had the slightest return of it. It gives me great pleasure to testify to the great healing properties of this wonderful place and its waters, and nothing that I could say would too strongly express my confidence in its virtues.

EDWARD BONNER.

Washington, Ga., January 19.—Mr. James A. Benson, President: I take pleasure in bearing testimony to the remarkable virtues of the Electric Health Resort. My little laughter, Bessie, 10 years old, had an attack of a very serious nature, affecting her neck, in June last.

of a very serious nature, affecting her neck, in June last.

Alarmed at her condition, I had her treated by the most skillful physicians in this place that Atlanta, who used artificial electricity and other remedies. In September she was still suffering, and no change perceptible, when, as a last resort, we went to the electric thaft. She only went twice. The first visit is improved her, and the second night she remained all night in the rooms, and came home ompletely restored and has remained so. These are facts, and I state them with no other these than to inform others suffering as did any little girl of the wonderful virtues of this esort.

Jas. F. Jackson.

MR. B. F. Brown: Dea Sir—This certifies that during last May I was stricken with severe nervous prostration, was confined to my bed for the greater part of the time. About the 20th of August I went to the "Hillman Bhaft" (Electric Resort,) and after speuding our days there found that I was completely gured, and have been entirely well ever since hen. The cure in my case was a great wonder to me and my friends, and I am a strong believer in the virtues of the place.

(Signed) Mrs. J. K. Dusst,

Greenwood, S. C.

January 23, 1888.

B. F. BROWN, Manager. wed fri sun n r m

MILLIONS EATEN UP. How Vast Estates Vanish in Lawyers' Fees.

in Oriental's $100,000-Jesse Hoyt'e $8, Other Legal Bonanzas.

From the New York Journal.
"Ah! how many are rioting on dead men's

This was the exclamation of a conservative lawyer of prominence in speaking of the man-agement of large estates which the machinery of the courts is invoked to settle.

Behind the names of Stevens, Stokes, Cut-ting, Stewart, Anderson, Hamersley, Jumel, Colah, Hoyt, Wood, Soutter, Tilden, Gilman, Paine, Lenox and Sheldon lie recitals of more entrancing interest and of strange situations than any portrayed by the novelist.

Property valued at tens of milhons of dollars is at present in litigation in the surrogate's rt. Lawyers will not openly acknowledge that they desire to prolong this legal strife, but that this purpose is close at their hearts is well known. The estate pays the expenses of litigation, and while anything is left the con-scientious attorney finds that it is necessary to make some further move "in the interest of his client."

It is the old story of dividing the oyster-each litigant takes a shell and the lawyer takes the meat. When a man dies, leaving his heirs $100,000 to fight over, the proper di-takes the meat. When a man dies, leaving his heirs $100,000 to fight over, the proper division of the estate according to the legal conscience is almost as follows: Legal fees and costs, $90,000; disbursements and incidentals, $7,000: heirs, $3,000.

The heirs are not always as fortunate as this extreme case would indicate. Facts from the record will show this:

An Oriental merchant, who rejoiced in the picturesque name of Bomanjee Byranjee Colah, visited in this city eighteen years ago. He went on a spree and got locked up in a cell. The police found $40,000 in paper money and gold on his person, and an examination of his room in the Hoffman house showed that he had an additional $60,000 there.

He was a stranger in a strange land, and fair game for the lawyers. They charged that the Parsee merchant was a lunatic, and that it was necessary to appoint a committee to take charge of himself and his money. Nathaniel Jarvis, Jr., who is a lawyer in addition to being clerk of the court of common pleas, was the man who got the $100,000 in charge. The Parsee was sent to Bombay, where he died, at a cost of $25,000. Mr. Jarvis reported to the court that the balance he had on hand was exactly $33.63.

Samuel Wood, after whom the town of a cost of $25,000. Mr. Jarvis reported to the court that the balance he had on hand was exactly $33.63.

Samuel Wood, after whom the town of Woodsburg, L. I., is named, died in 1878, leaving a fortune estimated at $2,000,000. By specific bequests he left $237,000, to relatives, and the balance was to be expended in founding a college of music. The college will never be founded, for two good reasons—the bequest has been declared illegal and the money has been eaten up by expenses. The little item of $1,400,000 of the estate has vanished. Eight different attorneys and as many eminent counsel have been operating on the estate "in the interest of the college of music" for ten years past, and this fact tells the story.

Jesse Hoyt, the famous produce merchant of this city, died in 1882, leaving $8,000,000. He left the income of $1,250,000 for the use of his widow during life, and the same sum to his eccentric daughter, Mary Irene. They were dissatisfied and half a dozen lawyers were called in, among them General Benjamin F. Butler and Roscoe Conkling. A young attorney named Aaron Kahn, who was in the case, rendered a little bill for $40,746.68, but how much the big guns will receive is not known.

never harned Aron Rann, who was in the case, rendered a little bill for $40,746.68, but how much the big guns will receive is not known. The estate is a legal bonanza.

Mrs. Paran Stevens has enriched the lawyers. Her husband died in 1872, leaving $4,000,000. She received $100,000 outright, besides the income on $1,000,000, a city residence in Fifth avenue and the villa at Newport where she entertained the duke of Mariborough last summer. She was not content, and there has been a constant scene of legal squab-bles ever since, and there is no probability that they will be ended in her life time.

The Duchess D'Auxy seems to like the lawyers also. Before she became a duchess she was Mrs. Charlotte Soutter, the wife of Robert Soutter. Her charges of frand in the management of the estate occupied the courts for years.

The fight over the $1,000,000 left by Corne-lius S. V. Roosevelt has just been settled by the good sense of the relatives and to the cha-grin of the lawyers, and the same is true of the estate of Harvey Sheldon. ANGOSTURA BITTERS are the best remedy for removing indigestion and all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article; manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

A Touch of Nature from Kentucky. From the Louisville Courier-Journal No Rowan county man wants to die in his boots when there are snakes in them. TO REFORM OUR MEN.

The White Cross Army Getting to Work to Revolutionize the Town. From the New York Mail.

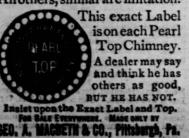

The White Cross Army has come over from England and invaded this city, where it proposes to remain as a rival of the Young Men's Christian association. It has established headquarters on the remain as a rival of the Young Men's Christian association. It has established headquarters on the same corner—Twenty-third street and Fourth avenue—and is rapidly enlisting unmarried men of the town into its ranks. It claims to have already 2,000 recruits, and if it keeps on, the metropol's may, in time, present a male population which shall be the envy of the world in all the virtues. Among its generals is William Blaikie, the well known athlete, and he is flanked by others of some standing in the community. The fundamental principles of the army are salutary, but radical. When a recruit is enlisted he subscribes, among other things, to the following:

"To treat all women respectfully and endeavor to protect them from harm and degradation," to endeavor to put down all improper language and course jests, wherever heard; to maintain the law of purity as equally binding on man and woman, and to spread these principles and endeavor to help younger brothers."

The commanders of the army are very sanguine that the crusade will bear abundant proof, and propose to extend it to all the large cities of the United States, until finally it will enjoy a national organization. They say the parent society in Europe has accomplished a vast amount of good in an unostentatious way. These warriors are by no means a gong-pounding Salvation Army crowd, but quiet, earnest workers if the cause of morality pure and simple, dissociated from religion in any direct form.

This is the Top of the GENUINE Pearl Top Lamp Chimney. Allothers, similar are imitation.

Makes the Weak Strong

If you feel tired, weak, worn out, or run down rom hard work, by impoverished condition of the blood or low state of the system, you should take Hood's Sarssparilla. The peculiar toning, purifying, and vitalizing qualities of this successful medicine are soon felt throughout the entire system, expelling disease, and giving quick, healthy action to every organ. It tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and rouses the liver and kidneys. Thousands testify that Hood's Sarssparilla "makes the weak strong."

At this season a good reliable tonic and blood purifier is needed by nearly everybody. Hood's Sarssparilla is peculiarly adapted for this purpose and becomes more popular every year. Try it.

"When I took Hood's Sarssparilla that heaviness in my stomach left; the dullness in my head, and the gloomy, despondent feeling disappeared. I began to get stronger, my blood gained better circulation, the coldness in my hands and feet left me, and my kidneys do not bother me as before."

G. W. HULL, Attorney-at-Law, Millersburg, O.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

After Dengue Fever

"I have taken not quite a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and must say it is one of the best medicines for giving an appetite, purifying the blood, and regulating the digestive organs, that I ever heard of. It did me a great deal of good." Mrs. N. A. STANLEY, Cansstota, N. Y.

"I took Hood's Sarsaparilla for loss of appetite, dyspepsia, and general languor. It did me a vast amount of good, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it." J. W. WILLEFORD, Quincy, I'l.

N. B.—Be sure to get

"My daughter Pearl was taken down with dengue fever two years ago, since which time she had never seen a well day, and all my friends thought I would lose her. I had almost given up hope until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla about four months ago. She has taken four bottles, and has gained fifteen pounds in weight in that time. I have to thank Hood's Sarsaparilla as being the means of giving her back to me restored to health and strength." Julia A. King, Sherman, Texas.

Now is the time to take

Hood's Sarsaparilla

HUNNICUTT & BELLINGRATH.

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

100 Doses One Dollar

Sanitary Plumbers, Steam and Gas Fitters, Galvanized Iron and Tin Workers, Fine Gas Fixtures, Hard Wood and Marbleized Iron Mantels, Grates, Tile Hearths and Facings a specialty.

CARRIAGES! BABY Cheaper than anywhere in the City. Water Coolers, Tin Water Sets, Granite Iron Ware, Stoves, Ranges and all kinds Housefurnishing Goods. Call or send for prices. ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

THE SOUTHERN GRANITE COMPANY. QUARRIES AT LITHONIA, GA.

General Contractors in Granite

We take pleasure in announcing that we are now prepared to furnish estimates upon the finest quality of Lithonia

For any and all purposes, especially in the line of FINE ARCHITECTURAL

MONUMENTAL AND STREET PAVING WORK

PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND ESTIMATES WILL BE PROMPTLY FURNISHED. BRANCH OFFICE :

RAILROAD SCREDULE.

Savannah, Ga.

ATLANTA, GRORGIA, December 18th, 1837.

On and after this date Passenger Trains will run daily, as follows, except those marked, whichar iun daily accept Sunday. And those marked * are run on Sunday only.

Leave Atlanta.

6:30 am 7:16 pm 2:30 pm 10:30 pm 7 5:00 pm 8:00 pm 12:01 pm 4:12:30 pm 12:30 pm - 8:20 am 8:45 pm 4:05 pm 11:20 pm † 7:06 pm * 4:58 pm 10:25 am 10:50 pm 6:30 pm 11:50 pm † 7:05 pm * 6:30 pm 2:55 pm 4 7:05 p

4:10 pm 7:13 pm 2:55 pm 2:08 pm	8:08 am	4:37 am 7:25 am 11:05 pm	4:50 am
maston, F	erry, Fort Satonton, h	Caines To	albotton T	Puone Vie	to Diakolo	e Canto
9:40 am	11:15 pm
		10:12 pm 4.25 am	10:47 am 3:10 pm
2:00 pm 8:27 pm	5:85 am 5:08 am	9:10 am	7:05 pm 8:34 pm	† 5:20 am	* 7:00 am
4:05 pm	5:41 am	11:31 am	9:05 pm	† 5:57 am	* 7:45 am	† 1:10 pr
	4:10 pm 7:13 pm 2:55 pm 2:05 pm 2:08 pm 5:00 pm pmaston, F thtsville, 1 7:10 am 9:40 am 2:00 pm	4:10 pm	4:10 pm	4:10 pm	4:10 pm	4:10 pm

Adapts Atlanta and Albany.

Through car between Atlanta and Columbus via Griffin.

Tickets for all points and Sleeping Car berth tickets on sale at Union Depot Licket office, in Atlanta.

CLYDE BOSTICK. Passenger Agent.

ALBERT HOWELL. Union Ticket Agent.

E. T. CHARLTON, Gen. Pass. Agent, SavannahGa.

MBER! SASH, BLINDS! DOORS,

MANTELS, MOULDINGS, SCROLL WORK, NEWEL BALUSTERS, RAILS, WINDOW GLASS, BUILDERS' HARDWARE, ETC.
REMEMBER, I MANUFACTURE MY OWN GOODS, AND AM HEADQUARTERS FOR ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL. WRITE FOR ESTIMATES.

W. L. TRAYNHAM, ATLANTA, GA.

SKYLIGHTS And VENTILATORS, for Mills, Stores and Dwellings. Galvanized Iron and Copper Cornices and Gutters. Metal Shingles. Sheet Metal Work for Buildings. Send for Illustrated Circular.

E. VAN NOORDEN & CO., 383 Harrison Ave., - Boston, Mass.

ATLANTA LUMBER COMPANY, YARDS. MILLS.

Humphries St 48 On Line C. B &E T., V. & G R & E T, V. Railway. &G. Ry.

Long Leaf Pine KILN-DRY DRESSED FLOORING CEILING. WEATHERBOARDING. SHINGLES AND LATHS, BRIDGE AND TRESTLE TIMBERS.

PLANTS NEW ILLUSTRATED CATAding Plants, Roses, etc., is now ready. Our stock of plants, etc., is the largest and most extensive in the south. Catalogue mailed free on application.
Address

Printland Nurseries.

Best in quality, lowest in price. Write for esti-

Take the Midland Route (Georgia Midland and Gulf R. R.)

SHORTEST AND QUICKEST ROUTE NO CHANGE OF CARS -BETWEEN-

ATLANTA DE COLUMBUS -AND ONLY ONE CHANGE TO-

UNION SPRINGS, TROY AND EUFAULA TRAIN LEAVES ATLANTA (via C. R. R. and Griffin) 2:80 p. m.,

> ARRIVES COLUMBUS 7:15 p. m. NORTH BOUND TRAIN,

LEAVE COLUMBUS 8:20 a. m., ARRIVE ATLANTA 1:15 p. m. Making connection certain in Union Depot for all points beyond Atlanta.
Trains leave McDonough southbound at 2:30 p. m. Accommodation train leaves Griffin at 5:00 d. m., PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

EUGENE M, MITCHELL, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Broad Street, Atlanta, Ga., Grant Buil Damage suits a spe PROF. OTTO SPAHR, her of Vocal and Instrumental Music, 171 South Forsyth Street. ROBERT HARBISON, COUNSELOR AND ATTORNEY AT LAW, Gate City Bank Building, Rooms 54 and 55.

Attorney and Special Agent in Georgia Anterican Surety Company of New York.
(Paid up cash capital $1,000,000.) Guarantee and Surety Bonds.

FRANK CARTER. ATTORNEY AT LAW,
12½ E. Alabama St., Atlanta, Ga. Refers to Moore, Marsh & Co., Gate City National Bank. 'Phone 333.
G. T. OSBORN,
OFFICIAL STENOGRAPHER COWETA CIRCUIT,
All calls by telegram or otherwise promptly attended to. Office 21 Marietta Street. HUGH ANGIER, CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR, Railroad and Sanitary work a specialty.

14½ Whitehall St. Room No. 22. AMUEL W. GOODE CLIFFORD L. ANDERSON, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Offices No. 1 Marietta street, corner Peachtree. Will do a general practice in all the courts, State and Federal, Real Estate and Corporation Law specialties. 1 tope

N. J. & T. A. HAMMOND,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW.
Ecoms Nos. 41 and 42 Gate City Bank Building.
T. A. Hammond, Jr., Commissioner for taking Depositions in Fulton County.
H. LAMAR.
LAMAR & ZACHRY. H. LAMAR & ZACHRY.

HAMAR & ZAUHRY.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Washington, D. C. Refer by permission to F.
A. H. Colquitt, J. E. Brown, John D. Stewart,
Blount, C. F. Crisp, A. D. Candler, Georg
Barnes, T. M. Norwood, H. H. Carlton, The Grimes and H. G. Turner. EDMUND W. MARTIN,

Attorney and Counselor at Law, No. 55% Whitehall Street Atlanta, Ga. Telephone 512. WILLIAM A. HAYGOOD. HAMILTON DOUGLAS.

HAYGOOD & DOUGLAS,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Office 17½ Peachtree St.

Telephone 117. WALTER GREGORY, om 5, Attorney and Counselor at Law.

Attorney and Counselor at Law.

Attorney and Counselor at Law.

Because and insurance cases, and collections.

JOHN M. SLATON,

JOHN M. SLATON,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
20% Peachtree Street,
Healy Bunding.
By 20% Peachtree Street,
Atlanta, Ga.
By 21 y

E. C. JOHNSON.
JOHNSON & JOHNSOA
ATTORNEYS AT LAW. (N. J. Hammond's Old Office) 21% E. Alabama Street, Atlanta, Georgia.
A. R. WRIGHT, MAX MEYERHARDT. & WRIGHT,
WRIGHT, MEYERHARDT & WRIGHT,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW. ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

EDMUND G. LIND, ARCHITECT, Office, 63% Whitehall Street, Atlanta, Ga. W. H. PARKINS, ARCHITECT, Office 7½ N. Broad Street, Atlanta, Ga.

L. B. WHEELER. I. B. WHEELER, ARCHITECT, Atlanta, Ga. Office 4th floor Chamberlin & Boynton buildin or. Whitehall and Hnter streets. Take eleve

CEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—TO THE SUPE I rior court of said county: J. C. Kimball, W. A. Hemphill, C. W. Hunnicutt, W. B. Lowe, J. A. Fitten, O. C. Fuller, D. M. Bain, H. W. Grady, A. E. Buck, H. I. Kimball, S. H. Phelan, P. H. Snook, Joseph M. Brown, John M. Green, Martin Amerous, and Hoke Smith, of the city of Atlanta, and state of Georgia, petition for themselves, their associates and successors to obtain a charter and organize a corporation to be known as the "ATLANTA AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATING CO."

"ATLANTA AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATING CO."
The principal office, place of business and residence of said corporation shall be in the city of Atlanta, but your petitioners desire for said corporation the privilege of transacting business in all parts of the state of Georgia, wherever it may be to the best interests of said corporation so to do; also to establish branch offices and to appoint such agents, attorneys and representatives as may be necessary to carry on the business of said corporation, and to confer authority upon them for that purpose. rurpose.

The particular business of said corporation shall be that of operating, selling and dealing in refrigerating appliances, apparatus and machinery of all kinds, and of selling and dealing in refrigeration ating appliances, apparatus and machinery of all kinds, and of selling and dealing in refrigeration produced thereby.

The capital stock of said corporation shall be one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars; said stock to be divided into shares of five ($5.00) dollars; each; and the said corporation shall have the right to issue full paid stock for the purchase of real or personal property of any kind necessary for the businear os the corporation.

Petitioners further pray for the right to make such by-laws and rules of government for said corporation as may be necessary and proper, and to enforce the same by such penaltes, fines and forfeitures as may be agreed upon by a majority of the stockholders, provided all such rules and by-laws shall be in conformity with the laws of the state; to borrow money on real estate or personal property, and to execute such mortgages or transfers thereof as may be necessary for the state; to borrow money on real estate or personal property, and to execute such mortgages or transfers thereof as may be necessary for the state; and be sued; to plead and be impleaded; to contract and be contracted with, and to have such other powers, and do such other acts, as are usual and proper to carry out the intent and design of said organization.

Petitioners pray to te incorporated for the full term of twenty years, with the utivileze of renewal restriction of the full term of twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of said term.

HOKE & BURTON SMITH, Petitioners' Attorneys.
Filed in office February 28, 1888.
A true and correct copy, as appears of record in this office, this February 28, 1889.

Lyw_dwkf eb29 C. H. STRONG, C. S. C. 1ww-4wkf eb29

GRAND NATIONAL AWARD OF 16,600 FRANCS.

QUINA-LAROCHE LAROCHE'S TONIC. A STIMULATING RESTORATIVE, CONTAINING PERUVIAN BARK, IRON, and PURE CATALAN WINE.

The GREAT FRENCH REMEDY ENDORSED by the HOSPITALS for the PREVENTION and CURE of DYSPEPSIA, MALARIA, FEVER AND AGUE. NEURALGIA, LOSS OF APPETITE, GASTRALGIA, POORNESS OF BLOOD, AND

RETARDED CONVALESCENCE. An experience of 25 years in experimental an-alysis, together with the valuable aid extended by the Academy of Medicine in Paris, has enabled M. Laroche to extract the entire properties of Peruvian Bark (a result not before obtained), and to concentrate them in an elixir, which pos-and to concentrate them in an elixir, which pos-sesses in the highest degree its restorative and invigorating qualities, free from the disagree-able bitterness of ordinary preparations. This wonderful invigorating tonic is powerful in its effect, is easily administered, assimilates thoroughly and quickly with the gastric juices, without deranging the action of the stomach. The great Medical Journal of England, the London Lawrencesses. "It is an agreeable, and London Lancer, says: "It is an agreeable, and doubtless highly efficacious remedy." 22 Rue Drouot, Paris.

E. FOUGERA & CO., Agents for U.S., 80 North William Street, N. Y. PETER LYNCH, 95 Whitehall Street, ATLANTA. - - GEORGIA.

Retait Dealer in Foreign and Domestic Liquors. Fine Liquors and Wines for medicinal purposes a specialty. Also bottled English Ale, Dublin Porter and Lager Beer, Tobaccos, Cigars and Smuff, Guns and Ammunition; Pistols and Cartridges; also Frield and Garden Seeds in their geaches; Glass and Crockery ware, Boots and Shoes, and man, other HELP WANTED-MALE.

WANTED-MAN TO TAKE THE AGENCY our safes, size 2xi3xi8 inches, weigh WANTED—MAN TO TAKE THE AGENCY our safes, size 25 xilxxis inches, weigh ba; retail price 835 other sizes in proportio are chance to create a permanent business at I hese safes meet a demand never before suppi other safe companies, as we are not governed Safe Pool. Alpine Safe Co., Cincinnati, O. word sat

WANTED-A YOUNG MAN TO DRUM WHOLE sale and retail grocery, confectionery and dare trade, on commission. Bateman & Foutz, 41% Albama street. Dama street.

MANTED—STRICTLY FIRST CLASS MAN FOR the sale of Inbricating oils to the consuming trade in Atlanta and vicinity. Frevious experience in this line not essential, but must be trustworthy man and good salesman. Fernmanch position and good salary to the right applicant. Suitable applicants will be granted opportunity for personal interview at Atlanta. Address, giving age, previous business experience and references. Vacuum Oil Co., Kochester, N. Y.

WANTED—BY THE PRESIDENT OF A MANUAL VIACTURE COMPANY, PRIVATE PRESIDENT OF A MANUAL VIACTURE COMPANY, PRIVATE SCREENING CO. A MANUAL VIACTURE COMPANY OF A MANUAL

SITUATIONS WANTED-MALE. WANTED-POSITION BY YOUNG MAN, WITH six years' experience with one of the leading wholesale drug houses of the north. Can furnish

WANTED-POSITION BY GRADUATE IN Pharmacy. Four years experience. Best Pharmacy. Age 22. Address T. A. Sloan, Mc. A FIRST-CLASS PAINTER DESIRES WORK AT his trade. Apply at 14 Rhodes street. CIVIL ENGINEER AND DRAUGHTSMAN OF tem years experience desire position. Account tomed to city work. Address "W. D.," care Atlanta Constitution WANTED—A SITUATION BY A MAN WHIliegnce to do so. Will guarantee satisfaction to his employer. Can give the bet of references. Address "W," Constitution office.

WANTED-AGENTS. A GENTS WANTED FOR THE NEW REvised Imperial Edition of Zell's Encyclopediag (and other works) just issued. New features, 50 per cent thicker and retail prices reduced. Exceedingly literal terms to experienced men. Address. T. Ellwood Zell, Publisher, Philadelphia, Pa. 3t WANTED—LADY AGENTS—"A" SKIET AND Bustle Combined and B. Hose Supporters. Both new. Big profits. Secure towns for spring trade. Ladies' Supply Co., 287 W. Washington St., Chicago. 3m wed fri sun $100 TO $300 A MONTH CAN BE MADE who can furnish their own horses and give their whole time to the business. Spare moments may be profitably employed also. A few racancies in towns and cities. H. F. Johnson & Co., 1009 Maine street, Richmond, Va.

WANTED-MISCELLANEOUS. WANTED-FOR CASH AT 65 S. PRYOR ST., one good second hand three spring wagon PERSONAL.

WE SEND BY MAIL POSTPAID TO ANY ADdress the simplest and best forms of plain warranty land deeds, quit claim deeds, blank mortgages and blank bonds for title at the following prices: 1 blank 5 cents; 5 blanks 10 cents; 1 dozen
blanks 30 cents; 100 blanks 31.50. Address The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

PUSINESS MEN DERIVE GREAT SATISFACT
tion from the use of our "Ironclad" notes which waive homestead rights and all the examp tions. We now send, postpaid, the above described note, 100 in a book, for 40c, or a book of 30 for 25c.
We have also the above form with seven lines blank
for taking a mortgage, which we call an "Ironclad"

for taking a mortgage, which we call an "frond note with mortgage clause." We send these, po paid, 100 in a book, for 60c; 50 in a book for 3. Address The Constitution. FOR SALE-MISCELLANEOUS. PURE JERSEY MILK-I CAN SUPPLY HOTEL, private boarding-house or restaurant with ten to diffeen gallous of pure Jersey milk per day. My cows have the best of food and clean water. Address W. W. Boyd, Box 83, city, or call at 214 Marietta street.

TYOR SALE CHEAP - SEVERAL IMPOSING stones, with tables, almost new. Call on or address Weekly Department of Constitution. declot

LOST.

LOST—A BUNDLE OF UNDERCLOTHES, BE tween Bell's Junction and Charlotte. Finder will be rewarded by sending them to Arthur Waters, Charlotte, N. C. mar 20 2t FOUND—A STRAY POINTER DOG, WHICH THE owner can have by paying expenses. Apply at 120 Decatur street.

WOLFES BARGAIN HOUSE, 98 WHITEHALL street—The only place in this city where you can buy anything you want at your own price: bed steads 37.50 to 88: dresers 86 to $15;good cassimere pants $1.50 to $2.50;good cassimere coats $1.25 to $3.50; boys knee pants 50: to 75c. Constantly on hand carpets, spring mattresses, longes, oil paintings, writing desks, show cases, sewing machines, lambraquins at slaughtering prices; money advanced in any amount on consignment; auction sales promptly attended to on liberal terms; highest cash price paid for office and household furniture, H. Wolfe, agent.

LADIES' COLUMN. WANTED—LADIES TO USE "CHICHESTER" English," Diamond Brand, Pennyroyal Pills, Safe. Always reliable. The original. The only genuine. Ask druggists or send 4c stamps for paticulars, return mail. Chichester Chemical Co., Philadelphia, Pa. 81 Wes. Philadelphia, ra.

FEATHERS CLEANED, CURLED AND DYED also kid gloves, at Phillip's, 14 Marietta street

BOARDERS WANTED. $4 TO SSPERWEEK. 108 MARIETTA STREET, near postoffice. Nicely furnished, plane in parlor; table unexcelled. Pleasant, quiet; satisfaction guaranteed. Several Young Men can now obtain good board and comfortably furnished rooms; also one unfurnished room if desired by a shall family at Mrs. Mary A. Watt's, 53 Luckie street.

TWO CONNECTING FURNISHED ROOMS WITH or without board, at 64 Walton street, two squares from Post-office.

T EYDEN HOUSE, CLEAN, HEALTHY LOCA-Inst-class house can anord. No. 124 Featuree say
OCAL, TRANSIENT AND DAY BOARDERS CAN obtain delightful rooms, polite attention and excellent board at Nos. 26 and 28 N. Forsyth street.

FOR SALE-REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—AT EDGEWOOD, GA., 20 ACRS well improved land, fronting on Georgia rail road. Convenient to schools and regular stopping places of trains. Apply at No. 1 Peachtree street, sun wed

IF YOU WANT THE BEST VACANT LOT ON Capitol avenue, one block from new capitol, or a vacant lot or house and lot on less expensive street, apply 17½ Peachtree street, room 8, from 3 to 5 p. m. FOR SALE---HORSES, CARRIAGES SHETLAND PONY FOR SALE. ONE YEAR OLD Address, E. V., Branchville, S. C., care of Post-

BUSINESS CHANCES. PRIVATE PARTIES, WITH MONEY TO INVEST oan, can find an excellent opportunity ng "X," care postmaster, Edgewood, Ga. A GOOD CHANCE FOR A MAN WITH SEVEN this office.

DR. RICE,

WILL SELL THIRD OR HALF INTEREST IN
A well paying wholesale grocery business, good opening for right man. Address Business, this

For 15 years at 37 Court Place, now a 822 Market Street, Louisville, Ky Bet. Third and Fourth, Argularly educated and legally qualified physician and the Cures all forms of PRIVATE, CHRONIC and SEXUAL DIS-

Spermatorrhee and Impotency, as the result of self-shoss in youth, as that excess in mature years, or other causes, and producing sense of the full state of the causes, and producing sense of the full state of the causes, and producing sense of the full state of the cause of Sight, Defective Mapper, Physical Decay, Phimpiston Free, Arrenton to Society of Krizalas, Ocanision of Ideas, Ioas of Sexual Power, &c., radering marriage improper or unhappy, are theroughly and premanently correct SYPHILITS positively cared and carriage candicated from the system: Genory-hea, GLEET, Siricture, Ornitis, Bernis, (or Explaint), Pilea and other private diseases quickly cared.

It is self-evident that a phy sickan who pays special attention to a certain class of diseases, and treating the shifts annually, sequires great still. Physicians knowing this excellent to visit the city for treatment, medicine can be asset privately and ashity by mail or express saywhere. recommend persons to my carevisit the city for treatment, medicines can be sent privacy and askly by mail or express anywhere.

Cures Guarantood in all Cases undertaken.
Conscilations personally or by letter free and invited.
Charges reasonable and correspondence strictly confidential.

PRIVATE COUNSELOR Of 200 pages, sent to any address, socurely scaled, for thirty (50) cents. Should be read by all. Address 68 above. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. Busslays, 3 to 4 P. M. TO WEAK MEN

HURRICANE TRESTLE. The Terrible Wreck of Last Saturday Morning.

Cause of the Wreck Not Yet Dicovered cones and Incidents of the Great Railway Disaster.

BLACKSHEAR, Ga., March 20 .- [Special.]fact remains that a pair of wheels, not a air of trucks, but simply a pair of wheels, the track. What caused it no one There was no weight on them, as is own by their striking only every third or This tends to explain why nobody knew of their being off. There was no weight n them, and consequently no jolting. One of the injured passengers says his first intimation of the disaster was that the sleeper in which he ter was that the sleeper in which he med to veer to the right, and then it mmenced going down, and it seemed an age ore it struck the earth. That terrible feeling of going down and down into a horrible death, which it seemed he could never reach, and yet which he knew must come, was a senbe would not experience again for mill-

Of these wounded Dr. William Duncan, of Savannah, surgeon of the company in charge of them, says while some of these have been severely injured, the symptoms of all are favorable, and the most of them will soon be

Mrs. Ames, of Providence, Mrs. Thompson, of New Orleans, and J. W. Thompson, colored, of Jacksonville, are among the worst injured, and they are doing nicely at this time. Mrs. Perrero has a hip fracture, but there is no danger They are receiving every attention that skilled surgeons and sympathetic nurses can give them. Mr. C. D. Owens, traffic manager of the road. has been looking after the dead and caring for the injured ever since the accident. M. A. Wilbur, who was killed, was a cripple. His crutch was found among the debris. Taff Overstreet and Lonnie Wilson, two young boys of Blackshear, were out gunning, within a few hundred yards of the bridge, when the accident happened. They were the first to reach there, and assisted Engineer. Welch to put out the fire in the baggage car. Mr. John C. Blackburn, of Blackshear, came next. He found fire in one of the sleepers, and turned his attention there. Others soon arrived, and then the work of rescuing began. President Wilbur, who is reported as convales-cing rapidly, Mrs. Gould and others, have been exceedingly demonstrative in their apprecia-tion of the assistance and sympathy they have received at the hands of the people of Black-shear. While humanity would have prompted all that was done, still this terrible calamity has created a bond of sympathy between the survivors and the people of Blackshear and Waycross that will be enduring. What comed itself particularly to the northern mind was the entire absence of pillaging and the earnest desire to help them that was shown in the acts and words of everybody. Among the effects of one of the unfortunate dead was found a rabbit foot, which dooms the rabbit toot hereafter as a mascot of good luck.

The work of removing the debris is progres ing slowly. It has to be carried 500 feet to clear the trestle, and then will have to be raised up an embankment twenty feet high. It is prob able that a track will have to be laid on which seriously injured. The sleeper in front of it telescoped it, but beyond this its damage is slight. The other cars, are no more than kindling The damage is generally estimated at about $75,000, but no one outside of the officials know much about it.

It is reported that one of the negroes who fell with the bents is dead, but for this accident trains would have been running much Major John H. Pate, who was killed, was connected with the state agricultural department at Atlanta. The Number of the Dead. SAVANNAH, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]— Captain W. D. Dixon has made out a report and handed to Mr. W. O. Jackson, the master of transportation. Captain Dixon has fourteen He had charge of all the bodies except four. This makes the list of dead eighteen. Dr. Duncan's official report to the road gives the number of dead as seventeen. Captain Dixon says that there were six colored bodies instead of five, the number given by Dr. can. Captain Dixon's report is less than the number given yesterday, and Dr. Duncan's b five less. The official list is as foll ows: W. A. MARTIN, Savannah. C. A. FULTON, Savannah. W. B. GERGER, Savannah. CÆSAR FOSSENT, colored, Savannah. T. M. SMITH, Pullman car conductor. JOHN T. RAY, Dule's Mill.

MRS. MARION SHAW, Jacksonvil le, Fla. MISS MAMIE SHAW, Jacksonville, Fla. MRS. G. W. KELLY, Louisville, Ga. W. P. McGRUFF, Columbia, Ala. J. H. HURLBURT, Philadelphia, Pa. M. A. WILBUR, South Bethlehem, Pa. I II PATE Hawkinsville MOSE GALE, colored, Valdosta. LLOYD CARSON, colored, Valdosta. UNKNOWN COLORED MAN.

been reported dead who are not. No deaths have been reported today. The body of young M. A' Willhur has been Amhalmed and is lying at Captain Dixon's undertaking establishment waiting orders from the father. The top of the casket is covered with flowers, which were sent by ladies of Savannah. Wilbur is a stranger, and this act of these ladies is a most beautiful, touching incident.
The Savannah, Florida and Western railway is running its regular schedule between this city and Jacksonville today. At 4 o'clock this evening the Hurricane river trestle was in thape for trains to cross. All of the woodwork and, and as it was not broken much in the fall, it was in shape to be put up again. This anabled the workmen to make such rapid progress that they finished their work much oner than was expected.

Superintendent Fleming was at Waycross this morning, and may come back tonight. Mr. O. W. Jackson was today shown a letter, signed G. S. Wekoff, and published in the New York World. Wyckoff claims to know a great deal about the Savannah, Florida and Western track. He says that the bridges are not safe, and makes some strong statements. He appears to have some grievance against the road. Mr. Jackson laughed at the statements road. Mr. Jackson laughed at the bridges do not in the letter. He says that the bridges do not come under his department, but Mr. Riley tells him that the bents are all sound enough

There Was No Pillaging. There Was No Pillaging.

BLACKSHRAR, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—
The special from Savannah, reporting the victims in Saturday's disaster as having teen heartlessly robbed by ghoulish theives, is a malicious slander upon the noble people whose generosity and humanity helped them.
The absence of pillaging was especially commented upon by the passengers who survived the accident.

W. G. BRANTLY.

To Speak on Sunday. Oxrond, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Mr. J. Key, of the senior class, has been invited by the citizens of Warrenton to deliver a Sunday shool address in Warrenton upon Easter Sun-school address in Warrenton to center a sunday-lichool address in Warrenton upon Easter Sun-day, April 1st. Mr. Key has fully and thor-oughly established his ability as an able orator and as a forcible, impressive speaker; and be-fond a doubt the people of Warrenton will be an measurably pleased with their excellent se-dection.

Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla regulates the Regulator. Best blood purifier—largest bottle in the market. Manufactured by pro-prietors of Warner's Safe Cure. Sold by all

THE CONSTITUTE ago, of the presen nah, who claimed like a Scandin te a Scandina ugue with a br rougly intimate iling under fals e nephew of Jo pudon, Liverpo pany. The your George J. Vyle, he landed in the to the health of t quiry in New Y of the suspicion ton, now unde Dawson, of Atla Colonel A. N. W

Mrs. Reid Pro

pocket and a

The Plan for

The car of President Wilbur is not

Railre JEFFERS they know don't you Athens wil rail.

breaking vigilant ar crime in this sheriff we ha ALBANY Captain Dixon adds one corpse to this list, making eighteen deaths. Several others have

LEXINGTÓ

To Go ATHENS,

umbus las

last Satur

ALBANY

and relia

Beware

ARDS. HELL, Grant Build HR,

in Georgia P NEW YORK. onds.

WETA CIRCUIT tta Street.

RVEYOR RD L. ANDERSON RSON, ces No. 1 Marietta do a general prac-d Federal. Real cialties, itope IMOND.

ORS AT LAW. Bank Building or Streets, doner for taking J. G. ZACHRY LAW, RTIN, elephone 512. IGLAS, 17½ Peachtree St. Atlanta, Ga.

Atlanta, Ga. I. H. JOHNSOF

Hammond's Old thanta, Georgia SEABORN WRIGHT, ons a specialty. Atlanta, Ga.

anta, Ga.

TO THE SUPE-Martin Amerous, lanta, and state and organize a GERATING CO tusiness and resibe in the city of tester for said corposacting business in all a company of the corporation so to do; also and to appoint such a company of the corporation from for that ated for the full ivilege of renewal

TRONG, C. S. C. AWARD OF ICS.

ROCHE ONIC. ESTORATIVE. IRON, and

WINE. H REMEDY SPITALS for CURE of APPETITE,

F BLOOD, AND

SCENCE. experimental anable aid extended n Paris, has enabefore obtained), elixir, which pos-s restorative and rom the disagree-sparations. tonic is powerful tered, assimilates he gastric juices, of the stomach. of England, the in agreeable, and medy."

Paris. ents for U.S., eet, N. Y. NCH.

reet, EORGIA.

tic Liquors. edicinal purposes a Ale, Dublin Porter us and Snuff; Guns rtridges; also Field secons; Glass and and man: other A perfect Variety was the lowest. PETER LYNCH. WANTED—MAN TO TAKE THE AGENCY PO OUR Safes, size 28x18x18 inches, weight, our rare chance to create a permanent business at home other safe companies, as we are not governed by the Safe Pool. Alpine Safe Co., Cincinnati, O.

HELP WANTED-MALE.

Wed sat

Wanted—A Young Man To Drum whole trade, on commission. Eateman & Four and drug bama street.

Wanted—Strictly First-Class Man For the sale of lubricating oils to the consumant trade in Atlanta and vicinity. Previous experience in this line not essential, but must be trustworthy man and good salerman. Permanent position and good salary to the right applicant. Suitable applicants will be granted opportunity for personal interview at Atlanta. Address, giving age, previous cants will be granted opportunity for personal interview at Atlanta. Address, giving age, previous considerable and references. Yeacum of the properties of the

SITUATIONS WANTED-MALE.

WANTED—POSITION BY YOUNG MAN WIFE six years' experience with one of the leading wholesale drug houses of the north. Can furnish satisfact by references. Correspondence solicited.
J. D., care Constitution office.

WANTED—POSITION BY GRADUATE IN
Pharmacy. Four years experience. Beet Donough, Ga.

of reference. Age 22. Address T. A. Eloan, MoDonough, Ga.

A FIRST-CLASS PAINTER DESIRES WORK AT his trade. Apply at 14 Rhodes street.

CIVIL ENGINEER AND DRAUGHTSMAN OP
ten years' experience desire position. Accoutomed to city work. Address "W. D.," care Atlanta Constitution.

Mar 20 st

WANTED—A SITUATION BY A MAN WHIIliegnee to do so. Will guarantee satisfaction to his employer. Can give the best of references. Address "W," Constitution office.

WANTED—AGENTS. WANTED-AGENTS. A GENTS WANTED FOR THE NEW RE-vised Imperial Edition of Zell's Encyclopedias (and other works) just issued. New features, 40 per cent thicker and retail prices reduced. Exceeding-ly literal terms to experienced men. Address T. Ellwood Zeil, Publisher, Philadelphia, Pa. 3t

WANTED—LADY AGENTS—"A" SKIRT AND Bustic Combined and B. Hose Supporters. Both new. Big profits. Secure towns for spring trade. Ladies Supply Co., 287 W. Washington St., Chicago. 3m wed fri sun

100 TO $300 A MONTH CAN BE MADE who can furnish their own horses and give their whole time to the business. Spare moments may be profitably employed also. A few vacancies in towns and ettles. B. F. Johnson & Co., 1009 Maine street.
Richmond, Va.

WANTED-MISCELLANEOUS, WANTED-FOR CASH AT 65 S. PRYOR ST., one good second hand three spring wagon. PERSONAL.

WESENDEY MAIL POSTPAID TO ANY ADWessender Mail Postpaid To any Adwarranty land deeds, quit claim deeds, blank mortgages and blank bonds for tille at the following prices: 1 blank 5 cents; 3 blanks 10 cents; 1 dozen
blanks 30 cents; 100 blanks 31.00. Address The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

BUSINESS MEN DERIVE GREAT SATINFAG
tion from the use of our "Ironclad" notes which waive homestead rights and all the exemp tions. We now send, postpaid, the above described
note, 100 in a book, for 40c, or a book of 50 for 25c,
We have also the above form with seven lines blank
for taking a mortgage, which we call an "ironclad
note with mortgage clause." We send these, postpaid, 100 in a book, for 60c; 50 in a book for 55c, Address The Constitution.

FOR SALE-MISCELLANEOUS. RE JERSEY MILK-I CAN SUPPLY HOTE FOR SALE CHEAP — SEVERAL IMPOSING stones, with tables, almost new. Call on or address Weekly Department of Constitution. declote

LOST.

LO

FOUND.
A STRAY POINTER DOG, WHICH THE owner can have by paying expenses. Apply at 30 Decatur street.

AUCTION SALES. AUCTION SALES.

WOLFE'S BARGAIN HOUSE, 98 WHITEHALL street—The only place in this city where you can buy anything you want at your own price; bed steads $1.50 to $8; bureaus $3.50 to $12; dressers $6 to $15;good cassimere pants $1.50 to $2.50;good cassimere coats $1.25 to $3.50; boys knee pants $0.00 to 75c. Constantly on hand carpets, spring matresses, lounges, oil paintings, writing desks, show cases, sewing machines, lambraquins at slaughtering prices; money advanced in any amount on consignment; auction sales promptly attended to on liberal terms; highest cash price paid for office and household furniture,

H. Wolfe, agent.

WANTED LADIES TO USE "CHICHESTER",
English, "Diamond Brand, Pennyroyal Pills, Safe. Always reliable. The original. The only cannine. Ask druggists or send 4c stamps for particulars, return mail. Chichester Chemical Co., Philadelphia, Pa. PEATHERS CLEANED, CURLED AND DYED also kid gloves, at Phillip's, 14 Marietta street

BOARDERS WANTED.

TO $5 PER WEEK. 108 MARIETTA STREET, near postoffice. Nicely furnished, piano in parlor; table unexcelled. Pleasant, quiet; satisfaction guaranteed.

tion guaranteed.

SEVERAL YOUNG MEN CAN NOW OBTAN good board and comfortably furnished rooms; also one unfurnished room if desired by a small family at Mrs. Mary A. Watt's, 53 Luckie street.

MWO CONNECTING FURNISHED ROOMS WITH or without board, at 64 Walton street, two squares from Post-office.

squares from Post-office.

LEYDEN HOUSE CLEAN, HEALTHY LOCAtion. Board and rooms as reasonable as any first-class house can afford. No. 124 Peachtree st.

OCAL, TRANSIENT AND DAY BOARDERS CAN
obtain delightful rooms, polite attention and excellent board at Nos. 26 and 28 N. Forsyth street. FOR SALE-REAL ESTATE

TOR SALE-AT EDGEWOOD, GA., 20 ACRES

Well Improved land, fronting on Georgia railroad. Convenient to schools and regular stopping places of trains. Apply at No. 1 Peachtree street.

sun wed

IF YOU WANT THE BEST VACANT LOT ON Capitol avenue, one block from new capitol, or a vacant lot or house and lot on less expensive street, apply 17½ Peachtree street, room 8, from 8 to 5 p. m. FOR SALE --- HORSES, CARRIAGES SHETLAND PONY FOR SALE, ONE YEAR OLD Address, E. V., Branchville, S. C., care of Post-

EASES.

Spermatorrhee and Impotency, is the result of self-abuse in youth, acxual excesses in manure years, or other causes, and producing some of the fallowing effects. Nevrounness, Seminal Kniksianas, (platic emisions by dreams), Diancas of Sight, Defective Legacy Products and Decay, Fingles on Pace, A version to Belands, propering marriage improper or unhappy, are thoroughly and permanently over a Syphelli III positively cured and entry or endicated from the system; Gonorphea, Cliff, Stricture, Orokitis, Bernia, or Lapuro), illes and other private diseases quickly cured. It is self-evident that a play sician who pays special attention is a self-evident that a play sician who pays special attention. It is self-evident that a play sician who pays special attention, and the complex of the c dashiy in mail or express anywhere.

Cures Guaranteed in all Cases
ndortaken. s personally or by letter free and invited, nable and correspondence strictly confidential.

PRIVATE COUNSELOR

Of 900 pages, sent to any address, securely sealed, for the by conts. Should be read by all. Address & above, but he have been by a but the beauty of the be

TO WEAK MENSYMENT

BUSINESS CHANCES.

PRIVATE PARTIES, WITH MONEY TO INVEST or loan, can find an excellent opportunity by addressing "X," care postmaster, Edgewood, Gs. sat sun wed A GOOD CHANCE FOR A MAN WITH SEVEN this office.

WILL SELL THIRD OR HALF INTEREST IN good opening for right man. Address Business, this office. DR. RICE, For 15 years at 37 Court Place, now at 822 Market Street, Louisville, Xy Bet. Third and Fourth,
A requirity counsed and legally qualified physician and the most successful, as his practice will prove.

Cure all forms of PRIVATE

Oxford, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Mr. J. L. Key, of the senior class, has been invited by the citizens of Warrenton to deliver a Sunday school address in Warrenton upon Easter Sunday, April 1st. Mr. Key has fully and thoroughly established his ability as an able orator and as a forcible, impressive speaker; and beford a doubt the people of Warrenton will be anneasurably pleased with their excellent selection.

Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla regulates the Regulator. Best blood purifier—largest bettle in the market. Manufactured by pro-prieturs of Warner's Safe Cure. Sold by all

HURRICANE TRESTLE.

The Terrible Wreck of Last Saturday Morning.

the Cause of the Wreck Not Yet Dicovered

enes and Incidents of the Great Railway Disaster.

BLACKSHEAR, Ga., March 20 .- [Special.]-

enced going down, and it seemed an age fore it struck the earth. That terrible feel

Of these wounded Dr. William Duncan, of and they are doing nicely at this time. Mrs.

caring for the injured ever since the accident.

and turned his attention there. Others soon arrived, and then the work of rescuing began.

President Wilbur, who is reported as convales-cing rapidly, Mrs. Gould and others, have been cing rapidly, Mrs. Gould and others, have been exceedingly demonstrative in their appreciation of the assistance and sympathy they have received at the hands of the people of Black-shear. While humanity would have prompted shear. While humanity would have prompted all that was done, still this terrible calamity has created a bond of sympathy between the survivors and the people of Blackshear and Waycross that will be enduring. What commended itself particularly to the northern mind was the entire absence of pillaging and the earnest desire to help them that was shown in the acts and words of everybody. Among the effects of one of the unfortunate dead was found a rabbit foot, which dooms the rabbit toot hereafter as a mascot of good luck.

The work of removing the debris is progres

His crutch was found among the debris.

M. A. Wilbur, who was killed, was a cripple.

ali right.

VYLE IS VILE. A Young Man Who Played an Interesting Role in Savannah. SAVANNAH, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]-

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—
THE CONSTITUTION Was informed, several days ago, of the presence of a young man in Savannah, who claimed to be English, but looked like a Scandinavian, and spoke his native tongue with a broken accent. It was also strongly intimated that the young man was sailing under false colors, in pretending to be the nephew of John Dore, the manager of the London, Liverpool and Globe Insurance company. The young man goes by the name of George J. Vyle. A few nights ago, as related, he landed in the police barracks, after drinking to the health of the new German emperor. Inquiry in New York has elicited the truth of the suspicion that Vyle was an imposter. He succeeded Hill hero as agent for the National Life and Maturity association of Washington, now under control in Georgia of Major Dawson, of Atlanta. Vyle had not left the city today, but is likely he will dig out. He has not wrong anyone here, as far as known, Colonel A. N. Wilson returned from Washington yesterday, whither he went to interview Charles Hill, the National Life and Maturity association exagent here. Hill was in hard circumstances, says Colonel Wilson. Hill spent the company's money when here, and skipped without having committed a regular defalcation.

DESERTED BY HIS WIFE. BLACKSHEAR, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—
The fact remains that a pair of wheels, not a pair of trucks, but simply a pair of wheels, jumped the track. What caused it no one knows. There was no weight on them, as is shown by their striking only every third or fourth fie. This tends to explain why nobody know of their being off. There was no weight in them, and consequently no jolting. One of on them, and consequently no jolting. One of the injured passengers says his first intimation of the disaster was that the sleeper in which he was seemed to veer to the right, and then it ing of going down and down into a horrible feel-death, which it seemed he could never reach, and yet which he knew must come, was a sen-cation be would not experience again for mill-

DESERTED BY HIS WIFE.

Savannah, surgeon of the company in charge of them, says while some of these have been Mrs. Reid Proves Not Very Loving to Her Mrs. Reid Proves Not Very Loving to Her Spouse.

Albany, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—William Reid is much excited over his wife's deserting him. When he married her she was a widow, Mrs. Jennie Lofton by name, and made a living with the needle. She was woed and won by Mr. Reid, and she transferred her affections and one child, a little girl, to Mr. Reid's keeping. Not long after the wedding the little child showed what her step-father thought the effects of bad training, and said some naughty, very naughty words to her new parent. He forthwith, after administering a severe rebuke upon the evil of such speech, attempted to chastise her. This the mother, unused for many years to having another aiding her in exercising authority over her child, was year, wrethed with her are whenched. severely injured, the symptoms of all are favorable, and the most of them will soon be Mrs. Ames, of Providence, Mrs. Thompson, of New Orleans, and J. W. Thompson, colored, of Jacksenville, are among the worst injured, errero has a hip fracture, but there is no danger They are receiving every attention that skilled engeons and sympathetic nurses can give them. Mr. C. D. Owens, traffic manager of the road. has been looking after the dead and unused for many years to having another adding her in exercising anthority over her child, was very wrath and quit her new husband.

He attempted to win her back to him. She at last, one day, consented, and advanced her the means to pay the drayage on her furniture, which she promised to have carried back to his house the next day. She went to the lane with him, and as they parted she kissed him good-bye. The next day she applied to the Taff Overstreet and Lonnie Wilson, two young boys of Blackshear, were out gunning, within a few hundred yards of the bridge, when the accident happened. They were the first to reach there, and assisted Engineer Welch to put out the fire in the baggage car. Mr. John C. Blackburn, of Blackshear, came next. He found fire in one of the sleepers, and turned his attention there. Others soon with him, and as they parted she kissed him good-bye. The next day she applied to the mayor for assistance to leave town stating that she was a widow in destitute circumstances, and with her husband's money in her pocket and accompanied by her little girl, she took the next train from Albany. The husband is disconsalate. He thinks she is in Macon.

ENTERPRISE IN NEWNAN. The Plan for a New Cotton Factory Coming slowly. It has to be carried 300 feet to clear the trestle, and then will have to be raised up an embankment twenty feet high. It is probable that a track will have to be laid on which The car of President Wilbur is not seriously injured. The sleeper in front of it telescoped it, but beyond this its damage is slight. The other cars are no more than kindling The damage is generally estimated at about $75,000, but no one outside of the officials know much about it. It is reported that one of the negroes who fell with the bents is dead, but for this accident trains would have been running much Major John H. Pate, who was killed, was connected with the state agricultural department at Atlanta. The Number of the Dead. SAVANNAH, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]— Captain W. D. Dixon has made out a report and handed to Mr. W. O. Jackson, the master of transportation. Captain Dixon has fourteen names. He had charge of all the bodies except four. This makes the list of dead eighteen. Dr. Duncan's official report to the road gives Dixon says that there were six colored bodies instead of five, the number given by Dr. Duncan. Captain Dixon's report is less than the number given yesterday, and Dr. Duncan's is five less. The official list is as foll ows: W. A. MARTIN, Savannah. W. B. GERGER, Savannah. CÆSAR FOSSENT, colored, Savannah.

T. M. SMITH, Pullman car conductor.
JOHN T. PAY, D. 16:5 Mill.
MRS. MARION SHAW, Jacksonvil le, Fla. HISS MAMIE SHAW, Jacksonville, Fla. MRS. G. W. KELLY, Louisville, Ga. W. P. McGRUFF, Columbia, Ala. J. H. HURLBURT, Philadelphia, Pa.

M. A. WILBUR. South Bethlehem, Pa. J. H. PATE, Hawkinsville. MOSE GALE, colored, Valdosta. LLOYD CARSON, colored, Valdosta. UNKNOWN COLORED MAN.

Captain Dixon adds one corpse to this list, making eighteen deaths. Several others have been reported dead who are not. No deaths have been reported today. The body of young M.A. Wilbur has been embalmed and is lying at Captain Dixon's undertaking establishment waiting orders from the father. The top of the casket is covered with flowers, which were sent by ladies of Savannah. Wilbur is a tranger, and this act of these ladies is a most beautiful, touching incident.

The Savannah, Florida and Western railway is running its regular schedule between this sty and Jacksonville today. At 4 o'clock this evening the Hurricane river trestle was in thape for trains to cross. All of the woodwork is sound, and as it was not broken much in the fall, it was in shape to be put up again. This bnabled the workmen to make such rapid progress that they finished their work much

Superintendent Fleming was at Waycross this morning, and may come back tonight. Mr. O. W. Jackson was today shown a letter, ligned G. S. Wekoff, and published in the New York World. Wyckoff claims to know a New York World. Wyckoff claims to know a great deal about the Savannah, Florida and Western track. He says that the bridges are not safe, and makes some strong statements. He appears to have some grievance against the road. Mr. Jackson laughed at the statements in the letter. He says that the bridges do not come under his department, but Mr. Riley tells him that the bents are all sound enough louse over again.

BLACKSHEAR, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—
The special from Savannah, reporting the victims in Saturday's disaster as having been keartlessly robbed by ghoulish theives, is a malicious slander upon the noble people
whose generosity and humanity helped them.
The absence of pillaging was especially commented upon by the passengers who survived the accident.

W. G. Brantly.

HE WANTS $20,000.

Cowhided By a Man for Slandering His Sister-The Decision for Pica Reserved for Today.

MACON, Ga., March 20 .- [Special.]-In the United States circuit court this morning, Judge Speer presiding, the case of J. W. Brooks vs. four years, and who went to that state from Lumpkin, Stewart county, Georgia, where he grew up and where his father now resides. From the plaintiff's declaration, and the opening of the case, it appears that he had been on a visit to his father for about ten days in July, 1886, when one morning he was enticed by the defendants, who had conspired together, into an upper room over a carriage shop in Lumpthat two of the defendants with draws revolvers and two with their hands upon their hip pockets, threatened his life, while Dr. Barnum, with buggy whip in hand, forced him to take off his coat and proceeded to apply the whip unmercifully on his back and shoulders. That his attempted resistance was overborned by the other defendants, and he was whipped until the blood started from cuts made by the stinging

The Plan for a New Cotton Factory Completed.

NEWNAN, Ga., March 20.—[Special]—A meeting of shareholders of the Newnan cotton mills, convened at the courthouse yesterday for the purpose of permanent organization. Major U. B. Wilkinson presided, and J. F. Lovejoy, of Graniteville, acted as secretary. The following board of directors were elected for the ensuing year: R. H. Hardeway, H. C. Arnall, Dr. J. T. Reese, R. D. Cole, Sr., P. F. Cuttino, J. P. Brewster, R. W. Freeman, Major N. B. Glover, of Newnan, and Judge H. W. Camp, of Puckett's Station.

The chair appointed the following committee on by-laws: S. W. Murray, Major W. A. Turner and Olrando McClendon. The meeting was enthusiastic and evinced a determination on the part of the people of Newnan to invest their surplus money hereafter in home enterprises, instead of sending it away and putting it in wild-cat speculation in Alabama, as many have done to their sorrow.

One of the Blackshear Victims.

One of the Blackshear Victims.

ALBANY, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—The funeral of the late Mr. W. B. Geiger, who was killed in the railroad accident at the Hurricane river, took place here on Sunday afternoon, and was largely attended. It is said that when found, after the accident, Mr. Geiger was lying down on the floor of the car. A friend asked him to get up. He replied that he could not. After walking out of the car, with the friend's assistance, he fell dead. He was crushed across the body. The remains were brought up on the Brunswick and Western train, which arrived here at four o'clock on Sunday afternoon. The services were conon Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Charles Wessilosky, and the funeral procession was one of the largest ever seen in Albany.

Railroad Meeting in J fferson.

JEFFERSON, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—The meeting to extend the railroad from here to Athens on Saturday was well attended, and the Athens delegates, consisting of Messrs. Hodgeson, Pope Barrow, Yancey, Russell and others, was great encouragement to our people. A syndicate composed of Elbert Askew, James E. Randolph, J. L. Williamson, A. H. Brock, J. B. Nob and F. L. Pendergrass can almost build a railroad to the gulf of Mexico. When they know what to do they will do it, and don't you forget, and before "many moons" Athens will be connected with Jefferson by rail. Railroad Meeting in J fferson Decoying Off Laborers. Lexington, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Jim Taylor, colored, and Rich Thomas, colored, were put in jail this morning. Jim for decoy-ing off hands while under contract, Rich for breaking contract. Sheriff Maxwell, ever vigilant and prompt in all matters pertaining to his office, is doing a noble work to suppress crime in this county, and is by far the best sheriff we have ever had.

The Pistol Was Loaded. The Pistol Was Loaded.

ALBANY, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—This morning two boys, Willie and Malcolm Jones, were playing with a loaded pistol in front of Arnold's store, seven miles from Albany. The weapon went off accidently in the hands of Willie, shooting his brother Malcolm in the mouth, and killing him. The dead boy was welve years old. They were the sons of Mrs. Sallie Jones, a widow, who removed from Columbus last fall.

To Go Into the Dairy Business. ATHENS, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—A wealthy Pennsylvanian contemplates moving to Athens very soon and embarking in the dairy business. This gentleman will bring his cattle with him, and will do business on a large scale. Other northerners continue to inquire about Athens dirt, and express their intention of investing.

Gone to Her Husband.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., March! 20.—[Special.]—
Mrs. Wallace, of Gainesville, wife of Captain
O. M. Wallace, who was injured at Blackshear last Saturday in the catastrophe on the Savannah, Florida and Western railroad, left yesterday morning via Air-Line to join her husband.

ROME, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Preparations are being made to entertain the Georgia State Medical association, which meets here on April 18. Committees have been appointed and visiting physicians will be the recipients of Rome's generous hospitality.

Masonic Meeting in Rome. Rome, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Cherokee Lodge, No. 66, F. and A. M., held a grand reunion tonight. A large number of brethren from neighboring towns were present, and the occasion was a very enjoyable one. Flowers in the Woods.

Albany, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—The woods around Albany are bright with blossoms and the tender foliage of early spring. The fair grounds park is especially attractive at this season. Money for the Well.

Davisboro, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—
Money for the artesian well here has arready been subscribed and work will commence as soon as the committee can secure a competent and reliable man to bore the well.

Colonel Machen in Madison.

MADISON, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Colonel E. C. Machen, the lightning railroad man of the nineteenth century, was in town today, but his visits are of short duration, as he does not tary long in one place, but is constantly moving up and down the line.

Beware of spurious goods! Get only the genuine Salvation Oil. It kills pain. 25 cts.

A Big Case in the United States Court in Macon.

W. P. Carter, R. E. L. Barnum, C. A. Sarles and R. H. Vorus came up for trial. The plain-tiff is a young man of about 27 years of age, who has been a citizen of Florida for the past That the assault was without provocation, and that plaintiff suffered damage to his person and his reputation and through to his person and his reputation and through mental anguish in the sum of $20,000. All the defendants pleaded Lot guilty to the assault, except Dr. Barnum, who has filed a special plea admitting the assault, but setting up as mitigating circumstances that about three hours before the cowhiding he received a note from a friend requesting an interview, and was then informed that Mr. Sarles han informed him that Brooks had stated a day or two before to Sarles certain facts about Dr. Barnum's sister (who hat since married the defendant, Dr. W. P. Carter), derogatory to her fair name, and that Dr. Carter and his father were attending her as a consequence. Dr. Barnum further sets out in his plea that his father being dead, he was the natural protector of his sister; that he knew the accusation to be infamous, scandalous and false; that he immediately consulted his uncle. Mr. Vorus, and then went to find Brooks, and met him on the false; that he immediately consulted his uncle. Mr. Vorus, and then went to find Brooks, and met him on the street. When confronted he claimed to have gotten the story from Sarles, and he then invited Brooks to go with him to Sarles' carriage shop, which he did. That Mr. Vorus and Dr. Carter joined them, and they went with Brooks and Sarles into the upper room. There Sarles stated before Brooks that the latter had told him the story, and that Brooks then said he had heard the rumor about town, and that he was not certain whether Sarles then said he had heard the rumor about town, and that he was not certain whether Sarles mentioned the story to him or he to Sarles. That he then demanded Brooks's authority for the story, and the latter could not give any, and as he understood at the time admitted his own guilt in starting the story. That he thereupon proceeded, under the excitement of his feelings, to administer to the defendant the chastismost charged in the declaration, and prays ent charged in the declaration, and prays tisement charged in the declaration, and prays that the circumstances be taken into consideration as a mitagation of the damages. The plaintiff's counsel moved to strike this plea, on the ground that Dr. Barnum was apprised of the language alleged to have been used by Brooks three hours before the assault took place, that his subsequent conduct showed a deliberate attempt to take the law into his own hands and redress his supposed wrongs by summary vengeance upon own hands and redress his supposed wrongs by summary vengeance upon the perpetrator when found and that the provocation was not recent and immediate as to induce a presumption that the violence done was committed under the immediate influence of the feelings and passions excited by it. After argument heard for and against the motion to strike the plea, the court reserved its decision on the point until tomorrow morning, to which thus further proceedings were postnoned. ing, to which time further proceedings were postponed.

Dr. Barnum is a young man of about twenty-five years of age of prepossessing appearance. Whether under the strict rules of law, which requires that no man shall undertake by violence to redress his own wrongs, when there has been time for deliberation, he can reduce the plaintiff's damages to a nominal sum, is practically the question which the court must pass upon on the motion to strike the plea...

It is understood that the plaintiff expects to show as a matter of fact that he did not start the damaging rumor which resulted in the assault and battery. But the hearing of the evidence has but barely commenced so far, and has only proceeded along the outlines of facts set out in the declaration.

A Pickled Body Finds a Parent.

A Pickled Body Finds a Parent. Macon, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—A negro woman named Missouri Jones yesterday sought out Mr. J. J. Clay and piteously asked him to help her, as she was at a loss to proceed in a very argent matter. Kind-hearted Mr. Clay quickly responded to the appeal, and discovered that the woman whom it came from was formerly a cook in his service. In from was formerly a cook in his service. In answer to his numerous questions the following was learned:

When she lived in Milledgeville ten years ago, her son by her first marriage, Jesse Brooks, forged a check, arrested and was sentenced for his crime to be placed at hard labor under the government penitentiary rules. His sentence was to expire August next. On last Saturday, while working with other convicts at Brennen, Ga., on the Georgia Pacific railroad, under the supervision of Captain J. W. McCue, an embankment of earth fell down upon him, causing death from suffocation. His body was placed ready for any claim to be made for it by relations, but as none applied, his body was, under penitentiary law, turned over to the medical college of Atlanta, and in order to preserve it, it was soaked in a pickling vat until ready for use. By accident, on yesterday morning, the account of the killing was read by some one at the place where Missouri lives. She, unable to comprehend the matter, asked several people to read it again. At last seeing the state of affairs, implored many of her own people to help her out of her trouble, but in this she was unsuccessful, but remembering her kind, former employer. Mr. Clay, she told him her answer to his numerous questions the follow-help her out of her trouble, but in this she was unsuccessful, but remembering her kind, former employer, Mr. Clay, she told him her trouble. Mr. Clay immediately telegraphed to the achorities to send the body down, but this they refused to do, stating that she, or some one representing her, would have to come up and prove their claims. A subscription was gotten up and Missouri sent to Atlanta with the two telegrams to prove her claim: but these seemed indefinite to the "authorities" "eyes, and she was compelled to pay one dellar for an affidavit. At length the body was secured, boxed and sent to the depot, there to stay forever if charity had not come to the rescue. Money was raised to pay expressage on the body, which the express company raised to double fare, $5.50, but which should have been only regular passenger fare. The body was received this morning and buried at Mr. Clay's expense this afternoon.

ternoon.

He Could Not See.

Macon, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—News reached the city today of a sad and sudden accident over in [Wilkinson county last night. Several farmers were cutting down trees by the moonlight to keep them from being burned up, as the woods were on fire near by. Mr. J. W. Brooks had finished the tree he was at work on and was resting for a few moments, when some one holloaed to him to look out or he would get killed. He tried to run, but, as it was dark, he could not see which way to go. Just then the tree which was a large one, fell, the trunk striking him on the head and body, killing him instantly. The skull and an arm and leg were broken. A coffin was sent for, and furnished by Undertaker Dan Keating. The funeral will take place from his residence to-morrow.

Will Improve the Ground.

Will Improve the Ground. MACON, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—The heavy rains of last night and today have softened the ground to such an extent that work on the dummy line is being pushed nearly twice as fast as before. Owing to the long dry spell, a crust had formed under the sand, which is very hard, and causes many picks to be broken. Superintendent Voss stated to a Constitution reporter this afternoon that the rain means many dollars saved, and the line finished several days sooner. Dirt has been broken as far as Colonel H, J. Lamar's residence, which is a light property with the line finished several days sooner. Dirt has been broken as far as Colonel H, J. Lamar's residence, which is a light property of the subject, "What is Education?" A large audience of students and citizens turned out and were highly entertained by the learned treatise.

The Poor Cattle.

From the Oglethorpe, Ga., Echo,

When the Mucous Surfaces of the Bronchia are sore and inflamed, Dr. Jayne's Expectorant will afford prompt relief. For breaking up a cold, or subduing a cough, you will find in it a certain remedy.

mile from the starting point. There is only one thing that will stop work, and that is the failure of material to come, and at presen there is no indication of a famine in that line, CHARGED WITH KIDNAPPING.

Abraham Gibson, of Baker County, in Serious Trouble.

ALBANY, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Abraham Gibson, of Baker county, was arread upon an old warrant, issued by his wife, charging him with desertion and kidnapping one of the children. It seems that Gibson and his wife separated some years ago. The former went to where his wife was living and carried off one of the children. She became very angry and had him arrested, getting back the boy.

angry and had him arrested, getting back the boy.

He escaped from confinement and since then the wife, tiring of caring for the child, was anxious for him to take it back again, and upon his refusal to do so, issued the warrants for him which, after three years, were made yesterday, when Gibson made his appearance in Albuny. He is so angry with his wife for taking his boy away from him, and then changing her mind and trying to force him to take him back again, that he swears he will die before he will take it back, and thus the matter stands. Gibson was interviewed in the Albany jail yesterday, and sticks to the determination that he will not have his boy thrown back upon his hands.

THEY WON'T LISTEN TO IT. The Methodist Stewards of Madison Creat A Sensation.

MADISON, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Some time ago Mr. S. A. Turnell, the worthy superintendent of the Methodist Sunday-school, purchased, at his own expense, a $60 cornet to be used in the Sunday-school and engaged Mr. Joseph Alexander to perform on the same every Sunday morning. As yet the cornet has not been used, as owing to circumstances, Mr. Alexander has not had an opportunity to practice with the organist, Miss Etta Few. Much to Mr. Turnell's surprise yesterday, the stewards of the church met and condemned the cornet, saying that it should not be brought into the church. Much interest is manifested in the matter here, the majority of the church in the matter here, the majority of the church and outsiders being in favor of the cornet. Mr. and outsiders being in favor of the cornet. Mr. Turnell is hopeful of yet being able to use the instrument with the new organ just purchased by him, as there was not a full board of stewards present at the meeting yesterday. Mr. Turnell has done much in the interest of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school here and he should be sustained.

SAVED BY HIS WATCH.

A Sensational Shooting Affray Between Two Brothers. DAVISBORO, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]— Meager news reached here today of a shooting aftray, which occurred two or three days since in the lower end of this county. Two brothers,
Henry and Purify Holmes, have for some years Henry and Purify Holmes, have for some years been conducting a large turpentine business together, and in an effort to dissolve and settle the firm's business, they disagreed and resorted to blows. In the fight, Henry, the smaller brother, shot Purify in the left side with a shotgun, loaded with buckshot. A heavy silver watch caucht a part of the load, and it is claimed this saved his life. The wound is regarded serious, but not necessarily fatal.

Gainesville Building and Loan Association Gainesville Building and Loan Association.
Gainesviller, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—
The association met last night in its annual meeting at close of first year of operations. The following officers were re-elected for another year: John A. Smith, president; James R. Barnes, vice-president; J. W. Smith, G. W. Walker, M. D. Hudson, J. W. Smith and W. S. Williams, directors; W. E. Oslin, secretary. The reports show that the association has been very successful, having netted to the stockholders about fifteen per cent upon the amount invested and has built and aided in building a number of houses. The prospects for the opening year are bright and brightening.

Athens's New Factory.

Athens, Ca., March 20.—[Special.]—It is understood that McGinty & Hunnicutt, contractors of this city, have been awarded the contract for building the new extension to the Georgia factory. Work is to commence immediately, and the building ready for machinery by the 1st of October next. The building will be three stories high and one hundred and fifty feet long. The capacity of the mill will be infeet long. The capacity of the mill will be in-creased from five thousand one hundred to ten thousand spindles, and will then be second to no cotton mill in the south. The Georgia factory was built in 1828, hence it is one of the oldest factories in the south. To the Military Companies.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—
An immense audience assembled in the Baptist church Sunday night to listen to Mr. Strickland in his sermon to the military companies of Gainesville. Special seats were furnished the young gentlemen, and at the proper time they in splendid new uniforms marched in with measured tread. The choir was at its best rendering some yeary impressive solos. best, rendering some very impressive solos Mr. Strickland preached on "Heredity," tak ing for his text Exodus, twentieth chapter, fifth and sixth verses. So large a congregation is seldom seen in our city. Death of Mrs. Rodgers. Death of Mrs. Rodgers.

HARMONY GROVE, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]
Mrs. Susan Rodgers, who has been an invalid for a number of years, died at the home of her son, Mr. Blake Rougers, near here, on yesterday morning. Mrs. Rodgers has been confined to her bed for several years with rheumatism, dropsy and a complication of other diseases, but has ever borne up with Christian fortitude under her many afflictions. Her funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 p. m. at the family burial grounds near this place.

Crazy Enough to be Confined. Craxy Enough to be Confined.

ADAIRSVILLE, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]
Mr. Eli Blautan will be carried before the ordinary today to be tried for lunacy. He attempted to kill his wife this morning, and had it not been for the presence of his brother, who took the stick of wood from him with which he made the attempt, he would have killed her outright. He has been demented for some time, but has only been here a short while. His home is in Texas. His mother lives here.

Banks Court in Session. Harmony Grouper, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]
Banks superior court convened at Homer yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Hon. N. L.
Hutchins presides with his usual ability, and Solicitor General Ed Brown is at his accustomed place as state's counsel. Our local bar is represented by Colonels William H.
Simpkins, W. W. Stark and R. L. J. Smith. The Mule was Playful.

SANDERSVILLE, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Mr. R. P. Bynum, living near this place, was severely kicked in the face by a playful mule on Sunday evening last while turning a number of them out of the lot, totally putting out one eye and crushing one cheek into a jelly. His condition is critical, but extraordinarily favorable, considering the severity of the wound.

A Crazy Negress.

Athens, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Parthenia King, a crazy negro woman, living in Cobbham, was arrested this afternoon and lodged in jail. Parthenia had been making things lively in her neighborhood, and when arrested it required several policemen to get her to jail. She will probably be sent to the Milledgeville asylum. Buried in His Foot.

ATHENS, Ga., March 20—[Special.]—Jink Rhodes, a colored man working on the Macon and Covington road, about five miles from our city, buried an ax in his foot yesterday, while cutting down a tree. Rhodes was brought to Athens this morning, and his wounds dressed by Dr. S. C. Benedict. At last accounts he was doing as well as could be wished. Dr. Mayo in Oxford,

Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford,
Oxford

WEST POINT FIRE

A Disastrous Conflagration in the River City.

Consume a Large Number of the Business Houses,

WEST POINT, Ga., March 20 .- [Special.]-West Point has again been the victim of another big conflagration. This morning at 3:30 o'clock Night Watchman Gus Shaw discovered a fire issuing from the rear of R. W. Wood's store. He gave the alarm and by the time the steamer was able to do execution the flames had gotten under such a headway that it was utterly impossible to control them. They spread rapidly on either side and totally con-

R. W. Wood's store (house owned by Miller & Havis) Miller & Havis, shoes. J. J. Crawford, drugs.

Mr. Courser, confectioner and tailor.

George N. Craft, confectioner and tailor.
George N. Craft, confectioneries.
Wright's hall' was badly damaged. The upper story was well nigh burned out.
I. M. Scott was badly damaged, and while W. G. Shaefer was not burned, the interior of his store was so hot that the stock was somewhat in invest thereby.

what injured thereby.

Major W. S. Jackson, local agent of the London and Liverpool and Globe and many other reliable companies, kindly furnished his companies losses by fire.

I. M. Scott was insured in the above named company for $1,500, and only had a removal loss not yet estimated.

J. J. Crawford, druggist, had $2,000 insurance on his house, and $2,500 on a $5,000 Miller and Havis's loss is heavy, though they have insurance. They do not know the fate of their books, as they were in a small safe. We could not obtain the names of insurance companies carrying risks, nor amount of losses sustained on account of the agent's refusal to supply the correct information Mr. Yancey Wright had $2,500 insurance o his building, but cancelled $500 last week. The steamer is still playing of the last-named building. Parapet walls prevented the entire loss of the block, as it is a fine, handsome, brick building. One story has been totally destroyed, and the large two-story brick structure of Mr. Wright is nearly an entire loss. While the steamer was doing the finest execution the water supply from the cistern became exhausted and the engine had to be renoved to the railroad cistern in the Chattahoochee hotel enclosure, began to control the flames fast spreading when the water fell so low that the suction pipe failed to draw, and the steamer had to be without danger of exhausting the supply.

An approximate estimate of the losses by this morning's fire is $15,000; insurance $6,500 The streets are lined with goods removed from houses that seemed in imminent danger at the time the flames were arrested at Wright's hall.

noved the second time. This time it was taken to the river, where it should be worked

Fire in Barnesville. Fire in Barnesville.

Barnesville, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—
The dwelling of Mrs. Ora B. Dumas, situated about three miles north of town, was burned last night about 10 o'clock. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue, and had made such headway before it was discovered that it was impossible to arrest its progress. All of her out houses, together with a large quantity of corn and fodder, were destroyed. It was occupied by a tenant, Mr. John Booth, and was insured for $1,000 in the Liverpool, London and Globe.

BURGLARS IN ADAIRSVILLE. A Quiet Citizen Attacked on His Way

A Quiet Citizen Attacked on His Way Home.

ADAIRSVILIE, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Our citizens had not finished talking about the attempt to break in Mr. B. F. Bibb's store before they were furnished with another as great or greater mystery. Monday night about 9:15 Mr. J. T. Waldrip, a quiet and unassuming gentleman, who has never had a quarrel with any of our people and had lived in peace with us for eighteen months, was en his way home when he was passing the Methodist church some unknown person sprang at him, striking him with some sharp instrument, and had it not been for the letters in his left outside coat pocket, would have killed him, the gash in his coat being about two or two and a half inches long. The blow was of sufficient strength to cause him to stagger against a post which knocked him down. Mr. Waldrip has a couple of large wood piles in his hand which he had just bought. He threw these at the man and frightened him enough to cause him to run away. Mr. Waldrip has no enemy here. The assault must have been with intent to rob him. Several merchants have to pass that way at night. Some think the scoundrel intended attacking one of them. In fact some one did follow Mr. G. B. Elrod a part of the way, and at the opposite corner, about half an hour earlier than when the attempt was made on Mr. Waldrip.

At Home Again.

From the Oglethorpe, Ga., Echo. From the Oglethorpe, Ga., Echo.

Mr. John U. Stevens, who moved from this county soon after the war to Arkansas, was in Lexington last week shaking hands with his old friends and renewing old acquaintances. He is at present residing with his son-in-law, Mr. Bigsby, in Washington, Ga. Although age has told on Mr. Stevens, he is still vigorous and was readily recognized by many of those who had known him.

The Schedules Kesumed. WAYCROSS, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—All repairs were completed to the trestle, and the schedule resumed at 6 p. m. today.

THE GENUINE

The Best Nutritive Tonic

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY For the Weak and Debilitated INDORSED BY ALL PHYSICIANS THEOUGHOUT THE CIVILIZED WORLD.

JOHANN HOFF, JOHANN HOFF,
BERLIN, PARIS, VIENNA.

New York, No. 6 Barclay Street.

Beware of Fraudulent Imitations.—I have a suit pending in the Supr. Court of the U. S., azainst Tarrant & Co. of New York, who are selling another preparation under the same name. The GENUINE has the signature of "Johann Hoff" on the neck, and comes in flat squarty bottles with a German Labei thereon. TAKE NO OTHER, mar7 wed 3t top col a f m 1 CUTICURA REMEDIES.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Cured by Cuticura.

Eczema or Salt Rhuem, with its aconleg itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application with CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA EZSOLYENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will specify cure Ezzema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichem, Prurifus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physician and all known remedies fail.

gratefully acknowledge a cure of Eczema, e Sait Rheum, on head, nock, face, arms, and leg for seventeen years, not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help myself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies doctors pronounced my case hopeless; permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

(2542 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill. ECZEMA.

Some five months ago I had the pleasure to in-form you of my improvement in the use of the Cu-TICUER REMEDIES in my case of severe Chronic Ec-zema Erythematosa, and today cheerfully confirm all I then said. I consider my cure perfect and com-plete, and attribute it entirely to your remedies, having used no others.

FERNAN ESENCHARDO, 3306 Penna. Avenue, St. Louis, Mo ECZEMA.

I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease.

Mr. JOHN THIEL, Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Sold everywhere. Price: CUTICUBA, 50 cents Soap, 25 cents; RESOLVENT $1. Prepared by Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

Send for "How to Eure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations and 100 testimonials. PIM PLES, Blackheads, Skin Blemishes a Baby Humors, use CUTICURA SOAP.

HOW MY BACK ACHES!

Back Ache, Kidney Pains and Weakness Soreness, Lameness, Strains and Pain relieved in one minute by the Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster—infallible.

SCHOOL WILL REOPEN MONDAY, OCTOBER 31 82 and 34 East 57th Street, New York.

SCHOOLS.

Coleman National Business College, Newark, N. J. Open all the year. Best course of Business Training. Best facilities. Pleasantess location. Lowes rates. Shortess time. Most highly recommended.
time. Most highly recommended.
write for Catalogue and be gonvinoH. COLEMAN, Pres't. Miss Peebles and Miss Thompson's

EMORY COLLEGE, OXFORD, GA. THE INSTITUTION ENTERS UPON ITS FIFTY first session October 12, 1887, with enlarged aculty and increased facilities. For catalogues and

CAPITAL PRIZE, $150,000

"We do hereby certify that we supervise the arrangements for all the Monthly and e y brawings of The Louisians state Lottery Company, and in person manage and control the Drawings themselves, and that the same are conducted honesty, fairness, and in good faith toward this parties, and we authorize the Company to use a accertificate, with fac-similes or our signature with tached, in its advertisements."

We the undersigned Banks and Bankers will pay all Prizes drawn in The Louisiana State Letteries which may be presented at our counters. R. M. W. Lusley, Pres. Louisiana Nat'l Bak PIERRE LANAUX, Pres. State Nat'l Bank. A. BALDWIN, Pres. New Orleans Nat'l Bank. CARL KOHN, Pres. Union National Bank. UNPRECEDENTED ATTRACTION!
OVER HALF A MILLION DISTRIBUTED.

Louisiana State Lottery Company.

Incorporared in 1868 for 25 years by the Legislature for Educational and Charitable purposes—with a capital of $1,000,000—to which a reserved fund of over $500,000 has since been added.

By an overwhelming popular vote its franchise was made a part of the present State Constitution adopted sogember 2d, A. D., 1879.

The only lottle ever voted on and indorsed by the people of any State.

Inever scales or postpones.

Its Grand Single Number Drawings take place monthly, and the Grand Quarterly Drawings regularly every three months (March. June, S. Statelber and December.)

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY TO WIN A FORTUNE.

SE ONL GRAND DRAWING. CLASS W. IN THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC. NEW ORLANS. TUESDAY. April 1, 1888—21-th Monthly Drawing.

CAPITAL PRIZE $150 000

Thorice. Tickets are Ten Bollars only. Halves $5. Fifths. $2. Tenths, $1.

Halves 85. Fifths. 82. Ten

LIST OF PRIZES.

CAPITAL PRIZE OF $150,000.

1 GRAND PRIZE OF $50,000.

1 GRAND PRIZE OF 20,000.

1 GRAND PRIZE OF 20,000.

2 LARGE PRIZES OF 10,000.

4 PRIZES OF 1,000.

20 PRIZES OF 500.

50 PRIZES OF 500.

100 PRIZES OF 200.

100 PRIZES OF 100.

200 PRIZES OF 100. 200 PRIZESOP

APPROXIMATION PRIZES of $300....

100 Approximation Prizes of $300....

100 " 200....

100 Term'nal " 50.... Term'nal 2,179 Prizes, amounting to $\frac{5555,000}{Application for rates to clubs should be made only of the office of the Company in New Orleans,
For further information write clearly, giving full address. POSTAL NOTES, Express Money Orders, or New York Exchange in ordinary letter.
Currency by Express (at our expense) addressed
M. A. DAUPHIN,
New Orleans, La.,

M. A. DAUPHIN, Washington, D. C. Address Registered Letters to NEW OBLEANS NATIONAL BANK, New Orleans, La.

REMEMBER That the presence of and Early, who are in charge of the drawings, is a guaranteee of absolute fairness and integrity, that the chances are all cound, and that no one can possibly divine what number will draw the Frize.

REMEMBER that the paymenr of all Frizes is GUARANTEED BY FOUR NATIONAL BANKS of New Orleans, and the Tickets are signed by the President of an Institution, whose chartered rights are recognized in the hi Courts; therefore, beware of any initiation anonymous schemes.

LIBBY PRISON.

MORSE, JAMIESON & CO.. Bankers and Brokers mmarle dim fri on wed

This Malt Extract has remarkable nutritive action, both tonic and invigorating. As an aid to digestion it is wonderful in building up lost power.

Prof. PROSP. de PIETRA SANTA, Paris.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION Is delivered by carriers in the city, or mailed postage free, at $1.00 per month, $2.50 for this month, or $10.00 a year.

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION (Circulation over 110,000) is mailed, post-paid, for $1.25 a year, or for $1.00 in clubs of five of more. Address all letters to THE CONSTITUTION, 47 J. J. Flynn, General Eastern Agent, Park Row, New York City.

ATLANTA, GA., MARCH 21, 1888.

Underground City Life. Since the recent storm the New Yorkers have become convinced that they must remodel their city. The newspapers are unanimously of the opinion that the entire telegraph, telephone and street railway system uld be underground.

Heretofore the tendency in our large cities has been up in the air. Houses have been built ten and twelve stories high. An mense net work of wires has been suspended in mid-air. Dummy engines attached to street cars have been made to rush across the tops of the houses.

Now all this is to be changed, and a determined effort will be made to build our cities down in the bowels of the earth. Undoubtedly, this plan will be an effectual safe-guard against blizzards and snow storms. It is expensive, but it is feasible. Tunnels have been made through mountains of solid granite, and under the beds of rivers. Double cellars are common, and there are such things as underground railways. It would be easy enough in New York to carry on half of the business of the city in tunnels and cellars.

And yet there is one big difficulty in the way, besides the expense of the scheme. Past experience has taught us that earth quakes are to be looked for in this country from time to time. Such a threatening pos sibility should not be overlooked. What a tornado is to the dwellers on the surface of the earth an earthquake would be to the underground denizens. Above ground people are at least on top of the internal convulsion, but down in cellars and tunnels they would be in the midst of it.

Still, it is not likely that these considera tions will stop New York in her downward movement. An earthquake seems to be a remote possibility, but tornadoes and snow storms loom up as impending certainties. The present generation, therefore, may expect to see the metropolis of the country make a break for the center of the earth without any further delay. She may not get there, but she will make a good start in that

THE biggest political machine in this broad country is the whisky ring. It appears to have a large slice of the democrati-Barty by the tail.

The Cotton Seed Oil Industry.

Mr. Edward Atkinson, in his speech recently delivered before the Southern society of New York, gives the true view of the attempt to crush out the cotton seed oil industry of the south. Referring to the real purposes of government, he asks: "May it not be held to be injurious if not dangerous to the fundumental functions of govern-ment when, under the pretext of a revenue measure, an act is passed, the true intent and purpose of which is to obstruct the sale esome, nutritious and cheap article of food known as oleomargarine? One such act breeds another. Congress is now called upon to pass an act, under the same pretense of collecting revenue, for the alleged purpose of preventing the adulteration of lard with cotton seed oil. I think it would be judicious for the representatives of the cotton industry to ask by what authority the wholesome, nutritious and excellent vegetable oil of the cotton seed is thus stigmatized. If there is an adulteration in noxious sense it seems to me that the pro-vision of law should be to prevent the adulteration of cotton seed oil with the admixture of lard derived from the fat of

This is the whole matter in a nutshell.

SOMEBODY should get a big auger, bore down to Senator Plumb's understanding and tell him what the Chace copyright bill

Cairo is kicking. Cairo is a little town down at the bottom of Illinois, and like many little things has a great idea of its own importance. For some unaccountable reason visitors to Cairo never could discern the beauties of which the local real estate agents and boomers are wont to sing, and the result is that, as one writer puts it, "our city has had all its life to stand unlimited abuse from all sources."

But the camel's back has been broken. For ten years the children of Cairo have studied the "Eclectic" geography and now some observing citizen has found in that heretofore highly prized text book the following description-nothing more-about Cairo: "Cairo, the most southern town in Illinois, is located on a low point of land between the Mississippi and Ohio rivers. Parts of the town are frequently im-

Only this-and in face of the fact that the same book contains elaborate descriptions of other Illinois towns!

There is blood on the moon at Cairo.

Inter-Oceanic Canals.

The survey of the route for the sea-level canal at Panama, upon the plans and estimates of which M. de Lesseps based his financial scheme, was made in four weeks by Lieutenant Recles and Mr. Sosa, surveyors and engineers, with some helpers. M. de Lesseps spent a few days on the isthmus a year later, and confirmed or revised the surveyor's work, from this inspection, made as part of a junketing tour. The Nicaragua route, which has been repeatedly surveyed for a lock canal, by our wn government and by private individuals, has been under survey again, since the early part of December, by an expedition consisting of over forty engineers and sur-veyors, with 150 native laborers, all under and of one of the ablest and most energetic young officers of the engineering staff of the United States navy. The world will continue into the summer, and the plans and estimates, when completed, are to itted to eminent engineers in this work of skill and industry lie the secrets o success and failure. The company which has undertaken to construct the Nicaragua canal is apparently under the right kind of guidance. It has the advantage, also, of operating upon a line which has long been declared by American engineers and scientists to be the easiest, surest and cheapest route for a canal between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. As the house committee on commerce, having the Nicaragua canal bill in charge, have reported that they are entirely satisfied with the financial standing of the projectors of the undertaking, there should be no difficulty about giving them the necessary charter, which is all that they ask of congress.

The necessity for immediate action will appear from the following statements made by a recent writer on the subject:

By the terms of the concession for the Nicaragua canal, which concession was ratified last March, the final surveys for that canal must be commenced in one year, and in two years and a half they must be competed and work must be commenced. be completed and work must be commenced; but no beginning of the work will be regarded as valid unless during the first year of actual operations there has been expended $2,000,000. By September of next year, therefore, the company must have begun to spend that $2,000,000, and must have spent gim to spend that $2,000,000, and must have spend it by September, 1890. As the money to be raised for construction is contemplated as $68,000,000, and must be spent in ten years, the requirement of $2,000,000 for the first year is not very severe. The con-cession carries all the privileges that the company can require, and extensive land grants, and is fo ninety-nine years. At the end of that time it is stipulated "that the republic shall enter upon pos-session in perpetuity of the canal and its establish-

Of course, it is the conviction of the pronoters of the enterprise that the Panama canal is a dead failure. This, however, may be a mistake. At last accounts the French government seemed disposed to favor the de Lesser's company by authorizing it to raise 340,000,000 francs through the medium of a lottery, and the canal shares at once rose in the market. But, whether the Panama scheme fails or succeeds, it will do no harm to charter the Nicaragua enterprise.

In the cold and silent tomb the late German emperor is no greater than any other Cold-Blooded Crimes.

The New Englanders go at everything deiberately. Even in their crimes there is no heat of passion, no uncontrolable im-

Two recent cases in Maine will attract attention on account of their cold-blooded wickedness. Near Augusta, Charles Beal killed his father by putting strychnine in his whisky. The young man disliked his father, and wanted to get him out of the way. There was no revengeful motive, no resentment caused by ill treatment. The old man simply wanted his own, and tried to rule his household. For this he was poisoned like a dog. Perhaps on the same day, near Farmington, Mrs. Henry with her own hands prepared a lunch for her husband. Shortly after eating it, Henry was taken violently ill, but a doctor pulled him through. Some of the food was given to a dog, and the animal died in half an hour. The dog's stomech was analyzed and a quantity of strychnine was found in it. The wife had always lived pleasantly with her husband, but under the circumstances she was the only person who could have administered the poison, and there is no doubt of her guilt.

Poisoners have always excited a greater degree of horror than any other class of murderers. They have to plan their work, and go about it secretly and deliberately. They are more dangerous than the crimi nals who use knives and pistols and shot guns. The appearance of these fiends in a state which for more than thirty years has been at the head of the moral reform procession is a bad sign. Frequent street fights and an occasional duel would speak better for the morality of Maine than such of a picture. Her lovely face adorns the horrible tragedies as are reported from that state every month in the year. The missionaries should take hold of Maine in good

THE car-stove continues to get in its work,

A Boom in Advertising.

The advertising columns of the New York Sunday papers show that business is getting to be very brisk in that town. The spring season threatens to wipe our the slush, and the spring sap appears to be rising. The manicure parlors are in a flour ishing condition and all nature seems to be Under these circumstances, what wonder is it that the average advertiser in the Sunday papers should manifest a desire to be original? Here, for instance, is a party-"party" is a good metropolitan word-advertising in World. "A friend of humanity wants to know what makes people unhappy. Address Philospher." This brief advertisement opens up a wide field for speculation. The whole subject would be more interesting if the friend of humanity, who is advertising, should have inquired why anybody should be unhappy. In the same column with this advertis ment, we find another to this effect; "Are any amiable and ambitious advertisement answerers anxious to know how I fell in love with an elephant's hind legs. Full details for 5 cents."

"Amiable and ambitious advertiseement answerers" will perhaps be glad to learn that the elephant's hind legs with which the advertiser fell in love were not encased in pantalettes, but were the original and native article. This much is certain. As for the rest, we refer the interested parties to the advertiser himself.

THE French ministry appear to be determined to make a very dangerous man out of General Boulanger.

From Prison Walls.

A convention of convicts. That was indeed a novel scene within the grim walls of the Ohio penitentiary on last Thursday night. One hundred and eight men-men whose guilty consciences tell of a past crime, whose calloused hands and ach ing limbs are witnesses of a present full of inceasing labor, and to whom the future is a blank with scarcely a ray of hope to break the awfui darkness—these men met and issued an appeal to the outer world. There was little in the meeting proper to distinguish it from other public me and gatherings, unless it was that better order prevailed than is usual upon such occasions. There was a chairman, two secretaries, and the usual number of long-winded speeches. The resolutions adopted set forth that the life prisoners constitute eight per cent of the prison population and that the records show these to be as obedient and industrious as their more fortunate fellow-convicts with shorter terms to serve; then, calling attention to the great improvement in prison management within the past twenty-five years, the life convicts beg that "all benefits of legislation for the penal institutions of our state should accrue to every prisoner according to equity," and ask "if another advance may not be made by recognizing the life prisoner in his long loneliness and cheer him with a hope in the last hour of his existence on earth.

The prison laws of Ohio provide that time may be gained by good conduct; that a per centage of the earnings of a convict go to relieve their families, and, under certain restrictions, that deserving prisoners may be released upon parole.

The life men beg to participate in these benefits, from which they are now excluded. They ask for something-anything-which will give them even the slightest hope for something better in this life. Their cry is a cry from another world.

Republic: n Disintegratio The republican party will probably fight its last national fight, as the organization which it is today, in the campaign which it will make for the presidency this year.

Its leaders will, of course, struggle to maintain the individuality of the party, but if it is defeated this year, its only hope for salvation will be in its recognition of principles which have been heretofore foreign to its policy. In other words, the epublican party, if defeated this year, must merge with other organizations to even hold its own as the second in political strength. The success of the democratic ticket this fall will be the everlasting doom of the republican party and the slow but certain disintegration which it has been undergoing for the past few years, will give way to the hasty collapse of the fabric which has supported the party for so many years.

The spoils of office and the bloody shirt have heretofore been the two great elements of strength of the republican party, and these having lost their beneficial influence, new sources of strength must be found or the party must forever succumb to the popular indignation which has rebuked it by depriving it of its patronage, and by renounce ing the policy which attempts to rekindle a flame out of the ashes of sectional animosity. If the republican party were to abandon these pillars of the faith which has kept it n power for so many years, it would be no onger the republican party. When secnalism is completely obliterated, there will be no further use for the republican party, whose mission is one, not of peace, but of discord and discontent. As long as such a party exists, so long will it cling to the bloody shirt doctrine. Day by day the protests of the people against the narrowness and bitterness of such a national policy, grows stronger and stronger, and the time will soon arrive when no party will dare go before the people on such an issue. This is the point to which the republican party is drifting. When it reaches the stage where it sees that it has nothing to gain by such a course, then the party must go to pieces. It is but a question of a short while. The people will teach the lesson.

EDITORIAL POSTSCRIPTS.

Ex-Mayor Grace, of New York city, want to be governor of the state. THE DOCTORS SAY that quinine excess more than any other drug.

THE CHICAGO WORLD printed a sensational telegram announcing that Jay Gould was killed in the recent railway disaster near IF IT CONTINUES to grow warmer, we will soon be enjoying the delightful December Dakota weather, which the western press has been talking about. MISS AMELIE RIVES makes the prettiest kind rent number of Lippincott's and attracts as much attention as her story. SOMEBODY SHOULD PRESENT Senator Ingalls with a striped pair of tights and a belled cap, in which he would attract more, attention as fool than as the senator from Kansas. THE TIME IS NEAR at hand when the mocking bird will sing its sweetest lays, and when your nother-in-law will gently place her tender hand in yours and tell you that she has com for the summer. Happy season!

THE REV. MORGAN DIX, of Trinity church New York, is the rage of the metropolis just now. Both he and the Police Gazette are eagerly sought after each week by those who like their peculiar sensational style. "POE, TOO, LIKE THE poor, is always with us," says the Critic. A very good way of put-ting it. Poe was like the poor in many respects. Necessity forced him to give his to the world, and he got nothing in return for

THE PEOPLE OF Birmingham have all along been claiming that their town was the center of the universe, but when a stranger stood on the top of the courthouse and proclaimed the same thing, the other day, they arrested him

REPRESENTATIVE MILLIONAIRE SCOTT BY Chairman R. Quixote Mills say they are dis-gusted with the course of the Louisiana dele-gation. Not near so much as the Louisiana representatives are disgusted with the cours of the alleged leaders.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: I notice in your paper of the 19th inst, that a correspondent from Jackson writes that I do not deny my guilt in the Jackson writes that I do not deny my guilt in the murder of Thomas McNair, of Butts county, and that I had said whisky and had company brought about the killing, etc.

I will say that I was not present at the time of the killing, did not see it, do not know who killed McNair, nor do I know anything about the killing, nor have I told any one that I had any hand in the matter, nor that I knew who perpetrated the erime.

T. M. Shaw.

The Proposed Presbyterian College.

Lexington, Ga., March 18.—Editors Contitution: Having seen one or more actices in your paper, concerning the building of a Presbyterian college in this state, and knowing that no such an institution now exists, and the great need of one, suggest that the Presbyterians unite and concentrate their efforts in building one. I also suggest that we should build such a building, not in the crowded city of the state, but look to a different location. Our little city, high, dry, and is the most suitable location in the state. We have here one of the most beautiful locations to be found anywhere, it being one of the finest pieces of property in the city. We refer with pride to the handsome home of the late Rey Joseph H. Echols. This beautiful property is entered on the east side, also the north, a beautiful grove in front, composed of majestic oaks. The ground is on the highest summit in the town, overlooking our little city at its foot. It is surrounded by a terraced wall of granite from our immense quarries. A winding track of pebbled stone leads you to the front entrance, after mounting six large granite steps. The grounds are large, with all conveniences. A fine two-story house is built hereon, but when torn down would offer the finest site for a college in the state. One can view the landscape for miles and miles on the north, east, south and west.

only sixteen miles from Athens, and the climate is beyond doubt the healthiest part of the state.

Time and space would fail me to write more at present, but will await the comments of the Presbyterians and would te glad to hear from them for further information. Very respectfully, if

More About the White Cross. EDITORS CONSTITUTION: In your issue EDITORS CONSTITUTION: In your issue of the 15th inst, in reply to Ivanhoe's queries concerning the White Cross, you say "the society probably has no headquarters in this country," and refer him to some previous statements in a former number of The Constitution.

For the benefit of Ivanhoe, and perhaps of many others as deeply interested as he, will you allow me to give a few facts that will lead to a thorough acquaintance with the society and the whole subject, which is now deeply actisting leading minds in which is now deeply agitating leading minds in

1. The society of the White Cross was organized in England six years ago by the bishop of Durham and others of the church of England, but its work ers have, by no means, been confined to that de-ers have, by no means, been confined to that denomination.

2. Four years ago a society was organized in this country, which has recently celebrated its fourth anniversary in a meeting held in New York city, in the church of St. John. the Evangelist, addressed by Rev. Dr. DeCosta and others.

3. The Protestant Episcopal bishops of the United States, in convention assembled, indorsed the White Cross movement, and ministers everywhere approve of it and societies are constantly forming.

4. There is a series of most excellent pamphlets concerning the "origin of the White Cross," "how to organize, etc.," beautifully bound, and only three cents apiece, which may be obtained by addressing Rev. B. F. DeCosta, D. D., secretary of the committee of publication, 31 West 23d street, New York: or by addressing G. G. Hall, 161 Lasalle street, Chicago, who will send an organizang outst.

4. At the eleventh annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, held in Philadelphia in 1885, there was a department added. called "Social Purity co-operating with the White Cross," Women cannot belong to the White Cross, but they can circulate its literature, which deals with this highly important subject in a manner chastely beautiful.

Any further information will be gladly given by Missouri H. Stokes, Decautr. Ga Any further information will be gladly given by Missouri H. Stokes, Decatur, Ga.

JOHN H. INMAN'S BANK BOOK.

The Great Cotton Operator Produces It to Refute Rumors of His Failure. NEW YORK, March 17 .- The sale yesterday of a large block of Richmond Terminal stock, the recent sharp decline in cotton and the failure of James W. Harle, of Atlants, caused the name of John H. Inman, of the cotton exchange, to be mentioned in connection with rumors of failures and disaster. Mr. Inman has the reputation of being the heaviest operator in the cotton market in the country, and it is known that he is interested in several railroads, particularly the Richmond Terminal road, and that he was prominently mentioned for the position of president both of that road and of the Richmond and Danville road previous to the last election. Mr. Inman smiles at the rumor about him, and follows the famous example of Jay Gould, at least in part, by showing his bank book with a snug balance of nearly $500,000 in his favor, and pointing with pride to his well-filled safe, in which are stored from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 in good securities. Men who know Mr. Imman best smile incredulously at the base idea of any trouble from that quarter. Mr. Imman himself, beyond the act of showing his bank account and mentioning the contents of his safe, did not think the stories in circula tents of his safe, did not think the stories in circula-tion worth denying. He said he had sold a thousand shares of Richmond Terminal, but only in the ordinary course of trade, and it was not signifi-cant as to his condition, except that he had that many to sell, nor had he anything to do with Mr. Harle's speculations, further than that his firm was carrying one lot of 10,000 bales for Mr. Harle on Another Heavy Storm Period.

rom the Bulington Hawkeye. The next heavy storm period will continue from the 21st to the last of the month. The storms will be frequent but the principal disturbances are expected to reach the river on the 21st and 27th. The 21st storm will increase in force as it moves eastward, and the 27th storm will be a heavy one in the west. These storms are expected to reach as far south as the 40th parallel in the west.

Mercury passes its major equinox on the 23d, at which time it also passes the equator of the sun and this will increase the force of the 21st storm as it passes east; just as the moon crossing the earth's equator increased the storm of the 10th as it moved east. The full force of Murcury's disturbance will be felt on the 26th or 27th, the days that the storm wave is due on this meridan at which time the moon crosses the earth's equator, thus making the storm period a dangerous one.

The earth also passes'its equinox on the 21st, and that will also influence the storms of the 21st and 27th. The storm due here on the 21st will reach the eastern coast about the 24th and be at its greatest rce, while the other will be at its greatest on the

W. W. Corcoran and the Beggar.

Washington letter to the Courier-Journal. To show how his known benevolence sublarge mail one morning, which made him laugh, and he showed it. The writer said she was a young girl who had never had a silk dress, and that she had heard of his kindness and generosity, and she would be so happy if he would send hera blue silk dress. He had it bought and sent, aithough he felt the impudence of the request, yet he could not resist the pleasure of imagining the girl's delight in owning and wearing a blue silk dress.

King Cotton's Fall.

Notwithstanding receipts are smaller than ast year, cotton continues to decline. The market went off yesterday about ten points, which makes the decline from the highest price about one and a quarter cents, or seven dollars per bale. This freak of the market mystifies holders, who see no reason why prices should go down as they have done, and who can account for it in no other way than that it was through weak holders who have been obliged to sell. It is thought that this liquidation is at an end. The south has a large amount of cotton on hand, but holders are confident that a reaction will set in and prices will rapidly advance.

Only One Thing Lacking.

From the Alta California There is nothing in a carpenter's trade that a woman cannot master except, perhaps, the art by which the male carpenter is enabled to give proper linguistic expression to his icelings when he mashes his thumb with the hammer.

The Epoch. Wife: "John, you have a very annoying habit of saying 'What's that?' whenever you are spoken to. Can't you break yourself of it?" Husband (reading); "Er-what's that?"

AN EARLY SPRING Somebody asks: "Does it pay to be good?" It does when the business becomes fully established, but you've got to sink money in the start.

A young lady, following a Shakspearean play with the book, remarked to her companion: "How imperfect these actors are! None of them say 'exit' when they go off!" "Why don't you have the picture of a rabbit painted on that bald spot?" asked the snake editor of the horse editor. "Why?" "Then people would take it for a little hare," A correspondent says: "The fashion pre-A correspondent says. The lastice pre-diction, that 'short spring overcoats will be much worn,' seems to be correct. A good many seem to be much worn." Short coats also make it plain hat spring pants are much worn.

A self-important official in the patent office was talking grandiloquently to his chief the other day about his importance to the department. "Why, sir," he said, "what would happen were I to die some night?" "There'd be fifty applications for your place inside of twenty-four hours," replied the chief, and the subordinate withdrew. The paper doors now coming into use are

The paper doors now coming into use are claimed to possess the advantage over wood of neither shrinking, swelling, cracking nor warping. They are formed of two thick paper boards, stamped and moulden into panels, and glazed together with glue and potash, and then rolled through heavy rollers. After being covered with a waterproof coating, and then one that is fireproof, they are painted, varnished and hung in the usual way.

The cell of a prisoner named Tayle acred 24. The cell of a prisoner named Davis, aged 24,

The cell of a prisoner named Davis, aged 24, in Portsmouth convict prison, who had just commenced a second term of five years' penal servitude, was being scarched recently, when it was found that he had only one sheet on his bed. He was examined, and it was ascertained that he had converted one sheet into a perfectly fitting suit of clothes, a cap being made of the same material, and he was wearing this under his ordinary pr.son garb. A letter was found on him appealing to a resident in Portsmouth for money.

RAILROAD SCHEMING. The West Point Terminal on Wall Street.

THE OBJECT OF THE MANIPULATIONS.

Three Parties in the Field Looking fo

Control-What the Rumpus

Means-Their Plans.

NEW YORK, March 20 .- [Special.]-The Richmond Terminal squabble waxes, and has resolved itself into a triangular fight, one side of which is said to embrace Alfred Sully and his him in the presidency as a practical indorse-ment of him personally and his administration. The second side is represented by Isaac L. Rose, William Libbey, E. W. Clark and their associates, composing what is called the new party, now striving for control. The base of the triangle is a majority of the present direc-tors, presumably including General S. W. Thomas, Calvin S. Brice, John H. Inman,

George S. Scott, George F. Stone and others. This is Wall street's classification of the rarious factions, and if correct, it is safe to say that the triangle will prove strongest at the base. The new party promises to publish, within a few days, their ticket, and simultaneously to announce their platform, both of which, they say, will appeal so strongly to all stockholders as to insure their victory at the election they purpose having at the contemplated called meeting. They say several of the recent directors will be on their ticket, and that their man for president will be thoroughly acceptable to all concerned. They outline their desires as follows:

"An administration that will honestly strive for the best interests of the Terminal company, and protect the securities against stock jobbing manipulations, and other Wall street practices and a policy that will harmonize all the great outhern railroad systems, notably the Geo Central, the Louisville and Nashville, and the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia." This last end they hope to attain, "not by onsolidations, but by an equitable division o territory that will check the present tendency toward unprofitable railroad building." This certainly looks fair on its face, but in some quarters it is suggested that the virtues of the programme are all on the outside, and that behind the avowed policy are motives onite designing. For instance, the theory is advanced that the move is in the interest the Norfolk and Western railroad, which idea is the more plausible, because E. W. Clark and William Sibley are said to be largely interested in the Norfolk and Western. If this be true, it would naturally prejudice the cause in Georgia, since the ultimate object would be to divert traffic from Atlanta and Savannah to Norfolk. Another suggestion is that this new party is bent on getting control of the Terminal com pany, with the idea of selling to it a controlling interest in the Georgia Central. This theory gathers strength from the fact that Isaac L. Rice, E. W. Clark, H. B. Hollins, Emanuel Lehman and one or two others, who are said to be in sympathy with the new Terminal people. are also members of the syndicate that owns a majority of the Georgia Central stock.

General Thomas and Mr. Brice are traveling in Florida, and thereby escaping the present rumpus. [Messrs. John H. Inman and George S. Scott are here, but both decline to liscuss the affair. The latter is devoting himself diligently to his duties as president of the Richmond and Danville, and his able management is working marvelous improvement in that company's affairs. Since he took charge he has cut down the current expenses over $5,000, and reduced the floating debt largely. He says that the earnings of the Richmond and Danville are entirely satisfactory, and that if there was complete harmony in the terminal management he verily believed he could pay all the fixed charges of that company from the net earnings of the Richmond and Danville

THE TICKET AGENTS.

Meeting of the National Association at St. Augustine.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 20 .- [Special.] The meeting of the General Passenger and Ticket Agents' association of the United States met in Li-brary hall of the Hotel Ponce de Leon tonight, there sent about four hundred, including delegates and parties accompanying them. A grand ball was given in their honor. The magnificent hotel was in a blaze of light. More than ten thousand electric incandescent lights were burning in and around the building, besides over three thousand Japanese lanterns and swinging lamps.

At 9:30 the meeting of members was called and after routine work the question of the place for holding the next meeting was discussed.

After preliminary talk a vote was taken, resulting in the selection of Saratoga, and placing the date for September 20th. The balloting for officers re-sulted in the choice of James L. Taylor, G. P. A., Richmond and Danville railroad for president; Henry Monett, G. P. A., New York Central and Hudson railroad, for vice-president, and A. J. Smith, G. P. A., L. S. M. R. R., for sceretary.

A special train left at 11 o'clock to night for Jacksonville, with many of the parties, the remainder will follow on a special at 10 o'clock in the morning. They will visit the sub-tropical exposition in a body tomorow after which they make a tour of the state visiting all points of interest and disbanding the

A Louisville dispatch says: Louisville would be a disagreeable place tonight for Mr. C. P. would be a disagreeable place tonight for Mr. C. P. Huntington, the railroad magnate. The Short Route Transfer company, of this city, is a belt railroad that connects Huntington's roads, the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern. In 1882 some local capitalists secured peake and Ohio, and the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern. In 1882 some local capitalists secured a charter for the right to build this short route road along the river front from the Fourteenth street depot to the First street depot. It is an elevated road. Mr. Collis P. Huntington needed the charter in his business, and he bought it, paying $100,000 in stock and $75,000 in bonds of the Short Route Transfer company for it. Then he built the road, and from the very be ginning it was a success, so much so that until a week ago the stock was quoted at 71. The bonds, which bore 6 per cent, were easily sold at 106. Local capitalists got into the thing head over heels and were exuberantly confident that they had struck a bonanza. The title of all the property of the road was vested in General John Echols, Huntington's vice-president and grand vizier, but it is claimed that General Echols himself did not own an interest of one cent in it, being merely used as a machine to hold and convey the property. The company was originally bonded at $500,000, and stocked at $500,000. Of this local capitalists held $125,000 worth of the stock, and $75,000 of bonds. Huntington either held or controlled all of the remainder. The other day Huntington made a new issue of $500,000 worth of stock and $500,000 worth of bonds, This makes the bonded debt of the road a cool million, and Huntington owns nearly all of the bonds. The local stockholders have just tumbled, and they are raising Cain, Ned and a great many other defunct dignitaries. They claim that all of the carnings of the road will be exhausted in paying the interest on the locals and which of course renders the stock for which many of them paid 60 and 65 valueless. This argument leads them to the conclusion that Mr. Huntington has written to General Echols directing him to say to the local stockholders that Mr. Huntington has prices of the west to the port of San Francisco. A local representative of the magnate claims that Mr. Huntington has prices of the west to the port of S a charter for the right to build this short route road

President Spencer's official circular announces the following officers:
Orland Smith to be first vice-president, with head-quarters at Baltimore.
C. K. Lord to be third vice-president, with head-quarters at Baltimore.
W. M. Clements to be general manager of all lines east of the Ohio river, including New York terminals and the Ohio river bridges, with headquarters at Baltimore.
W. W. Peabody to be general manager of all lines wast of the Ohio river, with headquarters at Chicago.

more. Ways to be general freight agent of the main stem branches, including the Philadelphis division, with headquarters at Baltimore.

C. S. Wright to be general freight agent of the Pittsburg division and all lines west of the Ohio river, with headquarters at Pittsburg.

Bound for California enger Agent John Gee, of the Atlanta Passenger Agent John Gee, of the Atlanta and New Orleans Short Line, brought to the city last night thirty one passengers bound from Charlotte, N. C., to California. The party was headed by Rev. C. C. Petty, who has founded a prosperous colony at San Jose. About 100 people in all have gone from about Charlotte to join this colony.

Sparks Here and There

Western engineers are refusing to handle hicago, Burlington and Quincy freight. G. V. Morford, a well-known railroad man of Chicago, has been adjudged insane. He imagines himself vice-president of the United States. Thomas L. Kimball, late assistant to T. J. Potter, v.ce-president of the Union Facilic, has been appointed to the place made vacant by Mr. Potter's

The western roads have again changed their ninds about the date for the restoration of freight rates. The original date, March 26th, has been determined upon,

Two big mortgages were filed at Bonham, Tex., on the 17th. They are for $25,000,000 each, both given by the Texas Pacific railway company, one is executed to the Fidelity Insurance Trust Deposit company, of Philadelphia, and the other to the Mercantile Trust company, of New York. The two documents comprise seventy-nine pages of printed matter. The money thus raised is to pay of the indebtedness and reorganize the company.

A HISTORICAL ANIMAL.

How the Emperor of Germany Decided an American Case Started by a Pig.

From St. Nicholas for March.

Between two groups of islands in the extense northwestern part of Washington Tentiory run two narrow straits, one called the Canal de Haro, and the other the Resario strait. Between the two is San Juan islan ! It commands both we ter ways, and hence it would be of great value to either country that owned it in case two nations should ever quarrel. The text of the agreement beoundary should be "the middle of the char without saying which channel. A man named Hubbs, who was pasturing sheep on the southern end of the island of San Juan, had for a neighbor, on the north end, a man named Griffiths. This G. iffiths was employed to raise pigs for the Hudson's mpany.

pigs overran the island and caused Mr. Hubbs a great deal of frouble, so one day, in a moment of anger, he warned his neighbor Griffiths that if another pig came upon his land he would kill it. The very next day a pig did trespass

Mr. Hubbs kept his word and killed the pig. orifiths was then as angry as Hubbs had been, and immediately sailed over to Victoria—the busy little city on Vancouver island, where the officers of the government, the soldlers and the ships of war had their headquarters—and obtained a waiter of the government of the control of the contro rant, or order issued by a court of law, for Hubbs's rant, or order issued by a court of law, nor hubbs's arrest. A constable went to arrest Hubbs and to take him to Victoria for trial upon the charge of killing the pig. But Hubbs refused to go with him. He said he was an American citizen, and that therefore an English warrant was nothing to him. The constable departed, and Hubbs, well knowing the officer would come back and try to force him to go o Victoria, sent over to Port Townsend, in Washington territory, for American protection.

A company of soldiers was sent him, and the english did not molest Mr. Hubts. English did not molest Mr. Hubts.

For five years that little island was occupied by soldiers of the two mighty nations. Each camp displayed the flag of its country on a high staff over the tentl—the stars and stripes fluttering over the pastures at one end and the red banner of Great Reitzle menons the bille at the other soldiers. pastures at one end and the lead and the lead of the l ly excited, and many on both sides lavoled war, and perhaps, if it had not been about the time of the actual war between the states, in 1861, there would have been war overthat pig dispute.

Our government wished the middle of the canal de Haro to be the border line because we claimed British had never been willing to agree, since that boundary would give San Juan to our country, and the English possessions. Finally the papers on both sides were prepared by the respective governments and submitted to the emperor of Ger many, who de-cided in favor of the United States. And thus it happens that the greatest of European rulers not ong ago passed judgment in a quarrel that began wer a pig that was only trying to get something to

Don't Drag a Moral In. Opie P. Reid being asked the other day what he thought of a novel recently brought out in the west said: "It just falls short of being a great book. The trouble is the writer has dragged in a moral without its permission. You can put a find silk cord around a moral's neck and it will troalongside you as gracefully and happily as you please, but when you grab it by the tail and drag it across the plowed ground there's always more or less un-pleasant growling and scratching. This man has

From the Detroit Free Press. "Is that the way to spell retched?" he asked as he stepped into a shoe shop on Michigan avenue with the word written out in large letters. "Let's see," mused the shoemaker, as he gazed at the word. "That's retched, sure enough; but some-how it doesn't look exactly right. There's something lacking somewhere. Ah! I see! You should spell it re-t-c-h-i d. Glad to help you out, sir."

After Twenty Years. To my friend, Mrs. W. Wallace Boyd, on the twentieth anniversary of her marriage, March

Five the springtimes, pure and sweet, Five the summers, bright and flect, Five the autumns with their gold, Five the winters, bleak and cold, Since all joined to bless thy life, As sister, mother, friend and wife, With the garnered smiles and tears All thine own for fifteen years. Still these blessings line thy way, As in that sweet yesterday; Still a husband's tender care
Shares with thee each hope and fear;
Still within thy daughter's heart
Thou has e'er the noblest part; Thou has et the house year, Still thy sons obedient prove
To a mother's guiding love;
Still a sister's gracious face
Brightens all the fireside place;
Friendship still flings flowers sweet
Of love and thanks beneath thy feel. of love and thanks beneam thy tech And shall we say that this is all? Heardest thou only Pleasure's call? Has God given only this, The surray of untempered bliss? Nay, He loves thee far too well. Listen, while I softly tell of the tears thy sad eyes shed Be a mother's thying hed: By a mother's dying bed;
Of the faith that Jesus gave
By a mother's honored grave.
In that hour Love's eyes descried More than all the years bes and as one stroke but leaves the heart And as one stroke but leaves the het wide open for the wounding dart, So thy fond spirit felt again Bereavement sore and bitter pain; The unseen kingdom nearer drew As brother, sister beckoned you. Twenty years of sun and shade, Twenty years of mount and glade—But in the shade rare flowers grew that with a state them. And in the vale in darkness trod Thy spirit met and talked with God. The twenty years that found
Thee, queen, have left thee—crowned.
arch 19, 1888/
—ELISS BRATTIS,

MOVE THOSE DRAYS.

The Marietta Street Merchants Going to Law.

Warrants Issued for Draymen Who Obuct the Streets-An Interesting Trial Set for Today.

T. C. Mayson, the grocer on Marietta street, between Peachtree and Broad, is complainant in an unusual and somewhat peculiar case which will be heard before Judge Landrum this afternoon, and in which Colonel Living-ston Mims and Mr. P. H. Snook will be the leading witnesses.
It is a nuisance—not the case but the

For years, and years past—in fact, so far back that the memory of man runs, walks uor rides to the contrary, the negroes who run fur-niture wagons and drays have been in the habit of congregating their crippled animals and rattling vehicles along Marietta street, between Peachtree and Broad. Just why they selected that particular block upon which to congregate history does not tell, but at any rate a solid line of wagons can be seen almost any day with one end upon Peachtre and the other upon Broad. The line is so com plete and compact that it is impossible for a curriage to reach Mr. Mayson's door, Mr. Snook's door or the entrance to Major Mim's office without going either to Broad and Peachtree, and then driving along the avenue between the line of wagons and sidewalk. This of course has proven a great annoyance to the gentlemen and they have made many ineffectual or course has proven a great annoyance to the gentlemen and they have made many ineffectual attempts to break it up. Petition after petition has been sent to the general council requesting the passage of an ordinance prohibiting the wagons from congregating to such an extent. The exact situation was laid clearly before the council in the petition but from some cause the body gave the petitioners no relief. A day or two ago there was a solid line of wagons along the block and one of Mr. Mayson's customers in a carriage wanted to reach his store. Mr. Mayson went to the line of wagons and taking a mule by the bridle lead him into the street, making an avenue through which his customer could drive. The negro, to whom the wagon belong ed, became furious and began swearing at terrible rate because his wagon had been moved. Mr. Snook and Colonel Sam Goode, who are also molested by the line, heard the who are also molested by the line, heard the negro's language, and the three gentlemen again discussed the situation. Mr. Mayson finally decided to try the state courts, and calling upon Mayson & Hill, the attorneys, laid the matter before them fully, and then asked: "Now, haven't we any, redress?"

The attorneys considered the matter a short time and then suggested that it night be a misance, and as such abated by an order of the court. The grocer requested the attorneys to take the affair in hand and try to secure a relief. On that afternoon they served notices upon five of the drivers in which they asserted that the continuous line of warons was a misrelier. On that alternoon they served notices upon five of the drivers in which they asserted that the continuous line of wagons was a nuisance, and notifying them to abate it or stand the consequence. Early yesterday morning the line was again along the street, and in the line; the attorneys observed two of the negroes upon whom they had served notice. They went direct to Judge Landrum and swore out a warrant, charging them with committing a nuisance, and the two negroes were arrested. They both gave bond and the cases will be heard this afternoon. After the men were arrested the drivers became shaky and left gaps between their wagons so that carriages could pass through. During the day Mr. Mayson and Mr. Snook were standing in front of their stores talking about the matter.

"Why," said Mr. Mayson, "if the courts don't give us relief I don't know what I'll do."

"Nor I," remarked Mr. Snook.

"How many drays are there?" was asked.

"God only knows," said Mr. Mayson.

"How many drays are there?" was as "God only knows," said Mr. Mayson. Fifty?"
Yes, a hundred. I have seen as many as "Yes, a hundred. I have seen as many as eighteen in this block, and we have done everything to get them away, but without success. We have petitioned the council, but they won't help us. We have gone to Chief Connolly, but he won't do anything; and when we ask the negroes to move, they say that Connolly says if they keep ten feet from the sidewalk it is all right."

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

A Formal Call Issued by the Executive Committee of the State Association. A meeting of the executive committee of the Georgia Temperance association was held in this city yesterday. It was presided over by Hon. C. R. Pringle, president of the associa-tion. After consultation, the following call tion. After consultation, the following call was issued:

A convention of the Georgia Temperance association is hereby called to meet in the city of Atlanta, at ten o'clock a. m., on Wednesday, the 25th day of April, 1888, to continue in session for two days. The object of the convention is to consider the advisability of passing a state law at the next session of the general assembly to be submitted to the people for ratification, and to consider such other matters as may be deemed best to advance the prohibition cause in the state. A full representation from each and every county in the state is carnestly desired. Each county will be allowed double the number of representatives it has in the lower branch of the general assembly. Let the friends of temperance in the several counties of the state, whether now organized or not, call meetings at the most practicable time and appoint delegates. An interesting programme will be arranged. Distinguished speakers will be invited to address the convention. Delegates will be entertained free of charge by the citizens of Atlanta. Arrangements will be prefected with the railroads for the lowest possible rates. was issued: Arrangements will be perfect for the lowest possible rates. Let each member of the com-congressional districts of the state see that this cal is published by the papers in his district, and see that every county in his district is represented. By order of the executive committee. C. R. PRINGLE, President. W. G. WHIDBY, Secretary. W. H. Woodall, Assistant secretary. W. H. Woodall, Assistant secretary.

The executive committee is made up as follows: First district, N. F. Thompson, Chatham; second district, C. P. Hansell, Thomas; third district, J. H. Martin, Pulaski; fourth district, A. D. Freeman, Coweta; fifth district, J. G. Thrower, Fulton; sixth district, A. A. Murphy, Pike; seventh district, L. N. Trammell, Cobb; eighth district, Rev. J. G. Gibson, Oglethorpe; ninth district, G. N. Lester, Forsyth; tenth district, Rev. W. L. Kilpatrick, Richmond; state at large, W. B. Hill, of Bibb; A. E. Buck, of Fulton; J. B. McGehee, of Talbot; W. H. Felton, of Bartow.

THE ATLANTA FEMALE INSTITUTE.

A Meeting of the Alumna Yesterday Afternoon—Another Meeting Called. In response to the call for a meeting of the lumnæ of Mrs. Ballard's school, the Atlanta Female institute, quite a number of the graduates met yesterday afternoon at the institute building on Peachtree street. The object in issuing the call was to make due arrangements for the alumna celebration on the third of June, just before the commencement exercises.

Quite a number of short speeches were Quite a number of short speeches were made and considerable progress was effected. It was then decided to have another meeting next Tuesday, the 27th, and at this meeting the final arrangements will be made. The programme arranged for the celebration in June is a highly interesting one, and the alumna will add to the next commencement one of its prettiest and most attractive features.

William Sutton Takes a Drink or Two Too Many, and Falls Off a Horse Car. Many, and Falls Off a Horse Car.

Bill Sutton, the short, heavy-set man with the long, black whiskers, who was fined $10
and cost in the police court Monday merning
for a Saturday night drunk, fell from a street car yesterday and broke his left arm.
Sutton was drinking again, and just before
noon started home on a Marietta street car.
After dropping in his fare he took a position on the rear platform. When near Corput street—at the old rolling mills—he lost his balance, and fell off. No one noticed the accident, and he remained on the side of the track until the next car passed, coming towards the city. Sutton was picked up by the driver, and it was found that his left arm was broken in two places.

two places.

The injured man was carried to Dickson's

Pond's Extract, for Rheumatism, Neu flaramatory Pain, etc. For years has had a medical standing, and acknowledged in medical erminal on NIPULATIONS.

e waxes, and has a fight, one side of red Sully and his ent on continuing practical indorse-is administration. ited by Isaac L. Clark and their called the new he present direc-General S. W. John H. Inman, one and others. rongest at the t, and simultane tform, both of eir ticket, and vill be thoroughly They outline their ill honestly strive erminal company, inst stock jobbing ll street practices, ize all the great Vashville, and the Georgia." attain, "not by a strongly to al

at the contem-

present tendency uilding." Thi ce, but in some the outside, and ce, the theory is in the interest of road, which idea argely interested re cause in Geornnah to Norfolk. the Terminal com atral. This the-Hollins, Emanuel Terminal people. tral stock. caping the pres-H. Inman and at both decline to president of the his able manageimprovement in carrent expenses over effoating debt largely. ngs of the Richmond ony in the terminal wed he could pay company from the assenger and Ticket ed States met in Lithem. A gran More than ter of the place for placing the date ing for officers re-... Taylor, G. P. A., oad for president; York Central and ut, aud A. J. Smith, ck tenight for Jackrties, the remainder lock in the morning, exposition in a body ke a tour of the state and disbanding the Louisville.

says: Louisville

onight for Mr. C. P. gnate. The Short scity, is a belt railis roads, the Chesasapeake, Ohio and al capitalists secured this short route road of Fourteenth street. It is an elevated needed the charter t, paying $100,000 in is of the Short y for it. Then the the very be used at 71. The nut, were easily sold into the thing head ritle of all the propeneral John Echols, and grand vider, but ols himself did not, being merely used with property. The fied at $50,000, and ocal capitalists held und $55,000 of bonds. roads, the Chesa-ded at $500,000, and local capitalists held and $75,000 of bonds, introlled all of the rediffiction and a new stock and $500,000 is the bonded debt, and Huntington. The local stock derived they are raising her defunct dignitational and interest on the can never be a stock ders the stock for do valuelies. This onclusion that Mr. hold them out and me of them are talk-aspnate to the penido to sue out an incheckmate. In the away agross the checkmate. In the gaway agross the gaway agross the new west to the A local represents that Mr. Hunting, a feet the short route out of his own funds ety along the rightors represents the pur He also says that Mr. heral Echols directing lolders that he means I that any of them y have $1,000 worth of $1,000 of the new message however asstockholders. They do rimoney.

e day says: The local ute railroad company, all estate were by Gendays ago to Trustees the held a meeting tonefer as illegal. They william Ray, John G. g. were not consulted is was made, and that Huntington, without authority, has issued additional obligations to the extent of $1,000,000, bearing per cent. interest semi-annually, and this amount

The Baltimore and Obio. President Spencer's official circular an-ounces the following officers: Orland Smith to be first vice-president, with headto be third vice-president, with headuarters at Baltimore.

M. Clements to be general manager of all lines ast of the Ohio river, including New York terminals and the Ohio river bridges, with headquarters.

more.

Charles E. Ways to be general freight agent of the main stem branches, including the Philadelphia division, with headquarters at Baltimore.

C. S. Wright to be general freight agent of the Pittsburg division and all lines west of the Ohio river, with headquarters at Pittsburg.

Passenger Agent John Gee, of the Atlanta and New Orleans Short Line, brought to the city last night thirty one passengers bound from Charlotte, N. C., to California. The party was headed by Rev. C. Petty, who has founded a prosperous colony at San Jose. About 100 people in all have gone from about Charlotte to Join this colony. Bound for California Western engineers are refusing to handle Chicago, Burlington and Quincy freight.

G. V. Morford, a well-known railroad man of Chleago, has been adjudged insane. He imagines himself vice-president of the United States. Thomas L. Kimball, late assistant to T. J. Potter, vice-president of the Union Pacific, has ocen appointed to the place made vacant by Mr. Potters

The western roads have again changed their minds about the date for the restoration of freight rates. The original date, March 26th, has been determined upon,

Two big mortgages were filed at Bonham, Tex., on the 17th. They are for $25,000,000 each, both given by the Texas Facific rallway company. One is executed to the Fidelity Insurance Trust beposit company, of Philadelphia. and the other to the Mercantile Trust company, of New York. The two documents comprise seventy-nine pages of printed matter. The money thus raised is to pay off the indebtedness and reorganize the company.

A HISTORICAL ANIMAL.

How the Emperor of Germany Decided an

How the Emperor of Germany Decided an American Case Started by a Pig.

From St. Nicholas for March:

Between two groups of islands in the externe northwestern part of Washington Territory run two narrow straits, one called the Canal de Haro, and the other the Resario strait. Between the two is San Juan islan 1. It commands both water ways, and hence it would be of great value to either country that owned it in case two nations should ever quariel. The text of the agreement between Great Britain and this country reads it at the boundary should be "the middle of the channel," without saying which channel. A man named Hubbs, who was pasturing sheep on the southern end of the island of San Juan, had for a neighbor, on the north end, a man named Griffiths. This G. iffiths was employed to raise pigs for the Hudson's Eay company.

Bay company.

The pigs overran the island and caused Mr.
Hubbs a great deal of trouble, so one day, in a moment of anger, he warned his neighbor Griffiths that if another pig came upon his land he would kill it. The very next day- a pig did trespans

Mr. Hubbs kept his word and killed the pig.

Griffiths was then as angry as Hubbs had been, and immediately sailed over to Victoria—the busy little city on Vancouver island, where the officers of the government, the soldlers and the ships of war had their headquarters—and obtained a warrant, or order issued by a court of law, for Hubbs's arrest. A constable went to arrest Hubbs and to take him to Victoria for trial upon the charge of killing the pig. But Hubbs refused to go with him. He said he was an American citizen, and that therefore an English warrant was nothing to him. The constable departed, and Hubbs, well knowing the officer would come back and try to force him to go o Victoria, sent over to Port Townsend, in Washington territory, for American protection.

A company of soldiers was sent him, and the English did not molest Mr. Hubbs.

For five years that little island was occupied by soldiers of the two mighty nations. Each camp displayed the flag of its country on a high staff over the tentl—the stars and stripes fluttering over the pastures at one end and the red banner of Great Britain among the hills at the other, only a few miles away. On either shore the people were greatly excited, and many on both sides favored war; and perhaps, if it had not been about the time of the actual war between the states, in 1861, there would have been war over that pig dispute.

and pernaps, it had no been account the actual war between the states, in 1861, there would have been war over that pig dispute.

Our government wished the middle of the caual de Haro to be the border line because we claimed that it was the true ship channel, but to this the British had never been willing to agree, since th British had never been willing to agree, since that boundary would give San Juan to our country, and with that island went the control of the gate-way to the English possessions. Finally the papers on both sides were prepared by the respective governments and submitted to the emperor of Ger many, who decided in favor of the United States. And thus it happens that the greatest of European rulers not long ago passed judgment in a quarrel that begand year a nig that was only trying to get something to over a pig that was only trying to get .something to Opie P. Reid being asked the other day what he thought of a novel recently brought out in the west said: "It just falls short of being a great book. The trouble is the writer has dragged in a moral without jits permission. You can put a find silk cord. around a moral's neck and it will trotalongside you as gracefully and happily as you please, but when you grab it by the tail and drag it across the plowed ground there's always more or less unpleasant growling and scratching. This man has dragged his moral in."

He Fixed It. From the Detroit Free Press.

"Is that the way to spell retched?" he asked as he stepped into a shoe shop on Michigan avenue with the word written out in large letters.

"Let's see," mused the shoemaker, as he gazed at the word. "That's retched, sure enough; but somehow it doesn't look exactly right. There's something lacking somewhere. Ah! I see! You should spell it re-t-c-h-i d. Glad to help you out, sir." From the Detroit Free Press

To my friend, Mrs. W. Wallace Boyd, on the twentieth auniversary of her marriage, March 19, 1838.

Five the springtimes, pure and sweet, Five the summers, bright and fleet, Five the autumns with their gold, Five the winters, bleak and cold, Since all joined to bless thy life, As sister, mother, friend and wife, with the gamenest smiles and tears As sixer, mother, friend and wire,
With the garnered smiles and tears
All thine own for fifteen years.
Still these blessings line thy way,
As in that sweet yesterday;
Still a husband's tender care Still a husband's tender care
Shares with thee each hope and fear;
still within thy daughter's heart
Thou has e'er the noblest part;
still thy sons obedient prove
To a mother's guiding love;
Still a sister's gracious face
Brightens all the fireside place;
Friendship still flings flowers sweet
Of love and than's beneath thy feet.
And shall we say that this is all?
Heardest thou only Pleasure's call? Heardest thou only Pleasure's call? Has God given only this, The sunray of untempered bliss? Nay, He loves thee far too well. Listen, while I softly tell Nay, He loves thee far too well.

Listen, while I softly tell
Of the tears thy sad eyes shed
By a mother's dying bed;
Of the faith that Jesus gave
By a mother's honored grave.
In that hour Love's eyes descried
More than all the years beside.
And as one stroke but leaves the heart
Wide open for the wounding dart,
So thy fond spirit felt again
Bereavement sore and bitter pain;
The unseen kingdom nearer drew
As brother, sister beckoned you.
Twenty years of sun and shade,
Twenty years of mount and clade—
But in the shade rare flowers grew
The radiant sunshine never knew;
And in the vale in darkness trod
Thy spirit met and talked with God.
The twenty years that found
Thee, queen, have left thee—crowned.
March 19, 1883.

MOVE THOSE DRAYS.

The Marietta Street Merchants Going to Law.

Warrants Issued for Draymen Who Obtruct the Streets-An Interesting Trial Set for Today.

T. C. Mayson, the grocer on Marietta street, between Peachtree and Broad, is complainant in an unusual and somewhat peculiar case which will be heard before Judge Landrum this afternoon, and in which Colonel Living-ston Mims and Mr. P. H. Snook will be the leading witnesses.
It is a nuisance—not the case but the cause of the case. For years, and years past—in fact, so far back that the memory of man runs, walks uor rides to the contrary, the negroes who run fur-niture wagons and drays have been in the habit of congregating their crippled animals and rattling vehicles along Marietta street, between Peachtree and Broad. Just why they selected that particular block upon which to congregate history does not tell, but at any rate a solid line of wagons can be seen almost any day with one end upon Peachtree and the other upon Broad. The line is so complete and compact that it is impossible for a curriage to reach Mr. Mayson's door, Mr.

curriage to reach Mr. Mayson's door, Mr. Snook's door or the entrance to Majer Mim's office without going either to Broad and Peachtree, and then driving along the avenue between the line of wagons and sidewalk. This of course has proven a great annoyance to the gentlemen and they have made many ineffectual attempts to break it up. Petition after petition has been sent to the general council requesting the passage of an ordinance prohibiting the wagons from congregating to such an extent. The exact situation was laid clearly before the council in the petition but from some cause the body gave the petitioners no relief. A day or two ago there was a solid line of wagons along the block and one of Mr. Mayson's customers in a carriage wanted to reach his store. Mr. Mayson went to the line of wagons and taking a mule by the bridle lead him into the street, making an avenue through which his customer could drive. The negro, to whom the wagon had been moved. Mr. Snook and Colonel Sam Goode, who are also molested by the line, heard the percrical sunguage, and the three gentlements.

moved. Mr. Snook and Colonel Sam Goode, who are also molested by the line, heard the negro's language, and the three gentlemen again discussed the situation. Mr. Mayson finally decided to try the state courts, and calling upon Mayson & Hill, Ithe (attorneys, laid the matter before them fully, and then asked: "Now, haven't we any redress?"

The attorneys considered the matter a short time and then suggested that it might be a nuisance, and as such abated by an order of the court. The grocer requested the attorneys to take the affair in hand and try to secure a relief. On that afternoon they served notices upon five of the drivers in which they asserted that the continuous line of wagons was a nuisance, and notifying them to abate it or stand the consequence. Early yesterday morning the line was again along the street, and in the line; the attorneys observed two of the negroes upon whom they had served notice. They went direct to Judge Landrum and swore out a warrant, charging them with committing a nuisance, and the two negroes were arrested. They both gave bond and the cases will be heard this afternoon. After the men were arrested the divers became shaky and left gans between gave bond and the cases will be heard this afternoon. After the men were arrested the drivers became shaky and left gaps between their wagons so that carriages could pass through. During the day Mr. Mayson and Mr. Snook were standing in front of their stores talking about the matter.

"Why," said Mr. Mayson, "if the courts don't give us relief I don't know what I'll do."

"Nor I," remarked Mr. Snook.

"How many drays are there?" was asked.

"God only knows," said Mr. Mayson.

"Fifty?"

"God only knows," said Mr. Mayson.
"Fifty?"

"Yes, a hundred. I have seen as many as eighteen in this block, and we have done everything to get them away, but without success. We have petitioned the council, but they won't help us. We have gone to Chief Connolly, but he won't do anything; and when we ask the negroes to move, they say that Connolly says if they keep ten feet from the sidewalk it is all right."

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

A Formal Call Issued by the Executive Committee of the State Association. A meeting of the executive committee of the A meeting of the executive committee of the Georgia Temperance association was held in this city yesterday. It was presided over by Hon. C. R. Pringle, president of the association. After consultation, the following call was issued:

A convention of the Georgia Temperance association is hereby called to meet in the city of Atlanta.

A convention of the Georgia Temperance association is hereby called to meet in the city of Atlanta, at ten o'clock a. m., on Wednesday, the 25th day of April, 1888, to continue in session for two days. The object of the convention is to consider the advisability of passing a state law at the next session of the general assembly to be submitted to the people for ratification, and to consider such other matters as may be deemed best to advance the prohibition cause in the state. A full representation from each and every county in the state is earnestly desired. Each county will be allowed double the number of representatives it has in the lower branch of the general assembly. Let the friends of temperance in the several counties of the state, whether now organized or not, call meetings at the most practicable time and appoint delegates. An interesting programme will be arranged. Distinguished speakers will be invited to address the convention. Delegates will be entertained free of charge by the citizens of Atlanta. Arrangements will be perfected with the railroads for the lowest possible rates.

Let each member of the committee in the several congressional districts of the state see that this call is published by the papers in his district, and see that every county in his district is represented.

By order of the executive committee, C. R. PRINGLE, President. W. H. Woodall, Assistant secretary.

W. G. Whide, Secretary.
W. G. Whide, Secretary.
W. H. Woodall, Assistant secretary.
The executive committee is made up as follows: First district, N. F. Thompson, Chatham; second district, C. P. Hansell, Thomas; third district, J. H. Martin, Pulaski; fourth district, A. D. Freeman, Coweta; fifth district, J. G. Thrower, Fulton; sixth district, A. A. Murphy, Pike; seventh district, L. N. Trammell, Cobb; eighth district, Rev. J. G. Gibson, Oglethorpe; minth district, G. N. Lester, Forsyth; tenth dislrict, Rev. W. L. Kilpatrick, Richmond; state at large, W. B. Hill, of Bibb; A. E. Buck, of Fulton; J. B. McGehee, of Talbot; W. H. Feiton, of Bartow.

THE ATLANTA FEMALE INSTITUTE. A Meeting of the Alumne Yesterday After noon-Another Meeting Called. In response to the call for a meeting of the alumna of Mrs. Ballard's school, the Atlanta Female institute, quite a number of the graduates met yesterday afternoon at the institute building on Peachtree street. The object in issuing the call was to make due arrangements for the alumna celebration on the third of June, just before the commencement exercises.

Quite a number of short speeches were made and considerable progress was effected. It was then decided to have another meeting next Tuesday, the 27th, and at this meeting the final arrangements will be made. The pro-gramme arranged for the celebration in June is a highly interesting one, and the alumna will add to the next commencement one of its prettiest and most attractive features.

HE BROKE AN ARM!

William Sutton Takes a Drink or Two Too Many, and Falls Off a Horse Car.

Many, and Falls Off a Horse Car.
Bill Sutton, the short, heavy-set man with
the long, black whiskers, who was fined $10
and cost in the police court Monday morning
for a Saturday night drunk, fell from a street
car yesterday and broke his left arm.
Sutton was drinking again, and just before
noon started home on a Marietta street car.
After dropping in his fare he took a position
on the rear platform. When near Corput street—at the old rolling mills—he lost his balance, and fell off. No one noticed the accident, and he remained on the side of the track until the next car passed, coming towards the city. Sutton was picked up by the driver, and it was found that his left arm was broken in two places. two places.

The injured man was carried to Dickson's drug store, where his arm was set.

Pond's Extract, for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, In-flammatory Pain, etc. For years has had a medical standing, and acknowledged in medical WALKS AND TALKS.

One of the best jokes of the season is current One of the best jokes of the season is current in the Gate City bank building. All the lawyers are laughing about it. The victims are Mr. Frank Walker, Colonel John B. Redwine and a negro boy, whose name is Jerry Johnson. A few days ago this boy was standing near a trash pile and was engaged in running his toes through the debris. He noticed something bright in the pile, and when he picked it up found it to be a very small yellow coln. At first he thought it was copper, but as he fingered it, his native sense told him it was too heavy for copper, so he at once conjectured that it was made of gold. He he at once conjectured that it was made of gold. He had some business with Mr. Walker and while in his office showed him the piece of money. He ask-ed the lawyer how much be would give him for it. Woolfolt's attorney, after eyeing it closely, thought it was a gold dollar, and as he was particularly anxious to get such a coin to wear on his watch chain he offered the boy a dollar for it, which he gleefully

Mr. Walker gave the coin a careful exami-Mr. Walker gave the coin a careful examination and became convinced that he had paid too much for it. He was in Colonel Redwine's office, and took the coin out and exhibited it to the great financier. "What will you give me for it?" he asked. "I'll give you a dollar," was the reply. "And I'll give you a dollar and a quarter," interrupted a man who had come in to renew a note. "Done," exclaimed Mr. Walker. "Here's your money," was the quick answer. The buyer left the office with his coin, and the lawyer thought he had made a good bargain. made a good bargain. Hurrying off to a man that buys coins, the prehaser exhibited the piece. The dealer rutinized it closely and said: "What will you take for it?" "What will you give?" After a little consideration the dealer said: "Will you take $25 for it?" The answer was: "No; but I'll take $20 for it." "It's a go; here's your money," and the happy man walked out the office. The coin which figured in these transactions

The coin which figured in these transactions is a confederate gold dollar. A gentleman was talking yesterday to a reporter and he said: "The worst sold man of the four was he who sold the coin for $30. If it be true that it is, as is represented, a genuine confederate gold dollar, it is worth $650. I am told that there are only six of these coins in existence. They are the only ones which were coined. They are worth $300 each." The reporter came away convinced that of all the men who figured in this affair, the gentle-man who gave this wonderful information is the worst sold of any. The Boston Stars are resting in Atlanta at the Kimball house, after an uninterrupted season of thirty weeks. Their success this season fins been something remarkable. The residents of Atlanta will be pleased to learn that they will appear in De-Give's opera house next. Monday night. So excellent a company has not been heard in Atlanta for a year or more. The company is composed of true artists. Walter Emerson is confessedly the greatest cornet player living. The best critics place him much higher than Levy, who astonished all Atlanta by his surprising playing during the music festival. Many of these critics give Levy his proper meed of merit, and declare that he is second only to Walter Emerson. Medora Henson-Emerson is a prima donn of great excellence, She is a pupil of the great Etore Barili, (Alfredo Barili's father) and is a daughter of Dr. Henson, one of the most distin-guished Baptist elergymen in the United States. Mr-Rudolf King, of Berlin, is the pianist and accom-panist. Nella F. Brown, the phenomenal reader and elecutionist, is the wife of Mr. Ozias iW. Pond. of Boston, the famous manager. The stars are not less social than musical lights, and during their stay in Atlanta will receive much attention from the best people of the city. Their first appearance in Atlanta will be under happy auspices. They will play for the benefit of the Atlanta Artillery, a com-pany which deserves a substantial benefit.

Terry Towns is in town.
Terry is on the road now, and the haunts that once knew him know him no more.
"I tell you what it is," he said, as he leaned grace-"Hell you what it is," he said, as he leaned gracefully over the desk at the Kimb I, "Bome is ahead in one respect. It is famous for its hotels. No city in the country can boast of such execrable hotels." "Pretty bad, ch?"
"Bad! Why, it takes a man with an iron constitu-

"Base why, it takes a man with an iron constitu-tion to live through one of their meals. I've knocked around a good deal, but I had a dish shoved at me in Rome the other day that knocked me out. They called it biscuit float!"

"Biscuit float," said Frank Miller, musingly.

"Float-why, I thought such biscuits as you get there could never be made to float."

But Rome's new hotel will be a beauty, and then there will be no complaints. It is said that Mr. Levi Scoville, formerly of the Kimball, will be the proprietor.

The rumor was current about the capitol yesterday. that Judge George W. Gustin, the able judge of the Macon circuit, contemplates resigning busted' and so forth," said Mr. F. G. Sheppard, of the magic city, "is all foolishness. People who have gone there and paid heart-of-the-city prices for suburban lots have lost money, but property in the heart of the city shows a steady advance in value. We haven't as pretty a city as Atlanta, but it wont be long before we do have."

Where was Jack Bagby last night when the electric light went out?

moved from an old cemetery near the water works Complaints now come from that region to the effect that the empty graves have never yet been filled up and their yawning mouths present an anything but cheerful appearance to passers by.

Everybody who is interested in racing com mends the southern circuit project. It is hoped that at next Friday's meeting all of the cities talked of will be represented and that the circuit will be a Major Kiser and Mr. Lowry should be encouraged in their efforts to secure an ambulance for the lvy street hospital. It is something much

Last night's storm was in some respect unique. Before rain began to fall the lightning flashes followed one another so rapidly as to seem almost one continuous flash. The western sky was

PROFESSOR CHRISTIANER EXPLAINS Why the Wedding Did Not Take Place or

Why the Wedding Did Not Take Place on Sunday Night as was Expected.

The article in yesterday's Constitution concerning the diappointment of the congregation at the Sixth Baptist church over the postponement of the Christianer-Jordan nuptials, created considerable talk through the city. That article read as follows:

Sunday night was the time set for the marriage, at the Sixth Baptist church, on Hunter street, of Miss Lydia Jordan to Professor Christianer, the musician on Haynes street. In expectation of witnessing the ceremony, quite a large andience gathered at the church. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Weaver, made his appearance in due time and preached an able semen, but neither bride not groom appeared nor was any reference made to them by the preacher. Every-body was astonished, but all the information the curious ones could get from the pastor was simply that the marriage was off. It is said that once before the time was set, and that the professor's courage was unequal to the demand. In the absense of other explanations the people that guess say that once more the professor has witted, and the only hope is to try, try again.

On yesterday Professor Christianer called at the office of The Constitution:

I wish to say, in deference to the Christian dignity and worth of Miss Jordan, that I called on her on Sabbath at 3 p. m. and the matter was satisfactorily arranged between us. And I had not made any positive engagement with Rev. Weaver to perform the ceremony. Respectfully. J. A. Christianer.

INCREASED THEIR PAY.

Augusta Policemen Happy—Augusta's Taxa Augusta, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—The city council tonight increased the pay of Augusta policemen $7 a month. The pay here-tofore has been: Chief, $1,200; two licutenants, $1,100; orderly sergeant, $900; privates, $600. The increase adds $60 to each salary. The city digest for this year reported to council tonight is twenty and a quarter millions. The Y. M. C. A. tonight purchased the lot corner of Green and Campbell streets diagonally across from the public building lot. They paid $9,000 for it, and will erect a handsome building there.

With some latitude curing a cold with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrap is called bullying a cold. ble Property-The Y. M. C. A.

COLORED POLITICS.

The Wards and Districts Elect Delegates.

plits in the First, Fourth and Sixth Wards

Republican politics are at a white heat. Last night the various wards and district elected delegates to the fifth district conven-tion which meets on the 27th, and the district convention will, in turn, elect a republican representative from this district to the national epublican convention.

The election in all the wards was close and exciting. The race for delegate to the national convention is between H. A. Rucker with J F. Thompson as alternate, and C. C. Wimbush with Jackson McHenry as alternate. The wards each elected six, and the districts three wards each elected six, and the districts since delegates to the district convention.

The first ward meeting was held at the Markham street Methodist church, and was called to order by Nick Holmes. It soon became evident that no election could be held and a compromise was out of the question, so Holmes and a number of Rucker men left and went to the Markham street Presbyterian church. The Wimbush crowd remained at the Metodist church, made John T. Schell the Metodist church, made John T. Schell chairman, and elected as delegates John T. Schell, Eli Martin, Richard Dorsey, J. S. Rivers, R. M. King, George T. Thrasher, all Wimbush men. The Nick Holmes party elected Alex Madison, Tom Cox, M.V. James, Waiter H. Łandrum, W. B. Turnsell and J. H. Towns, all Rucker men.

The second ward met at St. Paul's Methodist church, on Humphries street. Four Wimbush men, R. T, Davis, Arch Cary, Tom Thornton, and one other, were elected, and two men who are thought to be for Rucker, C. Jenkins and 'Squire Simmons. The election in this ward passed off without any serious disturbance.

The third ward went for Rucker and Thompson, and elected as delegates W. E. Day, Howard Jackson, A. W. Wright, G. D. McDonald, Martin Alexander, H. A. Rucker and J. F. Thompson.

The fourth ward went wild and split all to pieces. The meeting was held in the Thompson building on Wheat street.

The Rucker crowd got mad, left the meet-The Rucker crowd got mad, left the meeting in a body and went next door and held an enthusiastic opposition meeting. The regular meeting elected as delegates C. C. Wimbush, Jackson McHenry, A. D. White, S. W. Easley, Jr., Sandy Wordlaw and Henry, Williams, all Wimbush men. The opposition elected F. J. Wimberly, C. C. Cater, Stephen Jones, Steward Wiley, James Tate and Bob Steele, all Eucker were.

The fifth ward was carried by Wimbush and The fifth ward was carried by wimdness and McHenry, and the following delegates were elected: Henry McHenry, Charles McHenry, Sam T. Steele, A. Cushingen, J. M. Jones and Ham Hendy.

The sixth ward meeting was held in Mose

The sixth ward meeting was held in Mose Bentley's store, Corner East Baker and Calhoun. This is Rucker's own ward, and the fight was exceedingly bitter. An election was out of the question as long as the two factions staid together. The Rucker men virtually acknowledged defeat by leaving in a body. This left the coast clear for six Wimbush delegates: Z. B. Cargile, M. H. Bentley, G. W. Patillo, S. H. Jackson, Howard Horton and John H. Birem.

The fight last night really had no bearing upon the question of presidential preferences, as neither of the tickets announced any choice for that position. It was a personal as neither of the tickets announced any choice for that position. It was a personal affair altogether, and with just enough uncertainty to call out a vast deal of enthusiasm and bitterness from both sides. Present indications go to show that Wimbush and McHenry will have a majority of city delegates, and as each ward has six delegates while the districts have only three, this not likely that the result each ward has six delegates while the districts have only three, it is not likely that the result will be changed by returns from the country. It was admitted by both sides, yesterday, that the election in Fulton county virtually decided the contest, and in view of the fact that the Wimbush and McHenry ticket has to all apperance the best of the fight, it may be significant that the mass meeting in the courthouse about a week ago, which indorsed Wimbush and McHerny, gave a unanimous first choice for Blaine, with gave a unanimous first choice for Blaine, with Sherman a leading second chioce.

DEMOCRATIC CLANS GATHER. Meeting of the State Executive Committee

The democratic state executive committee will meet at the Markham house today.

The lobbies of the Kimball and the Markham were full of prominent politicians from all parts of the state last night. There were members of the committee, candidates for various offices, gentlemen who would be candidates if a proposity approached and politicians. dates if properly approached, and politicians rious offices, gentlemen who would be candidates if properly approached, and politicians who are here simply as spectators.

Among the more prominent of these were noticed Hon. B. H. Bigham, chairman of the state executive committee; ex-Senator John H. Traylor and Major A. D. Abrahams, of Troup; Senator C. R. Pringle, of Sandersville; Senator Roberts, Jake Dart, of Brunswick; Young Wright, of Butts county; Joe Terrell and Tom Atkinson, of Meriwether; Lavender Ray, of Coweta; Carter Tate. of Pickens, George Brown and William Newman, of Canton, ex-Senator Wynn, of Marietta, Pin Watson, of Douglas, H. W. J. Ham, of Hall, Larry Gantt and Dick Russell, of Athens, Joe McWhörter and Dr. Willingham, of Oglethorpe, R. M. Moss, of Harris, C. C. Smith, Judge Pate, P. C. Clegg, John L. Anderson, of Hawkinsville, J. L. Hardeman, of Macon, J. W. Forester, of Leesburg, W. A. Clements, of Telfair, and a number of others. It was the prevailing sentiment among these gentlemen last night that two conventions will be held, one to elect delegates to the national convention and the ether to choose electors. Some advocates of the one convention idea were found but it is safe to say that the comadvocates of the one convention idea

Some advocates of the one convention idea were found but it is safe to say that the committee will issue calls for two conventions.

The members of the committee are:
State at large—R. D. Spalding, Fulton; R. B. Nisbit, Putnam; Henry Persons, Talbot; W. R. Raukin, Gordon. Partick Walsh, member national committee and ex-oficio member of this.
First congressional district—George A. Mercer, Chatham; E. H. Crawley, Ware.
Second congressional district—O. B. Stevens, Terrell: W. A. Harris, Worth.

Chatnan; E. A. Crawley, ware.
Second congressional district—O. B. Stevens, Terrell; W. A. Harris, Worth.
Third congressional allstrict—W. H. Kimbrough,
Lee: A. S. Giles, Houston.
Fourth congressional district—W. B. Wilkinson, Coweta; C. A. Redd, Muscogee,
Fifth congressional district—W. D. Ellis, Fulton;
J. P. Tillie, Rockdale.
Sixth congressional district—H. B. Ridley, Jones;
J. A. Hunt, Pike.
Seventh congressional district—I. E. Shumate, J. A. Hunt, Pike.
Seventh congressional district—I. E. Shumate, Whitfield, D. B. Hamilton, Fi.yd.
Eighth congressional district—Hamilton McWhorter, Oglethorpe; J. T. Osborne, Eibert.
Ninth congressional district—T. E. Winn, Gwinnett, R. H. Baker, Lumpkin.
Tenth congressional district—T. I. McElmurry,
Burke; J. A. Robson, Washington.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. Will Flanders, who was hurt in the Air-Line wreek at Elberton on Monday, is con-fined to his his home on North Forsyth street. He received some rough bruises, but is rapidly

Dr. W. R. D. Thompson, so long and so well known in this city, is lying at his home in Fair street dangerously ill, and last night his death was momentarily expected. PERSONAL.

Bussey is shaping all kinds of ladies' and gents old hats and bonnets, with the latest spring styles, 2½ Marietta street. MR. P. M. COURTNEY and his bride arrived in the city last night from Richmond, Va., and are stopping with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Courtney, 24 Church street.

MR. B. J, King has returned to his home in this city, after an extended and pleasant trip through Texas. Being laid by with protracted sickness, I will state to my friends that they will confer a personal favor on me by calling on Dr, Browne when they need dental work.

J. A. Link.

MR. Tom Cobb Jackson has returned from a short trip to Florida.

MR. HARRY BOSLER, of New Orleans, who has been in Atlanta for several days, left resterday for St. Augustine, Fla., where he will be the guest of Mr. Franklyn W. Smith at his famous home, the Villa Zorayda.

Mr. CLYDE BOSTICE is back from Macon.

AT POLICE HEADQUARTERS.

The Con Mechan Case-The Waterwood Burglary-Five Tramps Pulled In. Con Mechan, the saloonist whose licens was revoked by the general council Monday, is having a time of it. Yesterday he was arraigned in police court, charged with doing business without license, and the city attorney had the case dismissed. Immediately, however, he had a case entered against Mechan charging him with selling spiritous and malt liquors without license. Colonel Arnold, who is Meehan's attorney, intends to make an ap-peal from the council's action, and fight the

They Got a Watch and Money, They Got a Watch and Money,
The burgiary at Mr. Haffey's residence, near the waterworks, night before last, was investigated by Policemen English and Jennings yesterday morning. The burgiars entered the house through a rear door and secured a gold watch, a pistol and $3 in change. The dogs were turned loose and ran a trail for some time, but no now was cantured. Diving the night a but no one was captured. During the night a small grocery store on Cain street and Fort was broken open and about $25 worth of groceries were carried off.

Four Whites and a Negro.

James Hagan, Theodore Gray, James Sullivan and Robert Brown, four white men, and Gus Brown, a negro, were arrested yesterday morning by Mounted Officers Steerman and Mercer. The five men have been loating around the East Tennessee shops for some time past, and complaint was made against them. They will be charged with vagrancy. Someone Stole His Watch.

Sandy Hunnicutt, an Atlantian, living on Plum street, has left at police headquarters the decription of a watch which was stolen from him night before last. While the family was at supper upon that evening a sneak thief entered the house and stole the watch from the bedroom.

He Has Been Brought Back. He Has Been Brought Back.

Ed Thomas, the negro who was implicated in the car breaking between Atlanta and Bolten some three weeks ago, and ran away to Tennessee, where he was arrested, was brought back to Atlanta last night by ex-Detective Cason and given a cell in the city prison. Thomas will be taken to jail this mornin g.

He Was Fined Twenty Dollars Andy Waits, the big butcher on Peters street, who set his house on fire Monday night and afterward attempted to whip Patrolman Abbott, was arraigned in police count yester-day morning. The evidence made a bad case against Waits, and Judge Anderson imposed a fine of $20. Waits paid the fine.

He Was Bound Over.

Emanuel Pinson, the negro who bit a piece from the cheek of another negro with whom he was fighting, night before last, was arraigned in police court yesterday morning. Judge Anderson imposed a fine of ten dollars and control of the court of the cost and required Pinson to give a two hundred dollar bond for an assault with intent to murder.

At the Salvation Army Ed Phillips, a young white fellow, was arrested last night by Patrolman Watkins. The arrest was requested by members of the Salvation Army, who claim that Phillips created a disturbance in the hall Saturday night.

Mary Smith, the negro woman who knocked a negro man in the head Monday night, fracturing his skull, was fined twenty dollars n police court yesterday morning.

*ATLANTA'S WATERWORKS. An Inspection of the New Storm Canal-

What is to be Seen.

Yesterday morning Messrs. H. C. Erwin, Joel Hurt, M. L. Collier, C. C. Hammock and W. M. Middlebrooks, of the board of water commissioners, Mr. W. G. Richards, Mr. R. M. Clayton and others visited the waterworks to inspect the workings of the new waterworks to inspect the workings of the new storm canal.

The storm dam at the reservoir is ten feet wide, and the drive over gives a fine view of what may be in the future the central park of Atlanta. The waterworks own 368 acres of land, 52 acres of which are covered by water. The dam completely shuts off water from the East Tennessee shops and Clark university, and protects the reservoir from contamination. and protects the reservoir from contamination. The elevation of the stand pipe 18 inches The elevation of the stand pipe 18 inches has increased the storage capacity of the reservoir 21,000,000 gallons, and yesterday the engine was working against 320 feet head of water. This addition to the storage of water involved an expenditure of less than $100.

The storm canal is 3,500 feet long, 14 feet wide at the bottom, 8 feet deep, with a fall of one foot. A rock arch, 14 feet span and 26 feet deep, snan the canal. The water flows with deep, span the canal The water flows with great velocity, and is clear.

Near by is a quarry of granite, said to be of excellent quality, and in almost inexhaustible quantity.

The work of rewashing the water in the fil The work of rewashing the water in the filter is an interesting spectacle. Huge volumes of mingled water, sand and coke pour into a vast bin until a sea of gory hue is spread out before the looker on. Beneath this is the alum chamber with a capacity of 800 pounds of alum, through which the water is forced and precipitated in the form of spray into a column of water ascending above. The sand and coke come up from the bottom of the filter. As the alum water, which is mixed at the rate of half a grain of alum to one gallon of water. of half a grain of alum to one galion of water, gets into the vat, its work can be readily de-tected. The clear water is seen on the surface; underneath, like huge clouds, can be seen the agulated and sinks to the bottom. The water is clear of alum, mud and all impurities. The alum is used on the same principle that quick-silver is used to collect the finer gold.

Finally, the mud collected by the alum is co-agulated and sinks to the bottom. The water

The clear basin contains 360,000 gallons of water. At the depth of twenty feet a silver dime can be clearly seen in sunshine or moonshine.

Just below the clear water basin a pipe discharges water strongly impregnated with iron, cold and delicious. It comes from a spring in the northwest coruer of the dam through pipes laid down years ago by John A. Grant.

Death of an Old Citizen. COLUMBUS, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—Yesterday, at 12 o'clock, Mr. E. Winslow, one of the oldest and most prominent citizens, of Greenville, breathed his last. Mr. Winslow was among the first settlers of the town having been a resident since 1851.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

The electric lights were on and off last John Ryan's Sons are putting in a handsome late glass front. The electric storm last night caused the elephones to have a short rest.

telephones to have a short rest.

Messrs. Bruce & Morgan, our popular architects, are calling for bids on the Jasper court house, thus adding another to the list of fine court houses hey have planned throughout the state.

Will Turner, colored, is a young darky who was bound over yesterday in Judge Manning's court for forgery. The evidence against him was an order on Mr. R. I., Dedge, on Marietta street, and signed by Mr. Bob Carmichael, 322 West Mitchell. The boy presented this order and obtained about three dollars' worth of goods. Mr. Dedge began to think, and finally ascertained that Mr. Carmichael did not live at 322 West Mitchell. The darky was arrested. He says that he did not write the order himself, as he can neither read nor write, but that it was written by a darky from Birmingham, and the goods obtained were divided between them.

The Rev. H. A. Tupper, of the Broadway Baptist church, of Louisville, Ky., has reached Atlanta, and last night and the night before he assisted Dr. Hawthorne in the meeting in the First Baptist church. Monday night he preached a remarkably fine sermon, and last night his discourse was equally as good. He was heard closely by large congregations. Dr. Tupper is an earnest man, and a gifted speaker. His methods are direct and his arguments convincing. He never falls to arouse enthusiasm in any congregation he addresses. Ho is a great organizer and knows how to manage his forces after they are organized. Dr. Hawthorne finds him an able ally. These meetings in the First Baptist church are exceedingly interesting and good crowds attend them. Two meetings are held daily, one at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and the other at 7 o'clock in the evening. The music is congregational, the gospel hymns being used. Members of any church or no church are cordially invited to attend their meetings.

FROM A THIRD STORY.

A Woman Has a Long, Hard Tumble.

Which May Result in Death-After Fall She Walks Away and Drops Over-Her Condition.

Lizzie Hudson, a weman who has been an outcast for years, is at the Ivy street hospital in a dying condition, because of a fall she had

The woman dropped out of a third story

Lizzie Hudson was once a woman of beauty and refinement and was well known in Atlanta. Years ago, however, she went astray and from that day on has been going down and down. A fondness for liquor gave her a notoriety in police circles and aided in the rapid destruction of her beauty. Recently she has been living on the third floor of the Ryan building, corner Broad and Mitchell street, in a single room. Yesterday afternoon just be-fore dark she raised a window and seated hera single room. Yesterday afternoon just before dark she raised a window and seated herself in it. There she sat until after dark without attracting the attention of any one. Soon after dark, however, she dropped out of the window and fell upon an awning over the sidewalk, and from the awning rolled to the ground. A gentleman standing upon the corner saw the fall and rushed towards the woman expecting to find her dead, but as he reached her, she arose and started off. The gentleman was surprised and stood watching! the woman until she disappeared around the counter. Then he stepped out fifte the street and glancing up at the window began studying.

Soon after the woman walked around the corner, and while the gentleman was yet measuring with his eyes the distance from the third story window to'the sidewalk, Patrolmen Aldridge and Lackey walked down Mitchell street, and near the corner of Broad found a woman lying upon the ground. At first, they supposed she was drunk, but a short examination showed that she was unconscious. The officers both knew the woman, and in looking about, to ascertain the cause of her condition, came in contact with the gentleman who had seen the fall. From him they learned the story, and then procuring a hack they sent the woman to the Ivy street hospital. Physicians at the hospital gave her a careful examination and pronounced her condition critical. Internal injuries were detected, and during the evening the woman continued to sink.

The cause of the woman's fall is not known. continued to sink

The cause of the woman's fall is not known. It is believed, however, that she went to sleep while sitting in the window and dropped out

JUDGE KING'S FUNERAL.

The Remains to Lie in State-Appointment

OI Fall-Bearers.

Augusta, Ga., March 20.—[Special.]—The funeral of Judge John P. King will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from St. Paul's church. The remains will be brought in from the country home of Judge King at 10 o'clock in the morning, and will lie in state until the funeral hour. when they can be o'clock in the morning, and will lie in state until the funeral hour, where they can be viewed by friends of the deceased.

The following well known gentlemen will act as pall-bearers: Joseph B. Cummings. C. C. Jones, T. F. Branch, Charles Estes, T. G. Barrett, F. H. Miller, W. W. Montgomery, Joseph Sibley, Alfred Baker, Joseph Ganahl, G. G. McWhorter, Patrick Walsh, Porter Fleming, W. H. T. Walker, R. A. Reab, C. H. Phintzy, Stewart Phinizy, H. H. Steiner, D. E. S. Ford, W, F. Eve and W. T. Richards.

The casket will be borne by the colored servants of Judge King and these gentlement will be honorary pall bearers. Rev. Chaunce, C. Williams will conduct the services.

Two great euemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly deeated by the peculiar medicine.

The Value of a Slow Horse. om the Sylvania, Ga., Telephone. From the Sylvania, Ga., Telephone.

An incident occurred a few days ago which proves that a slow horse is not such undestrable property as may be imagined. Two mail carriers leave Sylvania for the inland postoffices at about the same hour every Friday morning. Last Friday one of the carriers left about 7 o'clock, and had been gone half an hour when it was discovered by the other carrier that he had taken the wrong pouch. He jumped on his horse and went after the departing carrier, overtaking him just one mile and a half out of town.

Thirty Pounds of Babies,

From the Dublin, Ga., Gazette.
Mrs. Howell, wife of Mr.C. I. Howell, living ackeye, on Friday last gave birth to three pounds and are as fine and healthy looking babies as can be found anywhere.

the Sumter, Ga., Republica We learn that a large number of farmers are plowing up their corn preparatory to replant-

Because the Revenue Spy is Watching. From the Catoosa, Ga., Courier.

We would like to ask our farmers, why to-bacco raising would not pay better than raising

ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

cotton.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in 60m-petition with the multitude of low test short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in eans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., New York.

At Wholesale by Wyly & Greene, Atlanta, Georgia.

BASEBALL YESTERDAY.

Washington Again Defeats Birmingham—
The League Meeting.
Yesterday's game between Washington and Birmingham was more enjoyable than that of Monday as both teams "played bell."
Dailey and Deasley did the battery work for Washington, while Gibson and Springer officiated in the same capacity for Birmingham. Both pitchers made good impressions. Dailey is one of the best now in the National league, and Gibson bids fair to be one of the best in the Southern league. Gibson was warmly cheered by Atlanta friends when he struck out three men in one inning.

The SCORE.

WASHINGTON.

BIRMINGHAM.

B BH FO A B
Wilmot, IR B B FO A B
Wilmot, IR B O O O O D 1 1

WASHINGTON.

BIRMINGHAM.

B BH FO A E

Wilmot, If. 0 1 0 0 0 Curtis, rf. 0 0 1 1 1

Hoy, m. 2 2 1 0 0 Bailey, If. 0 1 0 0 0

O'Brien, Ib. 1 1 4 0 0 Lynch, Ib. 0 1 5 0 0

Daly, p. 1 2 0 6 0 Duffee, cf. 1 1 3 0 1

Shock, ss. 1 1 2 0 0 Burks, 3b. 0 1 2 0 0

Dealsy, c. 1 1 6 2 1 Bittman, 2b. 1 1 1 3 0

Irwin, 3b. 1 1 2 1 0 Cahill, ss. 0 0 3 2 1

Gardner, 2b 0 0 1 1 1 Springer, c. 0 0 3 1 0

O'Day, rf. 1 1 2 0 0 Gibson, p. 0 0 0 3 1

Total 8 10 18 10 2 Total 2 5 18 10 4
By innings:
Washington 5 0 1 0 0 2 8
Birmingham 0 0 0 2 0 0 2
Two base hits—Hoy, Duffee, Burks.
Umpire—Tom Sullivan, of Birmingham.
The Washington club caught an early train for Jacksonville, where they will play several games. The Birmingham players left last night for home.

About Atlanta's Prospects.

Today it will probably be decided whether there is any hope of Atlanta's going into the southern league.

Baseball players throughout the country have been crying "poor Atlants, she can't raise enough money for a ball club!"

It is to be hoped that Atlanta will show her old-time grit, and come up smiling with a good club.

A Question.

Entrops Construction: Is a runner entitled to a base on a pass ball. For instance, if a runner was on third base and the ball passes the catcher and hits the fence, is the runner entitled to the run, or gan he be put out while attempting to make home?

make home?

He is entitled to the run if he can score it.

He can be put out while attempting to score. cocoa.

COCHETA COCHETA Easily digested; of the finest flavor. A hearty beverage for a strong appetite; a delicate drink for the sensitive. Theroughly tested; nutritious; pal-atable; unexcelled in purity; no unpleasant after effects. Requires no boiling. BOWLES & WEILLE, Agents, 53% E. Alabama street.

Marion Harland, Christine Terbune Herriek, Dean A. R. Thomas, M. D., procounce it the best of all she powdered chocolates. No other equals it in flavor, purity and anti-dyspeptic qualities. Sold by Grocers. Sample mailed for 10 stamps For Sale by Mathe ws & Gregory, Marietta St. H. O. WILBUR & SONS PHILADELPHIA, PA.

AMUSEMENTS. OPERA HOUSE Thursday, March 22d, MR. JOSEPH JEFFERSON

WILL APPEAR IN RIP VAN WINKLE

The sale of seats begins Thursday morning, March 5th, at Miller's Book Store. Prices, $1.50, $1.00 and 50c. mch11 12 13 14 15 18 21 22

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MARCH 28, 24. Engagement of

MR. COGHLAN,

AND HER OWN COMPANY .--Friday Night, Her Latest Success, AS IN A LOOKING GLASS!

A WIFE'S PERIL Prices: $1.50, $1.00, 50c. Sale of seats at Miller's mch17 18 19 21 23 24 MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 26TH.

THE ATLANTA ARTILLERY has the honor to

Saturday Night,

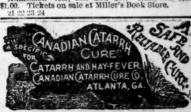

announce the first and only appearance during the present season of the FAMOUS BOSTON STARE,

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 27TH-

Comprising the following Eminent Artists: MEDORA HENSON-EMERSON, The Distinguished American Soprano.

> The Greatest Cornet-Player Living, RUDOLPH KING,

NELLA F. BROWN, The Most Gifted and Popular American Reade Positively the Grandest Musical and Literary O z ganization in the Country. Admission-75c., 50c. and 25c. Reserved seats $1.00. Tickets on sale at Miller's Book Store.

Harrione, Ga., September 15, 1887.

Canadian Catarrh Cure Co.:

Gentlamen—My wife was a great sufferer with Catarrh for over two years. She has been a little troubled ever since she was a child with the disease. About two years ago we were in Mississippi, and while there she was a taken down with catarrhal fever; we had three of the best physicians we could get. They broke the fever and left her the worst case of catarrh of the head I ever saw. Her nower an profusely, and for a year I despaired of her ever an profusely, and for a year I despaired of her ever getting well. I tried several doctors and they could not cure her, and used every catarrh femedy I could hear of. I spent over $50 the past year for remedies, and all to no effect. At last it became so offensive that you could hardly remain where she was. If offered $1,000 to any doctor who would cane hap (and that would have left us homeless), but I would not have cared for that if she could only be cured. We saw an advertisement in the Atlanta Constitution of "Canadian Catarrh Cure," and thought we would try it, and went to your office, when you gave my vife a small sample bottie of your remedy, and told us to come and get a large bottle when that was out. I bought the farge bottle, and before she had used all of the bottle she was entirely well, and her health fully restored, and now does more work than any woman I know. She used the medicine over six months ago, and there has not been the sightest return or the disease. I hope everybody that has catarrh may find you and be cured. I am a traveling man and have told a great many dyour wonderful cure. Yours truly,

Dr. J. W. Calin & Son, druggists, of Gaincaville, Ga, on September 16, 1857, writes: "Sond by ax-

Dr. J. W. Celin & Son, druggists, of Gainesville, Ga., on September 16, 1887, writes: "Send by ax-press one dozen Catarrh Cure. Two bottles cured a case of fifty years standing. We have hundreds of testimonials like the a send for our book of information.

Large size bottles, $1; small, 50c.

If your druggist does not keep it send direct '
CANADIAN CATAREH CURE C'

H Hunfer Street.

TIAN

TI YOU will call at office we will

Habouth

CENTRAL RAILROAD. ATLANTA AND WEST POINT RAILROAD. a Montg ry* .7 20 a m To Montgomery* 2 00 p m Montg ry* .1 25 p m To Columbus* ... 6 40 p m To Montgomery* 2 100 pm To Montgomery* .12 00 pm GEORGIA RAILEOAD.

GEORGIA RAILROAD.

Augusta* .630 a m To Augusta* .800 a m
Covington* 755 a m To Decatur .900 a m
Decatur .10 15 a m To Clarkston .1210 pm
Augusta* .100 pm To Augusta* .245 pm
Clarkston .220 pm To Covington .615 pm
Augusta* .545 pm To Augusta* .900 pm
Decatur .450 pm To Decatur .400 pm (Richmond and Danville Railroad,) Alla 8.55 am "To Charlotte. 7 40 am Charlotte. 12 20 pm To Lula. 4 30 pm Charlotte. 9 40 pm "To Charlotte. 6 00 pm GEORGIA PACIFIC RAILROAD. From Starkville.5 15 a m/To Birming'm..1 25 pm From Tallapoosa.8 50 a m/To Tallapoosa....5 00pm *From Birm'g'm.5 45 pm/*To Starkville....11 00 pm CLARKSTON TRAINS-Daily except Sunday.

*Daily—†Daily except Sunday—†Sunday only All other trains daily except Sunday. Central time

W. H. PATTERSON, Bond and Stock Broker. 24 SOUTH PRYOR STREET. FOR SALE.

Atlanta and West Point Railroad stock, Atlanta City bonds, America, Freston and Lumpkin Railroad bonds. State of Georgia flonds. Georgia Railroad bonds. Atlanta Gas Light Company stock.

THE GATE CITY NATIONAL BANK Of Atlanta, Ga.

-UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY .-Capital and Undivided Profits, $375,000.

Issues Certificates of Deposit Payable on De-mand with Interest Three per cent per annum if left four

Four per cent per annum if left six months. 41 per cent per annum if left twelve

NORTH SIDE SAVINGS BANK

No. 7 Pryor Street. DOES A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS, Accounts of manufacturers, country merchants and tarmers received. Accommodations extended as far as consistent to sound banking. We draw drafts payable in all parts of Europe, pay interest on special deposits and make collections on all parts of be United States and Canada.

CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED

CAPITAL CITY OF ATLANTA, GA., COR, WHITEHALL AND ALABAMA STS

Capital and Undivided Profits, $452,000. A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS ---) TRANSACTED (-- collections made direct on all points in the United tates and remitted for promptly. Particular attenments of the United Section of Bankers, Merchants and Manufacturers are pectfully solicited. Special feature made of the avings' Department. Interest paid on time deposits.

HUMPHREYS CASTLEMAN Bond and Stock Broker, 12 East Alabama Street.

FOR SALE.

2,000 shares Tallapoosa Land, Mining and Manufacturing Company stock.

THE TOLLESON COMMISSION CO.

A little higher in price, but of unrivalled quality.

DRESSMAKING MISS A. VAN DUSEN

Yraps and Costumes. SMAKING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES West 46th St., NEW YORK, Finance and Commerce.

Bonds, Stocks and Money.

CONSTITUTION OFFICE.
ATLANTA, March 20, 1883.
New York exchange buying at 1/4 premium and

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Stocks as Reported at the New York Stock Exchange. NEW YORK, March 20.—The stock market to-day was quiet, but weak from the opening to the close, without reaction worthy of name at any time, and prices over the entire list are materially lower and prices over the entire list are materially lower tonight. All interest centered in Gould stocks, and under lead of the Missouri Pacific they led the market throughout. The bears circulated rumors and assertions in regard to dividends, which had very disquieting effect upon holders, and while buying was stopped entirely, much long stock came. The bears and traders were not slow to take advantage of this, and free offerings for short account aided decline. Standard oil brokers sold Western Union and later in the day Tayer Pacific becomes aided decline. Standard Oil brokers sold Western Union, and later in the day Texas Pacific became a special object of attack, and yielded rapidly. There was some foreign buying, but the pressure of domestic stock completely neutralized the influence of this interest, and a tendency to advance was quickly smothered at the opening. Outside of the Gould stocks, Reading, Lackawanna Union Pacific and St. Paul were most conspicuous, and the pressure against the last named stock was very heavy at times, but the impression made upon it was entirely insignificant. Others, however, displayed considerable weakness, and tonight are materially lower, but the general list was very duli, and without feature for most of the day. The close and without feature for most of the day. The close was quiet, but weak, at or near the lowest prices reached. The total sales were 145,000 shares.

Exchange dull but steady at 496@48, Monoy easy at 23/@8, closing offered at 3. Subtreasury balances: Coin $129,827,000; currency, $12,435,000. Governments dull but steady; 45 125%; 43/s 1063/s. State heads needed as 1250/s.

bonds neglected.
Ala. Class A 2 to 5	105	N. O. Pac. 1st N. Y. Central	76
do Class B 5s	168	N. Y. Central	1043
Ga. 7s mortgage	10514	Norfolk & W'n pre	433
N. C. 68	120	Northern Pacific	201
do. 48	94	do, preferred	433
F. C. con. Brown.		Pacific Mail	331
Tenn, settlement 3s.		Reading	603
Virginia 68	48	Rich, & Alleghany.	5
Virginia consols		Richmond & Dan	_
Chesap'ke & Ohio			215
Chicago & N. W		Rock Island	111
		St. Paul.	757
		do. preferred
Brie		Texas Pacific	213
East Tenn., new		Tenn, Coal & Iron	27
Lake Shore		Union Pacific	525
	521	V I Control	783
L&N Memphis&Char	691	N. J. Central Missouri Pacific	813
Mobile & Ohio		Western Union	1743
N. & C		Cotton oil trust cert.	291
TEX-dividen	d.	tOffered. [Ex-rigi	TIME

THE COTTON MARKETS.

CONSTITUTION OFFICE, ATLANTA, March 20 1888 Net receipts for 3 days 19,706 bales, against 26,598 lales last year; exports 87,588 bales; last year 54,490 sales; stock 726,657 bales; last year 608,099 bales.

9.81@10.84 9.85@ 9.87 9.95@ 9.96 .10.04@	9.65@ 9.67 9.70@ 9.71 9.80@ 9.81
. 9.85@ 9.87 . 9.95@ 9.96
. 9.95@ 9.96	9 80@ 9 81
10.010
.1U.U190	9.89@ 9.90
.10.09@10.10	9.95@ 9.96
.10.14@	10.00@10.01
, 9.80@ 9.81	9.68@ 9.70
. 9.60.@ 9.61	9.53@ 9.51
. 9,49@ 9.51	9.42@ 9.43
. 9.49@ 9.51	9.43@ 9.44
9.56@	9.51@ 9.52
	10.149

By wagon
Air-line Railroad.
Georgia Railroad.
Central Railroad.
Western and Atlantic Railroad.
West Point Railroad.
East Teunessee, Va. and Ga. Railroad. . 102,649 Grand total... 102,730

93,883 Stock on hand... The following is o 8,817 The following is our comparative statement:
Receipts today
Same time last year.
Showing a decrease of.
Receipts since September 1 18
Same time last year. 1
Showing a decrease of 19
Showing a decrease of 19
Showing a decrease of 19

NEW YORK, March 20-Hubbard, Price & Co. in their circular today, say: The market started off with a pretty steady showing at about last night's figures. As the day wore on, however, it became figures. As the day wore on, however, it became evident that long cotton was being freely supplied to all bidders, and the market rapidly broke, without any serious reaction, until 9,95 for August contracts was reached, and, although prices reacted some 495 points at the close, the feeling tonight is feverish and unsettled. The announcement late in the day that Messrs. W. T. Miller & Co., one of the oldest houses in the trade here, were unable to meet their obligations contributed much to the general feeling of distrust prevailing.

The New Orleans Report.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 20.—[Special.]—
Liverpool was a little easier today but prices are unchanged, while New York at close shows prices 13@ 15 lower than yesterday. Our market is 11@12 down. Wire service with New York was very poor throughout the day and news from there was meagre. The general opinion is that the decline was started by the unloading of longs held in New York by a southern house, which was unable to protect them with margins. Bears helped the downward movement, and stop orders thus brought out assisted materially in depressing further until a decline of over 20 points had been established. Covering by bears toward the close induced a reaction of 566 from the lowest market, closing there irregular and firm, while ours is barely steady at an improvement of 3@4 from the lowest.

is barely steady at an improvement of 3@4 from the lowest.

New York wires since close that the heavy failure there was the main cause of weakness, coupled with the consequent heavy sales of long cotton. Receipts at all ports today are 6,900, against 12,700 last year, of which our receipts foot up 4,100 bales, made up largely of country compressed cotton; on through shipment interior movement shows a loss and points to a total of 12,000 for the week, while ports for the same time are expected to get 38,000. Spots were in good demand at the 1-16 reduction and alies are 7,000 today. Futures close barely steady April 9,239.25, May 9,339.31, June 9,679.33, July 9,439.46. August 9,449.45, September 8,908.7 November 8,838.86.

By Telegraph.

LIVERPOOL, March 20—12:15 p. m.—Cotton dull and cenerally in buyers favor; middling uplands 5%; middling orieans 5 7-16; sales 8,000 balest speculation and export 1,000; receipts 25,000; American 25,500; uplands low middling clause March and April delivery 5 18-6; April and May delivery 5 19-64; May and June delivery 5 21-64; June and July delivery and June delivery 5 21-64; June and July delivery 5 22-64; July and August delivery 5 28-64; August and September delivery 5 21-64; futures opened quiet.

LIVERPOOL, March 20—230 p.m.—Sales of American 6,900 bales; uplands low middling/clause March delivery 5 19-64, sellers; March and April delivery 5 19-64, sellers; March and April delivery 5 19-64, sellers; August and September 5 24-64, buyers; July and August deliverery 5 21-64, buyers; July and August deliverery 5 21-64, buyers; August and September 5 24-64, hayers; September and October delivery 5 16-64, buyers; futures steady.

LIVERPOOL, March O-4:00 p.m.—Uplands low middling clause March delivery $ 19-64, sellers; March and April delivery $ 19-64, sellers; April and May delivery $ 19-64, toyers: May and June delivery $ 4-64, sellers; June and July delivery $ 22-64, buyers; July and August delivery $ 24-64, sellers; September delivery $ 4-64, sellers; September and October delivery $ 16-64, sellers; September and October delivery $ 16-64, sellers; September delivery $ 24-68, sellers; grous 2,9:56; consolidated net receipts 19:22; gross 2,9:56; consolidated net receipts $ 6,9:63; exports to Great Britain 1,8:7; stock —. GALVESTON, March 20—Cotton nominal; middling 9%; net receipts 301 bales; gross 304; stock 23,447; sales 855; exports coastwise 117.

BALTIMORE, March 20—Cotton quiet; middling 10%; net receipts 103 bales; gross 304; stock 23,447; sales 855; exports coastwise 117.

BALTIMORE, March 20—Cotton quiet; middling 10%; net receipts 183 bales; gross 1,601; sales none; stock 18,416; sales to spinners —.

BOSTON, March 20—Cotton quiet; middling 10%; not receipts 183 bales; gross 1,601; sales none; stock nobe; exports to Great Britain 1,887.

WILMINGTON, March 20—Cotton quiet; middling 10%; not receipts 183 bales; gross 1,601; sales none; stock nobe; exports to Great Britain 1,887.

PHILADELPHIA, March 20—Cotton quiet; mid-dling 9%; net receipts 20; bales; gross 227; sales none; stock 20,197.

NEW ORLEANS, March 20—Cotton easy; middling 9 7-16; net receipts 4,162 bales; gross 4,862; sales 7,600; stock 266,726. MOBILE, March 20—Cotton nominal: middling 9½; net receipts 36 bales; gross 36; sales none; stock 25,938; exports coastwise 300. MEMPHIS, March 20—Cotton quiet and easy; mid-dling 9 9-16; net receipts Z73 bales; shipments 25; sales 700; stock 96,876.

AUGUSTA, March 20—Cotton dull; middling 99/6; net receipts 136 bales; shipments —; sales 98. CHARLESTON, March 20—Cotton steady; middling 93-16; net receipts 319 bales; gross 319; sales 200; stock 19,930.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Features of the Speculative Movement in Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, March 20—[Special.]—There was more than usual activity in wheat today. At the opening some favorable bull cables were posted, and the weather predictions caused some buying. The feeling soon changed, however, and sellers were in the majority. From New York came a report that the beers were indifferent shout the weather and for. bears were indifferent about the weather and forbears were indimerent acoust the weather an ion-eign complications, and were pounding the market some. The big traders here began selling, and oth-ers began offering largely without selling much. The market weakened 3/c in about an hour from the best price of the morning. May isold at 75% to open, and, after touching 7% c, went down to 77%. Then some of the sellers turned buyers and there was a slight rally to 78% c. Again, before the close, the bears made another raid, and the price went to Try₄c. After the close May was offered on the curb at 77½c, and the market looks very weak. 'Receipts for Wednesday are estimated at 56 cars against 14

Local receipts of corn today were 468 cars-a fair amount, but less than the estimate. The estimate for Wednesday was 420 cars. The market opened about fairly strong, and early prices were about $4c better than the close last night. It was a bear day, however, and corn was on the down grade with other cereals. The more extensive traders took a hand, and when their selling weakened the market sufficiently a large lot of corn came out, and there was a slight break before the close. May sold early at 51%c, and before the 1 o'clock at 50%c, closing for the day at 50%c bid. June sold down to 50%c, but at 1 o'clock was 50%c, closing at 50%c. 30%c.

Oats were weaker and a shade lower. This was due mainly to the weakness in the other markets There was not much pressure to sell oats. May opened at 51c and closed at 305.68 3034.

Although the arrivals of logs were fair and prices 50c higher, the market for the product dragged, and values averaged lower in sympathy with wheat and corn. Offerings were not large, and the only de-mand came from shorts who were closing up their trades, and prices were confined to 71/c range, and closed at inside figures, showing a fractional decline rom yesterday. Lard exhibited more activity tha other articles, and May sold at 7.55@7.60, and closed 7.571/2 May short ribs sold at 7.20@7.221/2 Shippers took 6,000 cash lard, and exporter; bought boxe i meat quite freely, and have taken 4,500 boxes within a week.

The following was the range in the leading future in Chicago today:
WHEAT— Opening Highest Closin 7812 7812 7878 - 7 221/4 7 211/4 - 7 30 7 30 7 20

PROVISIONS, GRAIN, ETC. CONSTITUTION OFFICE

ATLANTA, March 20, 1833 ATLANTA, March 20, 1333.

Flour. Grain and Meal.

NEW YORK, March 20—Flour, southern dull; common to fair extra $3.30($\frac{3}{3}.50$); good to choice $4.10 ($\frac{3}{3}.90$). Wheat, spot declited $\frac{1}{2}\text{\phi}\text{\ph (as7%. Corn, southern firmer; white; 57@58; yellow 554%58.

ST. LOUIS, March 20—Flour firm. Wheat closed ½c lower; No. 2 red fall cash 82; May 82½@22½; June 80½@81½. Corn, No. 2 mixed cash 40½; May 45½@60½; June 40½. Oats week; No. 2 mixed cash 30½@80½; May 25½.

CHICAGO, March 20—Cash quotations were as follows; Flour steady; winter wheat $3.90@44.30; spring wheat $3.40@4.25; spring patent $3.50@44.90. No. 2 spring wheat 73@76; No. 8 do. —; No. 2 red 31. No. 2 corn 49½. No. 2 cots 27½.

CINCINNATI, March 20—Flour steady; family $3.40@83.0; fancy 31.75@83.90. Wheat weaker: No. 2 red 86; Corn, No. 2 mixed 53@58½. Oats barely steady: No. 2 mixed 333@833½.

LOUISVILLE, March 20—Grain steady. Wheat, No. 2 red 86; longberry 88. Corn, No. 2 mixed 52; do. white 54½. Oats, new No. 2 mixed 53%; do. white 54½.

Groceries.

ATLANTA, March 20—Coffee—Lower and in good demand. We quote: Choice 18c; prime 18c; good 17c; fair 18c; low grade 18c. Bugar — Cut loaf 8c; powdered 8c; standard granulated 7%c; standard A 7%c; extra C 7c; yellow extra C 6%c. Syrups—New Orleans choice 50@35c; prime 3@35c; common 20@25c. Teas—Black 30%60c; green 35@60c. Nutnegs 75c; Cloves 35c. Allspice 12%c. Cinnamon 12c. Sago 50c. Ginger 18c. Mace 60c. Pepper 20c. Crackers—Milk 7c; Boston butter 8c; pearl oyster 7%c. X sods 5c; XXX 40. 5%c. Candy—Assorted stick 9c. Mackerel — No. 3l bbls 315.00 extes. Candles — Full weight 11c. Matches — Round wood 9 gross $1.15; 9 200 $2.50; 9 3.60; 9 400 $4.50. Sods—in regs 4%c; in boxes 5%c. Rhoice 6%c; prime 6c; fair 5%c. Sait—Virginia 75a. Cheese—Cream 14c: factory 18c.

NEW ORLEANS, March 20—Coffee lower; Ric eargos common to prime 12% 61%c. Sugar quiet and steady; Louisiana open kettle choice 5; strictly prime 4%c fully fair to prime 4 13-16; fully fair 4 9-1666 4%; fair to good fair 4 9-1666 4%; fair to good fair 4 9-1666 4%; choice white 6%; foods—plantation granulated 6%; choice white 6%; of white 6 1-16%6%; choice yellow clarified 5%; prime do. 5%c off do. 5 13-10; seconds 4 4%c 4 16. Molasses steady; open kettle fancy 38; choice 33@55; stractly prime 28c 3%; good prime 28c, prime 18c 26c; prime 21@25; common 28; fair to good fair 18@20; common to good common 14@11; centrifugals strictly prime 20@22; prime to good prime 18; fair to good fair 16@17; inferior to good oprime 18; fair to good fair 16@17; inferior to good common 14@11. Louisiana ordinary to prime 40.600; and 18c 200; and 200; a

NEW YORK, March 20—Coffee fair Rio dull at 18%; optiods, No. 7 Rio March 10 000 10.30; April 9.96 (910.00; May 9.8699.90; June 9.7009.90. Bagar quiet and steady; centrifugal $ 18-32; fair to good refining 4 18-16; refined steady; C 3/26/35/2 extra C 3/68 11-16; reline 3%; of A 5-46/6; mould A 7; standard A 6%; confectioners A 6%; out leaf and crushed 3%; powdered 7; granulated 6%; oubset 7. Moissess firm; 60-test 20%. Elos seedy; domestic 4/26/36.

ST. LOUIS, March 20—Provisions weak. Pork $14.15. (684.125. Lard 7.30. Dry sait meats, boxed lots shoulders 6.00; long clear 7.12%; clear ribs 7.25; short clear 7.4067.15. Bacon, boxed shoulders 6.50; long clear 7.87%; short ribs 7.9367.35; short clear 8.12268.25; hams 1036612.

7.87%; short ribs 7.97%7.35; short clear 8.12%8.25; hams 10½402.

NEW YORK, March 20—Pork dull, weak and wholly nominal; one year old mess $14.75\(\tilde{8}\)15.00; new, $15.00\(\tilde{8}\)15.25; Middles nominal. Lard moderately active, closing weak; western steam spot 7.92\(\tilde{6}\)7.7%; May 7.77\(\tilde{6}\)7.50; June 7.82\(\tilde{6}\)7.92; city steam 7.65; refined to continent 7.90.

LOUISVILLE, March 20—Porvisionssteady, Bacon, clear rib sides 7.90; clear sides 8.50; aboulders 6\(\tilde{6}\), Bulk meats, clear rib sides 7.30; clear sides 8.60; aboulders 6\(\tilde{6}\), Bulk meats, clear rib sides 7.30; clear sides 8.60; partly cured shoulders 5\(\tilde{6}\), Mess pork $14.75. Hams, sugar-cured 11\(\tilde{6}\)60 (12\(\tilde{6}\)60, March 20—Cash quotations were as follows: Mess pork $14.00. Lard 7.52\(\tilde{6}\), Short ribs loose 7.12\(\tilde{6}\)7.13. Dry salted shoulders oxced 6.00\(\tilde{6}\)60.10; short clear sides boxed 7.65\(\tilde{6}\)7.70.

ATLANTA. March 20—The following are ruling cash prices today: Clear rib sides 8\(\tilde{6}\), Sugar-cured hams 12\(\tilde{6}\)613\(\tilde{6}\), Lard — Pure leat, tierces 10c; refined 8c.

CINCINNATI, March 20—Pork steady at $14.50. Colorado, California and the Northwest.

refined 8c. CINCINNATI, March 2) —Pork steady at $14.50. Lard steady at 7.50. Bulk meats steady; short ribs —; short clear 8½.

Naval Stores.

WILMINGTON, March 20—Turpentine steady at 34½; rosin steady; strained 82½; good strained 87½; tar firm at $1.10; crude turpentine firm; hard $1.00; yeilow dip $2.00; virgin $2.90. SAVANNAH, March 20-Turpentine 351/4 asked; rosin firm at $1.02½, CHARLESTON, March 20—Turpentine quiet at 35; rosin quiet; good strained 85. NEW YORK, March 20—Rosin dull at $1.20@$1.22½;

Fruits and Confectioneries.

ATLANTA, March 29— Apples — $4.75@$5.00 m
bbl. Lemons—$3.75@$4.25. Oranges—$4.25.85.35.
Cocoanuts—5c. Pineapples—$2.20 m dog. Bananas—
Selected $1.75@$2.00; grapes $7.50 m barrel.
Figs — 13@18c. Raisins — New London $8.25;
½ boxes $1.75; ½ boxes $9c. Curants—77%@$2.
Leghorn citron—27c. Almonds—19c. Pecans—10@
14c. Brazil—10@11c. Filberts—12½c. Walnuts—
13c. Dried Fruit—Sundried apples $1%@14c, sundried peaches $4@10c; sundried peaches pealed 11c.

Hardware.

ATLANTA, March 20— Market steady. Horseshoes $4.25@$4.50; mule shoes $5.25@$5.50; horseshoe nsils 12@20c. Ironbound hames $3.50 Trace-chains 22@70c. Ames shovels $9.00. Spades $10.00. Well-226/70c. Ames shovels $2.00. spades $10.00. Well-buckets $5.006\$4.50. Cotton rope 15\square\ Country Produce.

ATLANTA, March 20 — Eggs —12%c. Butter—
Gitt edge 20%c; choice Tennessee 20%c; choice tennessee 20%c; choice tennessee 20%c; choice tennessee 20%c; congenties in the 10%15°c. Firsh Potatoes—88.00%8.50.
Sweet Potatoes—5667°c. Honey —Strained 668c; in the comb 10°c. Onions—$4.00%$4.25. Cabbage—2 Live Stock.

ATLANTA. March 20— Horses—Plug $53,690; good drive $150,68200; drivers $125,68140; fine $250,9 $50.0. Mules—14½ to 15 hands $115,68125; 15 to 15½ hands $135,68160. CINCINNATI. March 20—Hogs steady; common and light $4.00,683,35; packing and butchers $3.55,65.

Whisky.

*CINCINNATI, March 20—Whisky steady at $1.09.

ST. LOUIS, March 20—Whisky steady at $1.09.

CHICAGO, March 20—Whisky $1.14.

QUICKEST ROUTE

COLUMBUS

Atlanta & West Point R. R. FARE ONLY $2.90!

ONLY LINE running solid trains Atlanta to Co-ONLY LINE running double daily trains Atlanta to

ONLY LINE over which trains can be run Atlanta to Columbus in 4 hours and 20 min-Leave Atlanta 6:45 a m and 2 p. m.

CECIL GABBETT, CHAS. H. CROMWELL, ■ Gen'l M'g'r. Gen'l Pass Agen ALL PERSONS intendings travel may obtain valuable information free by addressing feb11—26 e od

Notice to Contractors.

CEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED BY the undersigned until 12 M. Thursday. March 29, 1888, for the erection of a BRICK COURTHOUSE for Pickens county at Jasper, Georgia. Plans, specifications and drawings can be seen at the office of the Ordinary, at Jasper, Ga, and also at the office of Bruce & Morgan. Architects, Atlanta, Ga. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids, and the usual state bond required of the contractor. Address

E. HOOD, Ordinary, 6t. Jasper, Pickens county, Ga.

SAUCE (THE WORKESTERSHIRE)

SOUPS. GRAVIES, FISH. HOT & COLD MEATS. GAME, WELSH-RAREBITS, dec.

Lea Herris Signature is on every bottle of the genuine.

JOHN DUNCAN'S SONS, N. Y. AGENTS FOR THE UNITED STATES.

CHATTANOOGA, ROME & COLUMBUS TIME CABLE NO. 3. In Effect November 22, 1887.

No. 1 | No. 8 2 30 pm 2 40 pm 2 51 pm 3 62 pm 3 126 pm 3 26 pm 3 34 pm 3 39 pm 3 52 pm 4 10 pm No. 2 | No. 4

THE GEORGIA PACIFIC BAILWAY. -VIA-

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA The Most Splendidly Constructed and Equipped Line, Affording the Most Luxurious Traveling Accommodations East of the Mississippi River. The Direct Line to

Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Missiouri, Kansas, Oregon,

No. 50. | No. 52. | No. 54.

Ar Dallas..... 6 45 pm Ar Fort Worth .. 8 10 pm THROUGH CARS. THROUGH CARS.

No. 50—Mann Boudour Sleeping Cars Atlanta to Shreveport and New Orleans, La.

No. 62—Mann Boudour Sleeping Cars Atlanta to Berningham. Passenger Coaches Atlanta to Memphis without change. For further particulars address

B. F. WYLY, JR. 6a.

A. A. VERNOY,

ALEX. S. THYEATT,

Fass. Agt.

Gen. 1T. P. Agt.

Gen. Pass. Agent.

Birmingham. Ala.

G. S. BARNUM, Gen. Pass. Agent. Birmingham. Ala. THE GEORGIA RAILROAD COMPANY, GEORGIA RAILROAD COMPANY, OFFICE GEN'L MANAGER, AUGUSTA, GA., Sept. 17th 1857. Commencing Sunday, 19th 19stant, the following assenger schedule will be operated: Trains run by 90th meridian time.

No. 28 EAST-DAILY. DAY PASSENGER TRAINS. No. 2 EAST-DAILY. | No. 1 WEST-DAILY.

Lv. Atlanta 800 a m Lv. Augusta 10 45 a m Ar. Gainesville 855 p m Lv. Macon 710 a m Ar. Athens 505 p m Lv. Milledgeville 915 a m Ar. Washington 29 p m Lv. Washington 1120 a m Ar. Macon 600 p m Lv. Athens 900 a m Ar. Macon 600 p m Ar. Adjusta 855 p m Ar. Augusta 535 p m Ar. Atlanta 545 p m NiGHT EXPRESS AND MAIL

No. 4 EAST—DAILY. No. 3 WEST—DAILY.

COVINGTON ACCOM'N-Daily except Sunday. Lv. Atlanta 6 15 p m Lv. Covington 5 40 a m Lv. Decatur 6 51 p m Lv. Decatur 7 25 a m Ar. Covington 8 55 p m Ar. Atlanta 7 55 a m MACON NIGHT EXPRESS DAIL

No. 3: WESTWARD. No. 32 EASTWARD.

THE GREAT KENNESAW BOUTE.

-W. & A. R. R.

#7-The following time card in eff ect Sunda
February 19, 1888,

NORTHBOUND-No. 3 EXPRESS-DAILY. Arrive Chattanooga. Stops at all important stations, No. 1 EXPRESS-DAILY.

Leave Atlanta Arrive Marietta Stops at all way stations and by s No. 11 EXPESS-DAIL1.

No. 19 KENNESAW EXPRESS-DAILY

daily, Jackscz-ville to Chattanooga without change and without extra charge.

No. 14 runs solid to Rôme
No. 11 has either Puliman Palace Buffet or Mann Boudoir Buffet Sleeying oar, dayly, Wayeross to Chattanooga without change, and has Puliman Palace sleeping cars Atlanta to Chattanooga, open for passengers at 900 p m.

No. 19 has Puliman sleeper Atlanta to Nashville without change, and first-class coach Atlanta to Little Rock without change. SOUTHBOUND-No. 4 Expess-

Leave Chattanooga
Leave Dalton
Arrive Atlanta.
Stops at all important way stations.
No. 2 EXPRESS—DAILY. No. 20 EXPRESS-DAILY eave Chattanooga....

No. 12 EXPRESS-DAILY. No. 17 MARIETTA EXPRESS—baily except Leave Marietta... No. 14 ROME EXPRESS—Daily except Sur

Ourse in TO 5 DATS.

1 TO 5 DA PRICE, $1.00.
Sold by Druggists.

RETHRAL STRICTURI PERMANENTLY CURED

L'AST TENNESSEE VA.& GA. RAILWAY. Schedule in Effect Manual 1, 1888.

E. T., V. & G. Railway.

No. 16. No. 14.

No. 16. No. 14.

11 00 a m 11 (7 p m 2 07 a m 2 10 LEY ROUTE.

E. T., V. & G. Railway.

Leave Chattaneoga. 10 00 a m

Arrive Knoxville... 2 05 p m

Arrive Morristown. 3 56 p m

Arrive Bristol... 7 25 p m

N. & W. Railroad. Arrive Glade Sp'gs. 9 16 p m Arrive Roanoke 1 36 a m

Shenandoah Valley Leave Roanoke... 1 50 a m Leave Navi Bridge 6 17 a m Arrive Lura... b7 20 a m Arrive Shen Junc. 10 20 a m Arrive Hagerstown. dll 25 a m C. V. Raiiroad. Arrive Harrisburg.. 3 15 p m Pennsylvania Railroad. . 1 00 a m West Midland Railroad.

VIA THE GREAT KENNESAW ROUTE E. T., V. & G. Railroad.

Virginia Midland Railroad. Leave Lynchburg 3 50 a m 3 00 p m Leave Charl'sville b6 65 a m 5 00 p m Arrive Alexander 10 20 a m 9 00 p m Arrive Washington 10 45 a m 9 40 p m Pennsylvania Raiiread.

PIEDMONT AIR-LINE.

(Richmond & Danville Railroad Company.)

The Favorite Route East.

Double daily trains and elegant coaches withom change between ATLANTA and WASHINGTON, with Pullman Buffet Sleeping Cars.

MONTGOMERY to WASHINGTON, thirty-one hours transit Atlanta to New York Schedule in effect November Mail. Express 20, 1887. No. 53 No. — Leave Atlanta (City Time).

Leave Atlanta (R. & D. Time).

Arrive Charlotte.

Salisbury.

Greensboro.

Danville.

Lynchburg.

Charlottesville.

Washington.

Baltimore.

Philadelphia.

New York.

Boston. 7 40 am 6 00 pm 8 40 am 7 00 pm 6 25 pm 5 06 am 8 01 pm 6 54 am 9 40 pm 8 28 am 11 20 pm 10 10 am 2 10 am 3 40 pm 8 10 am 3 40 pm 8 10 am 1 25 pm 10 0 65 am 11 25 pm 12 01 am 10 35 am 6 15 am 3 45 pm 8 00 am 12 20 pm 9 40 pm 6 05 pm 7 40 am 2 17 am 3 43 qm LULA ACCOMMODATION.
Daily except Sunday.
Leave Atlanta (city time.
Arrive Gainesville (city time).
RETURNING.

ATLANTA TO ATHENS VIA NORTHEASTERN
RAILROAD. Daily D'y ex S'y No. 53. No. 41. Daily D'y ex S'y No. 50. No. 52.

Tickets on sale at Union Ticket Office and Kim ball House, corder Pryor and Wall streets.

JAS L. TAYLOR, Gen'l Pass. Agt.,
Washington, D. C.
L. L. McCLESKEY,
D. Pass. Agt.,
City Pass. Agt.,
City Pass. Agt.,

A TLANTA AND NEW ORLEANS SHORT ATLANTA AND WEST POINT RAILROAD CO

The most direct and best route to Montgomery, New Orleans, Texas and the southwest. The following schedule in effect March 11th, 1888; SOUTHBOUND. No. 50 No. 52 No. 56 Daily Daily Fast D'ily

Arrive Columbus 6 40 pm 11 05 a m 11 05 a m Arrive Montgomery 7 20 p m 7 00 a m 12 00 m Arrive Pensacola 5 15 a m 2 30 p m Arrive Mobile 1 50 a m 2 18 p m Arrive New Orleans 7 10 a m 7 20 p m Arrive Houston, Tex 2 45 a m 8 40 a m TO SELMA, VICKSBURG AND SHREVEPORT

NORTHBOUND. No. 51 No. 53 No. 57

NorthBound Daily Daily Fast D'ily

Trains 50 and 51 carry Pullman Buffet Sleeping Cars between Atlanta and New Orleans. Trains 52 and 58 carry Pullman Buffet Sleeping Train 57 runs solid daily from Columbus to Atanta.
CECIL GABBETT, CHAS. H. CROMWELL,
Gen'l Manager. Gen'l Pass. Agent.
JOHN A. GEE, Passenger Agent.

ATLANTA AND FLORIDA R. R. Schedule in effect March 18, 1888. SOUTH BOUND.

NORTH BOUND. Arrive Atlanta rer Depot.

N. DUNN,
President.
Chief Engineer
H. Co-HARRIS, General Manager. HE DRANK LAUDANUM,

But He Did Not Take Enough to Kill Himself.

A Young Man Steps at the Kimball and Borrows Three Bollars—He Telegraphs for Money and Tries to Die.

A young man, a stranger in the city, whose name appears upon the Kimball house register as George Anos, swallowed a phial of laudanum last night with suicidal intent. But the drug did not kill the man.

Monday afternoon a young man with a light blonde mustache and deep blue eyes walked into the Kimboll house, carrying a medium-sized valise in his hand. He was attired in a light-colored suit, and a light-colored derby was on the side of his head. In front of the was on the side of his nead. In front of the office counter he dropped his grip upon the floor, and picking up a pen spread his autograph over a line, writing behind it Nashville as his home. Ed Calloway was standing behind the counter as the young guest wrote his pame, and turning the register around he asked name, and turning the register around the asked:

"What do you want?"

"A good room. Not too high up. I don't stand en trifles in paying a bill."

Mr. Calloway assigned the guest to 262 and, tapping the bell, ordered a servant to carry the baggage up. In a second the young man attired in the light suit followed the servant into the elevator, and then Mr. Calloway began studying the name upon the register, but could not decide whether it was Amos or Ames. That evening the young man was seen about the hotel taiging to the baseball players, with whom he appeared to be quite familiar. Later in the evening he disappeared and remained out of sight until about three o'clock yesterday morning.

But during that time he was registered. morning.

But during that time he was paving the way

But during that time he was paving the way to the laudanum phial.

About two o'clock in the night, Mr. Rivers, the night clerk at Durand's, received a note asking for suppers. The meals were to be sent to Abbie Howard's bagnio, on Collins, and the bill was to be paid upon delivery. Mr. Rivers filled the order, and the waiter went out with it. In a short time, the servant came back, and, throwing a piece of commercial looking paper upon the counter, said:

"The gentleman says take out your three dollars, send him ten dollars, and keep the balance until he comes up in the morning."

Mr. Rivers picked up the paper. It appeared to be a check payable to George Ames, Amos or Owens—the clerk could not tell which, and called for fifty dollars. Upon the back it bore the name of J. R. Wilkerson. Mr. Rivers glanced at the paper carefully and finally decided that he had rather have his three dollars—the amount of his order—than the paper, and instructed his boy to return to Howard's place and get the money. The servant did as instructed and at the house was abused by the man. Returning to the restaurant the waiter reported what had occurred. Mr. Rivers sent instructed and at the house was abused by the man. Returning to the restaurant the waiter reported what had occurred. Mr. Rivers sent for an officer and Policemen Starnes and Marshall responded. To them the clerk related what had occurred and requested them to look after the matter. This was about half past two o'clock, and the officers went to the house. There they found the man and requested him to accompany them to the restaurant. At the restaurant the young fellow gave his name as Amos, and admitting that he had no money again tendered the check in payment of his bill, asking for the difference. Mr. Rivers again declined to take the check, saying:

saying:
"That may be good and it may not. All I

"That may be good and it may not. All I want is a showing for my money."

"Well, I wouldn't beat you out of a dollar," answered the young fellow. "I am a member of the church and a Y. M. C. A., and I tell you that check is good."

"Then just give me three dollars and keep your check," said Mr. Rivers.

Amos turned to the officers, asking them to go with him to the Kimball. They went along, and at the counter he asked Mr. Porter, the night clerk, to advance him three dollars. Mr. Porter hesitated and heard the story. Amos again declared that the check was good, and Mr. Porter finally handed him the money. Between the two officers he returned to the restaurant, and, dropping three silver dollars upon the counter, said:

"Now you are satisfied, I hope?"

upon the counter, said:

"Now you are satisfied, I hope?"

"That's all you owe me," said Mr. Rivers, dropping the money into the drawer.

"Well, for God's sake, don't say anything about this. Don't let Bosard know it or they will turn me out of church."

The young man walked out of the restaurant and again disappeared from view. Soon after and again disappeared from view. Soon after breakfast he walked up to the Kimball house counter, and, facing Mr. Calloway, againsaid:

"I am broke and I want to telegraph home

"I am broke and I want to telegraph home for some money."

Mr. Calloway had heard of the advance made by Mr. Forterduring the night, but, believing that the guest was all right, remarked:

"Just write your message and I'll O. K. it, and in the meantime just make yourself at home here. Be perfectly easy."

The young man wrote the message and Mr. Callaway put his name upon it and sent it to the office. During the day the young man was seen about the hotels, und just before the ball players started to the ground was among them. After that he was not seen again until after dark.

About 7 o'clock Cantain Russell the greeisless of the started to the ground was a seen as a s dark.

About 7 o'clock Captain Russell, the special officer at the Kimball house, was passing through the hallway in front of the saloon and was met by Amos, who dropped a hand upon his shoulder, saying:

"Come, have a beer?"

"No, thanks; I never drink beer," answered the captain.

"No, thanks; I never drink beer," answered the captain.

"Then, a drink of liquor?"

"Never drank a drop in my life."

"Then, a cigar?"

"Never smoked a cigar in my life."

"Then take a lemonade?"

"No, thank you; I don't care for anything."

"No, thank you; I don't care for anything."

"No, thank you, I don't care for anything."

"No

around and many of them aided in treating him, but nothing appeared to have any effect upon him until John Patrick Cahill, the man who has two S's written behind his name on base ball score cards, gave him a hard slap. This seemed to arouse him, and opening his tyes, Amos asked:

"Who was that Y. M. C. A. who struck ma?" The young fellow was placed between two men and given a walk. He was walked rapidly and energetically until he began to grow better and was then taken to the Ivy street hospital, where he is being early for. On his way. pital, where he is being cared for. On his way to the hospital he said to Captain Russell:
"I am in deep trouble and I want to die.
Give me a pistol and let me blow my brains out." On his way out."

"No, you don't want to do that," answered the captain.

"Yes I do. Give me some more laudanum.
please. My people have plenty, but they won't help me."

Machine is known of the young man except Nothing is known of the young man except what he says himself. He was doing well late last night.

Strange But Nice Are Fortune's Ways To buy or not to buy was the question that three ladies, Mrs. H. DeLaup, 377 St. Ann st., Mrs. Honore Flotte, 281 Bayou road, and Miss Mary Henry, 208 St. Philip st., asked when Mrs. V. Gilly, 208 St. Philip st., a vender of Louisiana State Lottery tickets, called upon them with the last tenth ticket she had. A mutual investment of a quarter of a dollar was resolved upon on one-tenth of ticket No. 71,578, the number that, in the Grand Monthly Drawing, Feb. 7, 1883, drew the capital prize of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, and Mrs. Gilly presented the ticket last Thursday and received therefor a check. Nice, wann't it, for a 25-cent investment each?—New Orleans, La., Picayune, Feb. 12.

L'AST TENNESSEE VA.& GA. RAILWAY. Arrive Glade Sp'gs. 9 16 p m . Arrive Roanoke 1 36 a m . 1 00 a m West Midland Railro VIA THE GREAT KENNESAW ROUTE. N. & W. Railroad. Virginia Midland Railroad. Pennsylvania Railroad. Loave Washington. 11 00 a m 11 00 a m 10 00 p m Arrive Baltimore...... 12 46 p m 12 05 p m 11 15 p m Arrive Pinladelpia. 3 10 p m 2 20 p m 3 00 a m Arrive New York... 5 50 p m 4 50 p m 6 20 a m B. & O. Railro DIEDMONT AIR-LINE. Richmond & Danville Railroad Company.) The Favorite Route East. Double daily trains and elegant coaches without change between ATLANTA and WASHINGTON, with Pullman Buffet Sileeping Cars. ATLANTA to NEW YORK MONTGOMERY to WASHINGTON. y thirty-one hours transit Atlanta to New York Leave Atlanta (city time....... Leave Lula (city tin ATLANTA TO ATHENS VIA NORTHEASTERN RAILROAD. Tickets on sale at Union Ticket Office and Kimball House, corder Pryor and Wall streets. JAR L. TAYLOR, Gen'l Pass. Agt., Washington, D. Q. A TLANTA AND NEW ORLEANS SHORT ATLANTA AND WEST POINT RAILROAD CO SOUTHBOUND. | No. 50 | No. 52 | No. 56 | Fast D'ily Arrive Columbus 6 40 pm 11 05 am 11 05 am Arrive Montgomery 7 20 p m 7 00 a m 12 00 m Arrive Mobile 1 50 a m 2 30 p m Arrive Mobile 1 50 a m 2 18 p m Arrive Houston, Tex 2 45 a m 8 40 a m TO SELMA, VICKSBURG AND SHREVEPORT | 11 10 p.m | 12 05 p.m | 2 45 p.m | 6 00 p.m | 11 10 p.m | 12 05 p.m | 2 45 p.m | 6 00 p.m | 11 00 p.m | 11 00 p.m | 12 30 a.m | 10 30 a.7 55 a m o, Texas, to Trains 50 and 51 carry Pulman Buffet Sleeping Cars between Atlanta and New Orleans. Trains 52 and 53 carry Pulman Buffet Sleeping Cars between Washington and New Orleans. Train 56 runs solid daily from Atlanta to Colum-CECIL GABBETT, CHAS. H. CROMWELL, Gen'l Manager. Gen'l Pass. Agent JOHN A. GEE, Passenger Agent. ATLANTA AND FLORIDA R. R.

RED!

HE DRANK LAUDANUM But He Did Not Take Enough to

Kill Himself. A Young Man Steps at the Kimball and ows Three Dollars-He Telegraphs

for Money and Tries to Die A young man, a stranger in the city, whose name appears upon the Kimball house register as George Anos, swallowed a phial of laudanum last night with suicidal intent. But

Monday afternoon a young man with a light blonde mustache and deep blue eyes walked into the Kimbell house, carrying a medium-sized valise in his hand. He was attired in a light-colored suit, and a light-colored derby was on the side of his head. In front of the was on the side of in head. In four to the office counter he dropped his grip upon the floor, and picking up a pen spread his autograph over a line, writing behind it Nashville as his home. Ed Calloway was standing behind the counter as the young guest wrote his name, and turning the register around he asked:

name, and turning the register around he asked:
"What do you want?"
"A good room. Not too high up. I don't stand on trifles in paying a bill."

Mr. Calloway assigned the guest to 262 and, tapping the bell, ordered a servant to carry the baggage up. In a second the young man attired in the light suit followed the servant into the elevator, and then Mr. Calloway began studying the name upon the register, but could not decide whether it was Amos or Ames. That evening the young man was seen about the hotel talging to the baseball players, with whom he appeared to be quite familiar. Later in the evening he disappeared and remained out of sight until about three o'clock yesterday morning.

But during that time he was paving the way

But during that time he was paving the way to the laudanum phial.

About two o'clock in the night, Mr. Rivers, the night clerk at Durand's, received a note asking for suppers. The meals were to be sent to Abbie Howard's bagnio, on Collins, and the bill was to be paid upon delivery. Mr. Rivers filled the order, and the waiter went out with the land of the part time the servant came, back bill was to be paid upon delivery. Mr. Rivers filled the order, and the waiter went out with it. In a short time, the servant came back, and, throwing a piece of commercial looking paper upon the counter, said:

"The gentleman says take out your three dollars, send him ten dollars, and keep the balance until he comes up in the morning."

Mr. Rivers picked up the paper. It appeared to be a check payable to George Ames, Ames or Owens—the clerk could not tell which, and called for fifty dollars. Upon the back it bore the name of J. R. Wilkerson. Mr. Rivers glanced at the paper carefully and finally decided that he had rather have his three dollars—the amount of his order—than the paper, and instructed his boy to return to Howard's place and get the money. The servant did as instructed what had occurred. Mr. Rivers sent for an officer and Policemen Starnes and Marshall responded. To them the clerk related what had occurred and requested them to look after the matter. This was about half past two o'clock, and the officers went to the house. There they found the man and requested him to accompany them to the restaurant. At the restaurant the young fellow gave his name as Amos, and admitting that he had no money again tendered the check in payment of his bill, asking for the difference. Mr. Rivers again declined to take the check, saying:

"That may be good and it may not. All I

Mr. Rivers again declined to take the check, saying:

"That may be good and it may not. All I want is a showing for my money."

"Well, I wouldn't beat you out of a dollar," answered the young fellow. "I am a member of the church and a Y. M. C. A., and I tell you that check is good."

"Then just give me three dollars and keep your check," said Mr. Rivers.

Amos turned to the officers, asking them to go with him to the Kimball. They went along, and at the counter he asked Mr. Porter, the night clerk, to advance him three dollars. Mr. Porter hesitated and heard the story. Amos again declared that the check was good, and Mr. Porter finally handed him the money. Between the two officers he returned to the restaurant, and, dropping three silver dollars upon the counter, said:

"Now you are satisfied, I hope?"

"That's all you owe me." said Mr. Rivers.

upon the counter, said:

"Now you are satisfied, I hope?",

"That's all you owe me," said Mr. Rivers, dropping the money into the drawer.

"Well, for God's sake, don't say anything about this. Don't let Bosard know it or they will turn me out of church."

The young man walked out of the restaurant and again disappeared from yiew. Soon after

and again disappeared from view. Soon after breakfast he walked up to the Kimball house counter, and, facing Mr. Calloway, againsaid: "I am broke and I want to telegraph home for some worse."

Mr. Calloway had heard of the advance made by Mr. Porter during the night, but, believing that the guest was all right, remarked:
"Just write your message and I'll O. K. it,

The your message and In O. K. It, and in the meautime just make yourself at home here. Be perfectly easy."

The young man wrote the message and Mr. Callaway put his name upon it and sent it to the office. During the day the young man was seen about the hotels, und just before the ball players started to the ground was among them. After that he was not seen again until after dark.

dark.

About 7 o'clock Captain Russell, the special officer at the Kimball house, was passing through the hallway in front of the saloon and was met by Amos, who dropped a hand upon his shoulder, saying: s shoulder, saying: "Come, have a beer?" "No, thanks; I never drink beer," answered

"Come, have a beer?"

"No, thanks; I never drink beer," answered the captain.

"Then, a drink of liquor?"

"Never drank a drop in my life."

"Never smoked a cigar in my life."

"Then, a cigar?"

"No, thank you; I don't care for anything."

The man passed on into the iswashroom, and Captain Russell into the office, where he moved carelessly about. About ten minutes later a negro boy, engaged in the house, entered the office and asked the captain to go into the saloon. In the saloon he found the young man, whose drinks and cigars he had refused, lying upon the floor, apparently dead drank. One hand was thrown over his head and the other across his breast. The captain tried to arouse him but without success. Then grabbing him by the shoulders he began shaking him vigorously, and a phial dropped from his hand. The captain picked up the phial and found it empty, but upon it was a label showing that it had contained laudanum. The crowd standing around instantly concluded that the young man had swallowed the laudanum, and Dr. Townsend and Dr. Cooper were called in. They gave an emetic and in a short time it had the desired effect. While the physicians were working upon the young man a large crowd gathered around and many of them aided in treating him, but nothing appeared to have any effect upon him until John Patrick Cahill, the man who has two 8's written behind his name on base ball score cards, gave him a hard slap. This seemed to arouse him, and opening his eyes, Amos asked:

"Who was that Y. M. C. A. who struck me?"

"Who was that Y. M. C. A. who struck me?"

The young fellow was placed between two men and given a walk. He was walked rapidly and energetically until he began to grow better and was then taken to the Ivy street hospital, where he is being cared for. On his way to the hospital he said to Captain Russell:

"I am in deep trouble and I wans to die. Give me a pistol and let me blow my brains out." 'No, you don't want to do that," answered

Strange But Nice Are Fortune's Ways
To buy or not to buy was the question that three ladies, Mrs. H. DeLaup, 377 St. Ann st., Mrs. Honore Flotte, 281 Bayou road, and Miss Mary Henry, 208 St. Philip st., a sked when Mrs. V. Gilly, 208 St. Philip st., a vender of Louisiana State Lottery tickets, called upon them with the last tenth ticket she had. A mutual investment of a quarter of a dollar was resolved upon on one-tenth of ticket No. 71,575, the number that, in the Grand Monthly Drawing, Feb. 7, 1888, drew the capital prize of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, and Mrs. Gilly presented the ticket last Thursday and received therefor a check. Nice, want it, for a 23-cent investment each?—New Orleans, La., Picayune, Feb. 12.

A LAUDABLE PROJECT.

The Members of the Governor's Horse Guard

The Members of the Governor's Horse Guard Hold a Very Important Meeting.

The neeting last night of the Governor's Horse Guard was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held by the company.
Captain John Milledge presided, and, after some routine business was discharged, he explained to the members a most important project he had conceived. The details of this enterprise he clearly laid to view, and when the full proportions of the undertaking were disclosed every member expressed his delight and surprise, and each one promised his cordial co-operation in making the enterprise a complete success. After Captain Milledge had outlined the project the company took definite action. It was decided that the Governor's Horse Guard will hold the 8th of next May the first cavalry festival ever held in the United States: that valuable prizes will be offered for tilting and racing contrast; that the contestant who makes the highest score shall be given the privilege of naming the queen of love and beauty and crowning her at the grand ball to be given the night of May the 8th; that the contestant making the next best score shall be entitled to name the first bridesmaid; that the contestant making the next highest score shall have the privilege of selecting the second bridesmaid; then there will be two half-mile races to be ridden by members of the competing companies weighing 150 pounds or less, and two similar races to be ridden by members of the second bridesmaid; then there will be two half-mile races to be ridden by members of the second bridesmaid; then there will be two half-mile races to be ridden by members of the second bridesmaid; then there will be two half-mile races to be be dead to offer large prizes to be bestowed upon the victorious competing companies. It is expected that there will be entries from Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama and Virginia. To secure the attendance of the representative horse companies: ledge has prepared a neat circular and has mailed a copy to the captains of the following

The Georgia Huzzars, of Savannah. The Richmond Huzzars, of Augusta.
The Liberty Troop, of Liberty county.
The McIntosh Light Dragoons, of McIn-osh county.

The Effingham Huzzars, of Effingham

ounty.
The Light Dragoons, of Charleston, S. C.
The Beaufort District Troop, of Beaufo

The Stuart Horse Guard, Richmond, Va.
The Montgomery Cavalry, Montgomer

The Montgomery Cavalry, Montgomery, Ala.

The City Light Troop, Philadelphia, Pa.

The arrangements are not yet completed. They will depend upon the number of companies entering the tournament. Should a sufficient number of favorable replies come in by the next meeting the plans will be matured without delay.

In the bright vocabulary of the Atlanta Governor's Horse Guard, there is no such word as fail. This company has never attempted anything without achieving success. The company will have been organized five years the 30th of this month. With no place but the streets of Atlanta in which to drill, and no track but the country roads in which to tilt.

the streets of Atlanta in which to drill, and no track but the country roads in which to tilt, the members have kept together and the esprit de corps has never died out. Today this body of gallant troopers is an honor to Atlanta and to Georgia. During the Piedmont exposition the members did good service for two days and nights in the most inclement weather, and their elegant flag was ruined, and several of the members were made sick by the exposure. Moreover, the company spent considerable money for the entertainment of the visiting eavalry companies.

cavalry companies. If carried out successfully, will be second only to the Piedmont exposition as an attraction. Doubtless the cavalry tournament will bring to the city thousands of

PREPARING FOR MEMORIAL DAY. The Regular Meeting of the Fulton County

The meeting, which was a large and enthusiastic one, was presided over by Captain John Milledge, the president, W. A. Wright, being Milledge, the president, W. A. Wright, being absent.

Colonel L. P. Thomas was requested to cooperate with the president in arranging for Memorial Day.
Earnest speeches were made by Captain Milledge, Colonel Fry, Judge Calhoun, Colonel Thomas, Captain Frank Myers and others. The importance of raising a fund with which to buy headstones to replace those lost and to cover the graves of the confederate soldiers in Oakland cemetery, was freely discussed, and it was agreed on all sides that such a fund ought to be raised.
A committee of twelve was appointed to meet at Captain Milledge's office next Thursday at 4 o'clock for the purpose of discussing the matter and developing plans for that work. Colonel Thomas was elected chairman of this committee.

work. Colonel Thomas was elected chairman of this committee.

A committee on badges was also appointed, and it was requested to agree upon a suitable one at once. Dr. Amos Fox was made chairman of this committee. It is understood that this committee will meet today to take into consideration several badges which will be offered. It was determined that each member of the Confederate Veterans' association should wear one of the badges Memorial Day. The veterans are earnest in their endeavors to participate in the solemn rites which will mark the anniversary so dear and sacred to the hearts of every old confederate soldier. They will turn out in full force on that occasion.

The tortures of dyspepsia and sick headache the sufferings of scrofula, the agonizing itch and pain of salt rheum, the disagreeable symp-toms of catarrh, are removed by Hood's Sar-

A Card to the Ladies and Citizens of Atlanta.

We call the attention of the people of Atlanta to our new prices on page 7. Read them through carefully and you will see a great change. Flour has declined recently, as has also sugar and coffee, and we feel that we, as leading merchants, should be the first to give notice of such a change, the same as we advance when the prices go up. It is our aim to always give bottom figures on groceries. Watch our advertisement and it will always be a good index of the state of the market. Everybody knows what our high grade Regal Patent Flour is. Everybody knows what standard Granulsted Sugar is. And everybody knows that coffee has been very high now for over one year. The market has declined on these staples and we follow suit.

We are now negotiating for 4,000 dozen eggs for Easter. If we get them, we will announce it through THE CONSTITUTION. Our price will be 10 cents per dozen, and we guarantee every egg. We have some very fine dried raspberries and pittied cherries, which we would respectfully call your attention to, that are very fine for pies. In a few days we will issue our new quarterly issue of "Table Morsels," our price list, which is replete with valuable receipts, and an article on "Pure Food" and the workings of the National Pure Food association. If you want one sent to you, send us your aadress and enclose a one-cent stamp. Respectfully, Don't Fail to Attend The auction sale of those choice lots near E. T. R. R. shops, at 11 a. m. today, by Sam'l W. Goode & Co. Lunch served on the grounds.

If you wish to know a specific for nervous ness and insomnia apply to dealers in the "Yel-low Label Cigar."

Pyramides.

Drink Malto at Sods fountain. The Cummings' Place at Auction.
Tuesday, the 27th instant, No. 64 Cooper street
am'l W. Goode & Co.

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY. Complete Soda Water Establishment

A complete and nearly new outfit, sod water and bottling machines, shipping and delivery cases, bottles, syphones, extracts, and horse any wagon, all complete and ready for use. Reasonable price. Apply to

Well & Beandt.

1w Attorneys at Law, 25% Whitehall St. Pyramides.

HYGEIA TOBACCO. Thomas C. Williams & Co.

JEWELER, 55 WHITEHALL ST. Reliable Goods, Fair Dealing. Bottom Prices. Our stock of plain and fancy surpasses anything of the kind ever shown in Atlanta before. NUNNALLY'S, 36 Whitehall st.

BASKETS

They say it is so.

Several leading tobacco men were standing on Whitehall street yesterday morning, consulting as to the merits of certain brands of tobacco. They decided that Harralson Bros. & Co., 25 Alabama street, had the best brands, and that their cigars were the most popular. R. J. B., Maid of Athens, Peerless and Man's Pride are the best brands of tobacco, while Rabbit Foot and Three Kings are the best cigars.

For Sale for Cash.

We have a limited amount of high grade Ammoniated Fertilizers for sale for spot cash; also a few tons of Animal Bone Meal, the best fertilizer in the world for grapes, fruit trees of all kinds, flowers and grasses, in fact good for everything, and enriching the land after making the crop besides. Pure Ground Animal Bone is the base of our fertilizers, hence they are much more valuable in the soil than ordinary fertilizers made from phosphate rock, as the insoluble phosphoric acid becomes soluble and therefore available in the soil, and permanently enriches the land, while the soluble is taken up the first year as plant food. Also a few tons of pure Ground Animal Bone, dissolved with sulphure acid.

PENDLETON GUANO CO.,

PENDLETON GUANO Co., Rooms 50 and 51 Gate City Bank, Atlanta, Ga mehl5-1w 7p un harlsn bros

COURT AND CAPITOL.

The Governor and His Cabinet.

Commissions were issued by the executive department to C. A. Willis as notary public ex-officio justice of the peace for the 1196th district of Quitman county, and Isaac A. Smith, of 90th district in Washington county. GOVERNOR GORDON YESTERDAY iss GOVERNOR GORDON YESTERDAY ISSUED an order directing the principal keeper of the penitentiary to deliver to the sheriff of Hart county Isham Patterson, a convict, to be used as a witness in the case of the state vs. James Fields in the Hart superior court.

GOVERNOR GORDON YESTENDAY offered a reward of $150 for the capture of Rush Reynolds, charged with killing Ben H. Jones, of Morgan county or the 19th inst ounty, on the 12th inst.

THE STATE TREASURY received $105.85 as general taxes from Lumpkin county, $50 in insurance taxes and $4.80 in insurance fees. MESSES. W. J. SPEER, Z. D. Harrison, C. Howell, jr., and W. H. Harrison, sub-committee from the commission on furnishing the new capitol, visited the rooms on the third floor of the new capitol and inspected the general committee rooms yesterday. They then inspected the plans and made a careful estimate of the cost of furnishing the same. THE DEPARTMENT OF agriculture reports the fertilizer business as good It is currently reported that Judge Gus-tin, of the Macon circuit, seriously contem-plates resigning, and very soon. The execu-tive office, however, has not received any no-tice of it.

The County Courthouse

The County Courthouse.

IN THE CITY COURT, Judge Howard Van Epps presiding, the case of Mrs. R. White vs. the Central Railroad company, a suit for $10,000 damages, occupied the whole day and was not finished when the court adjourned. Colonel Thomas P. Westmoreland and Mr. Fraser are conducting the case for the plaintiff, and the defendant is represented by Messrs. Jackson & Jackson. The case will be resumed this morning and will be given to the jury by 11 o'clock.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT. Judge Marshall J.

o'clock.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT, Judge Marshall J.

Clarke presiding, the case of Henry Williams vs. P. J. Donalson, Jr., and J. L. Garmany, the superintendent and overseer of the South
Atlanta convict stockade, was concluded at 1 o'clock. Judge Clarke's charge to the Jury was very brief. The jury retired at 1:15 o'clock, and had not agreed upon a verdict when the court adjourned in the afternoom. when the court adjourned in the afternoon.
Judge Clarke instructed the foreman to bring in a sealed verdict if an agreement was had during the night.
FORTY JURORS WERE DRAWN by Judge Marshall J. Clarke yesterday afternoon. They will serve this week.

Marshall J. Clarke yesterday afternoon. They will serve this week.

THE CASE OF Charles A. Collier vs. the New York Life Insurance company will be heard by Judge Marshall J. Clarke in chambers next Saturday.

ORDINARY CALHOUN'S OFFICE was filled yesterday morning with lawyers and witnesses and bailiffs, the occasion being the case of lunacy, referred to yesterday. John Henry McMillan, who has for several days been confined in the stationhouse, was tried for lunacy, the supposition being that he was a kleptomaniac. The jury thought there was too much method in his madness, so he was adjudged to be sane. Judge Calhoun remanded him to Chief Connolly's custody, and he was taken back to the police headquarters.

THE GRAND JURY will not hold a meeting this week. Next Monday the body will come together and look into a batch of cases which Solicitor General Hill has prepared. The foreman of the grand jury has summoned Dr. Theodore Schumann to appear before it to testify in the case against Dr. Jacobs.

The Federal Building.

Hon. George R. Brown, of Cherokee county, was admitted yesterday morning to practice law in the district and circuit courts. IN THE U.S. CIRCUIT COURT JETTY Johnson of Murray county, pleaded guilty to illicit retailing. Fined $100 and one month's imprisonment. Charles Poole, of Cherokee county was convicted in the district court of illicit working. Sentenced to one month's imprison-ment. F. M. Anderson, of White county, en-tered a plea of guilty to illicit distilling. Sen-tence suspended.

JAMES PYLE, New York The Best Investment Property on the Marke At auction at 11 a. m. today. See Sam'l W. Good & Co.'s special column. Drink Malto at Soda fountain.

The Queen and Crescent Route (Cincinnati Southern Ry.), famous for the speed of its trains and excellent condition of track, is now running a through sleeper from Cincinnati to Atlanta on the limited express, the time en route being is house folly. Hall a day is saved over other routes between the two cities.

STILSON, MY SPRING AND SUMMER STOCK

Suits for Men, Boys and Children · IN GREAT VARIETY.

Prices Always the Lowest.

George Muse,

Specialty.

WATCHES, JEWELRY AND

STERLING SILVERWARE The latest Novelties for the Holidays. The best $5.00 Watch in the world. Watch repairing a IJ. S. DOYLE, Jeweler, 51 Whitehall Street.

Following is a list of new Etchings, Engravings

Where we shall be pleased to have the public call Wayside Flowers," painted and etched by Naming the Day," by F. Raubicheck, re-

Japan, price each The Communicants," by Jules Breton, price, in plain prints plain print, price ...

and numerous others that our space will not allow Also, just received, a new lot of photographs of celebrated dogs and sporting pictures. "Good and Bad Luck," "Trim and Trouble," "Christmas Offer-ing," "Long Time Between Drinks," and many others by J. M. Tracy. A visit to our gallery will repay any one interested in fine arts, etc. Mr. Hal Morrison has on exhibition a fine collection of his work, and his friends and the public generally are invited to call and examine same. Among other artists who exhibit their work are Jas. P. Field, Mrs. J. R. Gregory, Miss Sylvester, Miss Rosa Lee, Mrs. Luella Steele and others. Gallery always open to the public and everybody positively the only preparation for the teeth i he market that is absolutely indorsed by home dentists and physicians. Its merlt has been estabished beyond doubt,

E. H. & J. R. THORNTON.

Look After Your Teeth.

DR. BROCKETT'S DE-LEC-TA-LAVE!

Why, then, will you be persuaded to use any other

For sale by all druggists at Fifty Cents a bottle. ASA G. CANDLER & CO., Wholesale Drug gists, Gen'l Agts., Atlanta, Ga. feb12—dly un thorn t7p

W. R. JONES & CO. PRACTICAL SLATE ROOFERS

LADIES

Do Your Own Dyeing at Home With PEERLESS DYES THEY WILL DYE EVERYTHING, THE ARE sold everywhere. Price 10c a package. 40 colors. They have no equal for Strength, Brighines, Amount in Packages of for Fastness of Color, ornorading qualities. They do not crock or amus. For ale by M. B. Avary & Co., and all Drugg 10.

JUDICIOUS AND PERSISTENT Advertising has always proven successful. Before placing any LORD & THOMAS,

Our Unqualified Challenge IS UNACCEPTED! REMINGTON

TYPEWRITER.

For Speed and Amipulation and Exclusive Dealer for Georgia, South Carobama and Florida.

HOYT & THORN

FANCY GROCERS,

90 WHITEHALL ST. 90

We invite your inspection.

Our Prices-Best Goods.

2 lb cans Armour's Cornet peer 6 cans Columbia River Salmon.
1 doz 2 lb cans Tomatoes.
12 bars Glory Soap.
Preserves, pure fruit, per lb to close out.
4 lbs, any kind Jelly.
Vermont Maple Syrup.

Shrewsbury Catsup, pt size. Lea & Perrins' Sauce..... Baker's 1 lb cake Chocolate. Fancy Lemons, per doz....

Apple Butter, per Ib.

These are only a few of our low prices. We sell lower than any house in the south. Our goods are fresher on account of quick sales. Goods all guaranteed or money refunded.

Ee wise and do not listen to misrepresentation, but come and see for yourself. We do the largest business in our line in the south. Write for printed catalogue. Hotels supplied and 20 per cent saved.

HOYT & THORN, 90 Whitehall S IMPORTANT To Florida Tourists and Settlers

The Florida Railway and Navigation UMAKES DAILY CONNECTION WITH THE S. F. & W. fast mail train at Callahan (connection sure) and with all other trains at Jacksonville, leaving the latter place at 9:00 a. m., 12:20 p. m. and 8:30 p. m., for all points in south Florida, viz: Hawthorne, Gainesville, Cedar Key, Silver Springs, Blue Springs, Ocala, Wildwood, Panasofikee, St. Catherines, Owensboro, Dade City, Plant City, Tampa, Bartow, PuntaGorda, Leesburg, Eldorado, Tavares, Apopka, Orlando, Tituville and the Indian river country. The only line giving a choice of three routes to points on the west coast of Florida, viz: Through Cedar Key, Leocochee, Plant City and Orlando. The most beautiful and picturesque portions of the state are traversed by this line. Hundreds of bearing orage groves are passed and seen from the cars. The lovely lakes of Lochlosa, Orange, Harris, Griffin, Eustis, Dora, Panasofikee and Apopka are located on this line. The only line reaching most of the points named, Sand close and direct connections made to all others. The famous Silver Spring, the head of the Ocklawala river, can only be reached all rail vis this line. The short and direct route to the beautiful Homosassa country, abounding in fish and game, and passing Blue Springs, the head of the Wekiva (Blue river). The only line to Fernandina, with its celebrated beach of twenty-two miles drive, and only thirty-six miles from Jacksonville, three daily trains. The only line to Tallahassee, the capital of the state, Madison, Monticello and Quincy. Florida's great tobacco industries are located on this division of the F. R. & N. In fact, there is hardly an important point in the state not reached by this great trunk line system. First-class road beds and excellent train service. Through tickets at low rates and baggage checked to all points. The Florida Railway and Navigation C points.

Don't fail to send for elegant indexed township map of Florida. For any information regarding rates and routes, inquire of any of the company's agents or the following officers:

Jacksoville Ticket Office, 86 Bay st.

D. E. MAXWELL,

Gen. Supt.

Gen. Supt.

deb 24 d2m

Receiver's Sale. TLANTA MACHINE WORKS AND FOUNDRY.

Unless sooner disposed of, the above of the superior court of Fulson county, and subject to confirmation by the same, be sold to the highest bidder on WEDNESDAY, the 28th DAY of MARCH, 1888, at 12 o'clock nooft upon the premises.

Lot of land, hearly two acres, only 800 yards from center of Alanta, fronting on Hunter and King streets and the Georgia railroid, with spar tracks directly into the grounds. Largest work in Atlanta, commanding the trade of the entire South The most complete plant in the south for manufacturing every variety of machinery, including engines, boilers, marble cutting and sold-mining magninery, with other specialities, the demand for which is daily increasing. Substantial briok buildings with metal road. Apply soon by a barrain and easy payments. For full particulars address, w. H. SNYTH, Receiver,

ADVANCE STYLES SPRING

Worsted Cutaway and Prince Albert

Coats. Cass and Cheviot Cutaway and Sack Suits.
Children's Suits (short pants).
Boys' Suits, 14 to 17 years, long pants.
Gent's Extra Pants.
Boys' Extra Pants.
The above goods are Tailor-made and the

OUR MERCHANT TAILORING DEP'T Is now complete with all of the Latest Styles of Foreign Goods.

C. G. GROSSE & HARRY M'KAY, CUTTERS JAS. A. ANDERSON & CO. 41 WHITEHALL ST. REAL ESTATE. SAM'L W. GOODE, ALBERT L. BECK.

N. R. FOWLER, Auctioneer. 80 Desirable Vacant Lots. 80 NEAR E. T., V. & GA. SHOPS.

McDaniel, Burckel and Rockwell Street

On McDaniel, Burckel and Rockwell Streets at Auction, Wednesday, March 21, 11 a. m.

This tract is well known as the "Burckel Property," and we have subdivided it into 80 desirable residence lots, fronting McDaniel, Burchel, Rockwell and Middle streets. It is the most desirable vacant property so close to the shops now of the market, and parties working in the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Shops, Glass Works and Atlants Lumber Company Works should avail themselves of this opportunity to secure a desirable lot for a home on easy terms and at his own price. The lots fronting McDaniel street are admirably adapted to stores, etc. No part of Atlanta has built up so rapidly in the past four years as around these shops, and property has steadily enhanced in value. You can make no better or after investment than to buy one of these lots.

No. 179 East Fair Street, BETWEEN CREW AND CAPITOL AVENUE, AT AUCTION

rsday, March 22d, 11 a. m. on the Premises This handsome, central home contains eight large rooms, besides closets, kitchen, pantry and servan's house. All modern conveniences. The lot is large and level. The neighborhood is the best in the city. Judge George Hillyer, Captain Milledge, Mr. Patillo, Major Campbell Wallace, Mr. Haygood and Mr. George Muse living in the immediate vicinity. The house is now open for inspection. THE CUMMING PLACE esday, March 27, 11 A. M.—Sale Absolute This is a complete nome in a first-class neighborhood. The dwelling is comparatively new, has nine large rooms, all modern conveniences, closets, wide halls up and down stairs, wide verandas, good servant's room and kitchen, carriage house, barns and stables. The lot is 112x216 feet, high, well drained, and really very choice; only a short disand stables. The lot is likely to the indicate in a short distance from Whitehall car line, and a pleasant walk from the business center of the city.

Sam'l W. Goode & Co., Agents. N. R. Fowler, Auctioneer.

Desirable West Peachtree Property at Auction—No. 291 West Peachtree, East Side, on the Premises, Friday,
March 23d, at 4 P. M.

March 23d, at 4 P. M.

This very desirable property on one of the best improved streets in the city. Offers rare opportunity to those seeking a home in this choice neighborhood. The lot is 40x200 feet, high, well drained, and absolutely first-class. Only a short distance from the Hill statue, and within one block of Feachtree car line. Property on this street is certain to daily enhance in value Plats being prepared at our office.

3.500 for a large lot, 60x15x feet, with nice 5-room house close in Courtland avenue.

3.000 will buy a nice 7 room house with 2½ acres of choice land in Kirkwood, just in front of Gov, Gordon's elegant country home, nice fruit, splendid vinyard and best of water. A rare chance for a beautiful subbrban home, accessible at all hours, day and night

$200 for a nice vacant lot 42½,290 feet on Jones street, just loo feet west of Kelly street—in good neighborhood.

$3,000 For a very choice and comfortable house of seven rooms, large hall and front and back verandas, with water, gas and bath on nice, large lot, 60x200 feet; with side alley, on E. Harris street; close in; a bargain.

$8,000 For a Central Store on Forsyth street, near Capitol; lot 27x100 feet, with

34,750 for one of the prettiet and most complete cottage homes on Whitehall street, within 3 blocks of Trinity church. Handsome, high, level lot, 50x200 feet, with all modern conveniences, nice iron sence enclosing it. Will. rent for $40 per month.
65 acres near the dummy line, elevated and in sight of the city. This property can be bought at a bargain, and if a capitalist or syndicate would buy it and cut it up in small lost they can double their money on it this spring. Will sell the whole or part to suit purchasers. Call and see me about it. Plenty of good fruit on it.

A. P. TRIPOD, Paints,

WINDOW GLASS. Artists Materials

Agents for Anti-Kalsomine

The best and cheapest prepara-tion for finishings, walls and ceilings of dwellings, churches, stores, etc. Send for color cards, testi

WALTHAM Nº ELGIN WATCHES

IN NEW AND ATTRACTIVE CASES, FREEMAN & CRANKSHAW, JEWELERS.

Salt Springs Hotel, at Austell, Ga. The Hotel is an elegant brick building, conveniently arranged and well furnished throughout Apply to W. E. Shelverton, Austell, Ga.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

29.70 68 68 SW 24 29.76 64 62 8 24 29.78 62 14 NW 18 30.00 54 40 N 24 30.00 40 34 NW 6 29.74 68 66 8 20 29.94 54 52 NE 8 .04 Rain.
.00 Cloudy.
.10 Clear.
.00 Clear.
.00 Clear.
.01 Cloudy.
.00 Clear.
.00 Clear.
.00 Clear. 29,94 54 52 NE 8 30,00 5 52 NE Light 30,02 60 48 SE | Light LOCAL OBSERVATIONS

W. EASBY SMITH, Sergeant Signal Corps, U. S. Army. Note—Barometer reduced to sea level.
The T indicates the precipitation inappreciable.
Indicates traces of rainfall.

DILES, FISTULA AND ALL RECTAL DIS cases treated by a painless process. No loss of time from business. No knife, ligature or caustic. A RADICAL CURE guaranteed in every case treated. Reference given.

DR. R. G. JACKSON. un weth'r

UNDERTAKER.

Telephone 780. 1y FRANK X. BLILEY.

The tractors: You cannot afford to ignore Wadsworth's Silica Paint. Its advantages are double that of others. Its use is a constant revelation. For proof of value call at Depot, 35 Broad street. OUSE OWNERS, ARCHITECTS AND CON tractors: You cannot afford to ignore Wads

MEETINGS.

MASS-MEETING KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS, Every member of the order in the city is arnestly requested to attend. Matters of vital im-rtance will be presented.

THOMAS L. BISHOP Chancellor Commanding Atlanta Lodge, No. 20.
W. C. HAYGOOD,
Chancellor Command'g Capital City Lodge, No. 33.

FULTON COLVILLE, ellor Commanding Red Cross Lodge, No. 34. ADOLPH BRANDT, Captain Commanding Capital City Division, No. 5,

LARGEST STOCK LOWEST PRICES MOST IMPROVED TIME PIECES.

J. P. STEVENS & BRO., 47 Whitehall St.

SOUTHERN SANITARIUM

"WATER CURE."

134 CAPITOL AVENUE, ATLANTA, GA
THIS INSTITUTION HAS, DURING ITS THIR teen years of successful operation, restored thousands of people to health, and attained a hational reputation. The problem of health, by living health fally has been solved.
The universality of the results obtained is a marked feature of this Sanliarium. All are benefited—none are injured. All forms of chronic ailment yield to its processes with surprising certainty and rapidity.

THE CRUDE COLD WATER CURE methods do Appliances Includes Baths of Varied FORMS, MASSAGE, SWEDISH MOVEMENTS, ELECTRICITY, MAGNETISM, HYGIENIC-DIET-ARY, PNEUMATIC AND VACUUM TREATMENT, ETC.

All applied on principles scientifically exact and definite, which, together with pleasant home comforts and refined social surroundings, makes this, in every respect a perfect Sanitarium for those in quest of health.

Refers, with permission, to some of the most refined and intelligent people of this and other states of the unit.

U. O. ROBERTSON, M. D. ATLANTA, GA. H. WERNER

KENNY & WERNER

NO. 40 DECATUR ST.,

ATLANTA, GA. Agents for PICKWICK CLUB and J, W. HARPER WHISKIES and BUDWEISER BOTTLED BEEF

Wholesale Liquor Dealers

All orders from a distance promptly attended to dec30—dtf 8thp un u o rob

A Lunatic at Large.

Several days ago a wild man was discovered who seemed to be an escaped inmate of a lunatic asylum. At times he would have lucid intervals, and then it was found that the insanity was caused by smoking impure cigars. Moral: Always smoke the Yellow Label cigar and keep your wits.

85 Choice Lots Near E. T. R. R. Shops auction today at 11 a. m. Lunch served on the bunds. San't W. Goods & Co.

low married women go to bed. Apply the lers in "Yellow Label Cigars." Pyramides.

THE CHAUTAUQUA.

An Atlanta Party Visits the Site of the Piedmont Chautauqua.

A Pleasant Day Pleasantly Spent—The Per sonel of the Party—The Atlanta Chautauqua Circle.

A special train of four coaches pulled out of the union depot yesterday morning at 10:30, carrying a party of about two hundred ladies and gentlemen to Salt Springs.

The object of the excursion was to look at and gentlemen to Salt Springs.

The object of the excursion was to look at the location selected for the Piedmont Chautauqua to be established at that point, and to settle some of the details of the work, which will begin at once. The following is a list of those on board: Mrs Lizzie Pattillo, Mrs Willie McCarty, Miss Julia Taylor, Mr Tom Meador, Jr, Mr and Mrs W P Pattillo, Mr and Mrs A P Adair, Colonel Andrew E Calhoun, Mr and Mrs W H Scott, Mrs J A Taylor, Mrs Dr Roy, Mrs C C Nelson, Mrs Harry Jackson, Colonel W T Taylor! Miss Nell's Production Roy, Mrs C C Nelson, Mrs Harry Jackson, Colonel W T Turnbull, Miss Nellie Brooks, Miss Annie Reid, Mr F M Richardson, Mr William Laird, Mr and Mrs Robert Dohme, Mr T J Howell, Mr A L Beck, Mr A S Thweatt, Mr John A Offord, Mr and Mrs E W March, Mrs Dr Black, Augusta. Ga; Mr and Mrs H Dimmock 'Smith, Mr and Mrs B F Abbott, Mrs R F Maddox, Mrs W A Bass, Mrs G M D Cook, Dr and Mrs J H Lowe, Miss Lucia Turner, Mr and Mrs J H Lowe, Miss Lucia Turner, Mr and Mrs J H Lowe, Miss Lucia Turner, Mr and Mrs J W L Jeter, Robert Gramling, Mr and Mrs J W Ansley, Miss Clara Thomas, Miss Eva Kirby, Colonel and Mrs Walter Gregory, Miss Cora Thomas, Mrs L P Thomas, Jr, Miss Annie Turner, Mr and Mrs Don M Bain, Miss Daisie Baiu, Mrs S F Smilie, Major M C Kiser, Miss Jeannie Bowie, Mr and Mrs Phil Dodd, Captain C E Griggs, John O Connor, C A Vidibill, A B Dunning, Mr F M Coker, Robert Pause, D T Hall, J A Bauldwin, Colonel Sam W Goode, Colonel F M O'Bryan, William Gause, John Haskins, Willie Calloway, Mrs N A McLendon, W W Draper, Mrs Stovoll Smith, John Baxter, Miss Nettie Dozier, E P MoBurney, Mrs Bryan, J W Baum, Miss Kate Lee, George W Adair, Dr and Mrs Lee, Miss Maud O'Keefe, Mr and Mrs J C Kimball, Mr and Mrs A C K Collier, Miss Loila O'Keefe, Miss Lucy Blackshear, Jos H Johnson, Miss May Pledger, Major W C Grasty, Jr., Dr. and Mrs Henry McDonald, Captain W J Garrett, Mr and Mrs W L Peel, Rosa Anderson, Miss Jessie Muse, W S Duncan, Mrs H Hatcher, Mr and Mrs G B Adair, Miss Grimes, Colonel W L Scruggs, Dr J S Dozier, Mrs J B Gordon, Dr C D Ray, Mrs W C King, Mrs W P Becker, Judge and Mrs W R Hammond, Mrs J G Oglesby, Joe Kingsbury, Miss Nellie McLendon, Miss May Cook, Mrs Dan B Harris, Miss Julia Hammond, Dr and Mrs J F Alexander, Colonel and Mrs N J Hammond, Mr Dan Grant, Mrs W H Dickson, Major and Mrs John Fitten, Mr and Mrs J Ohn Fitten, Mr and Mrs J Moore, Mr Dan Grant, Mrs W H Dickson, Major and Mrs John Fitten, Mr and Mrs Dr Woolley, Colonel E W Martin, Mrs A J Moore, Mr Dan Charle, Colonel and Mrs Moore, Mr Dan Harris, Colonel W T Turnbull, Miss Nellie Brooks, Miss Annie Reid, Mr F M Richardson, Mr

The party separated into congenial groups, loafed on the broad verandas, made excursions into the woods, rode off on the narrow sions into the woods, rode off on the narrow gauge to the springs, or tramped over the beautiful hills and valleys that will make the Chantanqua park. It was agreed that the location was all that could be desired, the very conformity of the ground meeting the demand of the amphitheater and other public buildings. No formal action was taken but the Chantanqua plan was discussed fully, and much enthusiasm developed. The pleasant feature of the day was the presence of most of the ladies of the Chantanqua circle of Atlanta, the absence of Mrs. D. G. Jones, the president, being deeply regretted. At two o'clock Colonel Adair announced that Junch was ready, and in less time than it takes to write it, two hundred people were seated in the beautiful dining room of the hotel, and really the most interesting part of the day's proceedings were entered upon.

At 4:20 the train started homeward, and the city reached in forty minutes. The whole party returned thanks to Mr. I. Y. Sage.

city reached in forty minutes. The whole party returned thanks to Mr. I. Y. Sage, superintendent of the Georgia Pacific railroad, for the courtesy of the special train, and Messrs. E. W. Marsh & Co. for their hospitality, and Mr. James A. Watson for his constant kindness.

kindness.

A formal organization of the Piedmont Chautaugua will be made in a day or two, and duly announced. Work will then be begun, and we shall have a repetition of the miracle of building the eqposition last year. It is to begin the Chautaugua programme on the first of July, which means that there are just 101 days (including Sundays) until the gate of the Chautaugua are opened to the public.

THE WONDERFUL CARLSBAD SPRINGS.

THE WONDERFUL CARLSBAD SPRINGS.

An Eminent Physician Reads a Paper of Great Interest Before the International Medical Congress.

At the minth International Medical congress, Dr. A. L. A. Toboldt, of the University of Pennsylvania, read a paper stating that out of thirty cases treated with Carlsbad Water and the Powdered Carlsbad Sprudel Salt for chronic constipation, hypochondria, disease of the liver and kidneys, jaundice, adiposis, diabetis, dropsy from valvular, heart disease, dyspersia, catarrhal Inflammation of the stomach, ulcer of the stomach or spieen, children with marasmus, gout, rheumatism of the joints, gravel, etc., twentysix, were entirely cured, three much improved, and one not treated long enough. Average time of treatment, four weeks. In all of these cases no particular diet was prescribed. The doctor claims, in conclusion of his paper, that the Carlsbad Mineral Water, as exported by the city of Carlstad, being the natural product, is much to be preferred where the quantity of water is no objection, particularly in diseases of the stomach. Whenever the quantity of water cannot be taken (as when away from home the Powder Carlsbad Sprudel Salt (senuine imported) will answer. He states that the effect of the Water and Powder Sprudel Salt is to be relied upon, independently of any adjuncts of treatment, such as diet and exercise, whether taken hot or cold, claiming even an advantage when taken cold, as it acts more decidedly purgative, and that he has given cold the preference, only using the water hot when no jurgative action is desired. The dose of the water employed was two tumblerfuls before breakfast and one or two during the day. The dose of the water shand one or two during the day. The dose of the water employed was two tumblerfuls before breakfast and one or two during the day. The dose of fall is a teaspoonful three times a day dissolved in water. Whenever a stronger action is desired the Powder Spudel Salt should be used in conjunction with the water. The GENUINE article is bottled unde treet, New York. Meh 7,11,14,18,21,25,28-sund's&wed's. The Nature of the Crab. The Nature of the Crab.

All who dip for this ugly, creature have observed how snappish he is. He seems to be pleased in nothing. So one easily understands what is meant by a crabbed man or woman; but it is not so well known that the crabbed are made so by indigestion, dyspepsia, sluggish liver, kidneys, skin, weak nerves, 100r appetite, Invigorire will regulate, not purge the liver, bowels, kidneys and skin, makes healthy blood, strong muscles, steady nerves, cure sick headcache. A boon to woman, regulating, quieting, strengthening, restores men weak from over dissipation, chewing, smoking, excesses, or other causes. Your druggists keeps Dr. Woolley's Invigorine. Price $1.00.

Pyramides.

Rallroad Men Can secure their homes during the dinner hour, as we furnish a free lunch on the ground at our auction sale today, near E. T. shops. Sam'l W. Goode & Co.

Drink Malto. 25 cents a bottle. Now is the Time for Railroad Men To secure a home at auction today near E. T. shops, from 11 s. m. to6 p. m. Lunch served on the grounds.
Saw't. W. GOODE & CO.

The Best of the Seas No. 179 & Fair St., 9 large rooms with all modern conveniences, between Washington street and Capi-tol avenue, at anction, Thursday, March 22d, at 11 a.m. Sam'l W. Goode & Co. 269

THE THEATER.

The Barnum and Burbidge company presented 'A Night Off," yesterday afternoon and last night to audiences only fair in point of size.

Those persons who missed 'A Night Off' missed a genuine treat. The comedy is something exquisite, and the company is composed of 'xeelient actors. The performance was undoubtedly one of the most enjoyable of the season.

enjoyable of the season.

Mr. Bartram, Mr. Burbidge, Mr. Flood and Mr. Edeson were excellent in their respective roles.

Miss Crowther and Miss Evans were charming. The cast is strong throughout

Mr. Jefferson

The advance sale for Mr. Jefferson has been very heavy, and but few choice seats are left. The famous actor will doubtless be greeted by a regular Booth and Barrett audience.

Mrs. Langtry. Mrs. Langtry.

The visit of Mrs. Langtry is an event of great interest. Although her maia ers do not now court for her the patronage of the public on the score of her beauty or her toilets, but exclusively on the count of the artistic value of her interpretations. There are some persons, especially among the ladies, who appreciate art and genius displayed in the ornamentation of a beautiful woman, and to them the following discription made by the Nashville American of her dresses in the play "As In a Looking Glass," will be of interest:

made by the Nashville American of her dresses in the play "As In a Looking Glass," will be of interest.

"It may interest that portion of society that was present at the Vendome last night to know that the superb costume, worn by Mrs. Langtry in the first scene, was a cloak of electric blue plush lined with chinchills fur and an immense collar and border of the same. The removal of this wrap revealed a dress of amber satin with a front of beaded Brussels lace with train of silk tulle, a garniture of red poppies. In the second act she wore a white silk, with a front of silver gauze, demi-train of white tulle, Moire ribbons and a deep border of tea roses completed this exquisite dress.

The third act revealed the heroine in a combination gown of black and amber satin, trimmed with bats, her arm covered with great beaded net sleeves which, when extended, resembled the wings of bats.

In the fourth act she wore an extraordinary costume, of which the lower skirt was of satin brocade, trimmed in waves of golden beads, and the tightitting bodiee was covered with three gilitering pendants. On the right arm was a short puffed sleeve, while the left was bare. From the left shoulder fell a drapery of white crepe, which, with the crepe overskirt and train, gave a very Grecian effect to the whole.

The fifth act being of a sombre turn, her dress was of biack silk plush, with a front of solid jet, the sleeves of Spanish lace in bat form.

All through the play the beautiful heroine wore the hair in a low coil on her neck, with a wavy roll over the forehead, which clearly outlined her beautifully-shaped boad.

If a Dyspeptic will take Simmons

Liver Regulator.

"Up to a few weeks ago I considered myse! the champion Dyspeptic of America. During the years that I have been afflicted I have tried almost everything claimed to be a specific for Dyspepsia in the hope of finding something that would afford permanent relief. I had about made up my mind to abandon all medicines when I noticed an endorsement of Simmons Liver Regulator by a prominent Georgian, a jurist whom I knew, and concluded to try its effects in my case. I have used but two bottles, and am satisfied that I have struck the right thing at last. I felt its beneficial effects almost immediately. Unlike all other preparations of a similar kind no special instructions are required as to what one shall or shall not eat. This fact alone ought to commend it to all troubled with Dyspepsia."—J. N. Holmes, Vineland, N. J.

Examine to see that you get the Genuine distinguished from all frauds and imitations by our red Z trade mark on front of wrapper, and on the side the seal and signature of J. H. Zeilin & Co. ov19—mo we fri top m or fmwky oel r Everybody drinks Malto. Pyramides.

Drink Malro for the Nerves. BACK FROM CUBA.

Mr. Varela Returns to His Home in This City After a Pleasant Trip. Mr. Varela, of the firm of Cuesta & Varela, of this city_i has just returned from Cuba, where he has been to buy tobacco and to secure several fine cigar makers for their factory. He purchased while there some of the choicest Havana tobacco. His firm is now able to supply the t-ade with the finest cigars

Pyramides.

Drink Malto for the Nerves.

Our thirty cents Roasted Coffee is perfectly de lightful. Try it. The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., 75 Whitehall street.

West Peachtree House at Auction. No. 291 just this side Pine street, Friday, March 28, at 4 p. m. Sam'l W. Goode & Co.

"Jersey" and "Southern Queen" sweet po-tato seed—also slips. They are the best. At Simons & Drummond's sun wed. Drink Malto-it is pleasant.

That Large, Commodious Dwelling, 179 East Fair street, sold to the highest bidder on the premises next Thursday, March 22, at 11 a, m. The Howard Place. Sam'l W. Goode & Co.

Pyramides.

Take Whitehall Car Line For our auction sale today at 10.30. Free ride to McDaniel street, close to the property. Sam'l W. Goode & Co.

Everybody drinks Maito. Love Scrape

If you wish to know what Cupid saw when peeping through the keyhole, apply to dealers in the Yellow Label Cigar. Call at Our Office for Plats

For the auction sale of one of the most desirable residences, near the new capitol. Sold without reserve next Thursday, March 22, at 11 a. m. Sam'l W. Goode & Co.

Drink Malto-It ls pleasant. New Dye House,

No. 24 Walton street. French cleaning a specialty.

our French cleaning will not get your garments out of shape. Southern Dye House, 24 Walton street

Drink Malto at Soda fountain.

The Ladies' Aid society of Asbury mission church will serve a dinner from 12 m. to 3 p. m., and an oyster supper from 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. at 111 Whitehall, tomorrow, the 22d. All are invited. Auction Sale of No. 291 W. Peachtree Friday next. Sam'l W. Goode & Co.

Pyramides. A Great Bargain

s in store for some one next Thursday at the auc ion sale of that choice prop.rty. No. 179 E. Fai treet. Call for plats. Sam'l W. Goode & Co.

Drink Malto, 25 cents a bottle. Dinner Served on the Grounds

For those who attend our auction sale today, near E. T. R. shops, Sam'l W. Goode & Co.

Pyramides. Are All Hearts Diseased

Because there are pains and flutterings at the heart, sinking spells, intermitting pulse beats? Certainly not. A weak, nervous system, a poor digestion, inactive liver, bowels, kidneys, and skin may be, and generally is the cause. Don't take heart stimulants or sedatives, but use Invigorine. It quites the nerves, gives natural appetite, good digestion, regulates liver, kidneys, howels and skin, purifies the blood, tones and strengthens the heart and circulation. Your drugist keeps Dr. Woolley's Invigorina. Price $1.00.

Pyramides.

PRICE'S BARING POWDER.

Its superior excellence is proven in milions of homes for more than a quarter of a century. It is used by the United States Governmen'. Endorsed by the heads of the Great Luiversities as the Strongest, Purest, and most Healthful. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Amonia, Lime or Alum. Sold only in Cans.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.,

NEW YORK. CHICAGO. ST. LOUIS

5 or 80 fol and n run last p wk

G. W. Adair, Real Estate Agent.

1 have property of every class for sale. I also have some little demand for every class of and let me know your wants. I have every facility and a complete corps of assistants, and am always ready to transact real estate business. I have two beautiful, well shaded West Peachtre

4 vacant residence lots on Peachtree

3 vacant lots on Boulevard. 3 vacant lots on Decatur street. 5 pretty residence lots on Prvor street.

5 vacant lots on Smith and McDauiel streets. 4 vacant lots on Walker street. Several well located vacant lots in third ward, on ong time and small payments.

12 splendid vacant lots on Georgia avenue Residences and vacant lots in every ward in the 2 splendid brick residences in center of city, or outh side,

4 cottages, near First Methodist church. 8 nice 4-room houses on Davis street. 4 nice 4-room houses on W. Fair street. I also have property in West End, Edgewood Kirkwood, Decatur, and in the country. Come and see me. G. W. ADAIR,

G. W. ADAIR, Auctioneer.

6-ROOM HOUSE.

267 Jones Street.

This property is convenient to Fair street schools and street car line, and near the new capitol. A Terms cash.

8p J. L. HARRISON. J. C. HENDRIX.

C. HENDRIX & CO.

THE BIG AUCTION,

Pryor, Washington streets and Fortress avenue and McDaniel street. About 100 lots, all shaded, on main thoroughfares, on street car line, near East Tennessee shops and glass works,

At Auction, Thursday, 29th, at 3 P. M.

Every lot a choice one; no colored brothers in the neighborhood; every lot overlooking the city and surrounding country. The lots are all large and suitable for good homes. The property in this vicinity that we sold last year the same lots are now selling at an advance of 25 per cent. Next year will prove a greater increase. The new Hawkinsville road shops are being located adjoining some of these lots. Don't buy until you see our sale plats at our office. Terms, ½ cash; balance 6, 12 and 18 months, 8 per cent interest.

On Monday, 26th, at 3:30,

We will sell eight building lots on Rawson and Orange streets. These lots are centrally located and will be sold without any reserve. Terms, 1/2 eash, balance in 6 and 12 months.

On We dnesday, 28th, at 3:30 P. M. We will sell eleven lots on Venable, *Gresham and Orchard streets, near Technological school. All the lots shaded, and in one of the best localities for renting property in the city. Terms, $\fomega$ cash, balance 6 and 12 months. Titles to all this property absolutely good.

THOS. H. WILLINGHAM & SON REAL ESTATE.

OFFICES FOR RENT.

TRADERS BANK BUILDING. OFFICES AND BUSINESS ROOMS, SUITABLE for physicians, lawyers, brokers, etc., can now be secured in the Traders Bank building, on Decatur street, opposite Kimball house. These offices will be ready for occupancy May 1st, and are fitted with every modern convenience and appointments—elevator, gas, electric lights, etc. A few offices can be finished at an earlier date if necessary. Desk room can be had in a large room on second floor at a low rental. For terms apply to

E. F. GOULD, Kimball House, or at building. CLOTHING. FURNISHING GOODS, ETC.

Our Tailoring Department booming with the Choicest Fabrics of the Season's Production

This stock embraces all the leading varieties of Worsteds, Cheviots and Cloths, in the most carefully selected patterns, and well merit your early inspection.

HIRSCH BROS.

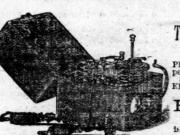

42 AND 44 WHITEHALL STREET.

GENERAL MILL SUPPLIES. ETC.

BROWN & KING,
MANUFACTURERS OF AND DEALERS

We are the only horse in Atlanta that carry wire rope in stock, for element hosting purposes, transmission of poses, transmission power and guy ropes. COTTON, WOOLEN AND GENERAL MILL SUPPLIES, DOWER and GUY ropes.
MACHINERY AND TOOLS, LEATHER AND RUBBER
BELTING, HOSE, PACKING, ETC., PORTABLE FORGERS, PRESSURE BLOWERS
ANL EXPLAUST FANS, WROUGHT IRON VIPE FITTINGS AND BRASS GOODS.

S. BROAD STREET.

Telegraph & Electrical Apparatus & Supplies, perfect and durable Battery in the market.

Special agents, Georgia, Alabama and Florida for HESS
ELECTRIC GUEST CALL and FIRE ALARM for hotels.

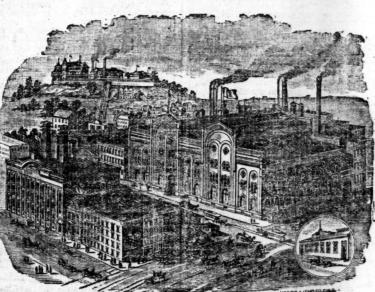

ELECTRO PLATERS. Chandeliers and Brass Goods of every description, polished and lacquered equal to new.

Medical Batteries and other Electrical Apparatus
Electrical work of every description promptly attended to, in the city or out. Send for a specific s

Terra Cotta Stove Flue, absolutely fire proof; Terra Cotta Chimney Tops and Stove Thimbles.

CAPACITY 350,000 BARRELS YEARLY.

For Sale Everywhere in Atlanta. Particular attention is invited to our "NATIONAL EXPORT" which is brewed from the finest grade of imported and domestic hops and mail, and piece and according to the most approved methods. It is a genuine and pure old lager: does not contain a particle of any injurious ingredients, and being absolutely free from all adulterations is invariably prescribed by the nost prominent physicians for the convalegeout, the weak and the aged. The "NATIONAL EXPORT" was breved originally for the Australian trade exclusively, but, with our increased facilities, we are now prepared to furnish it to our customrest throughout the world.

MOERLEIN'S "NATIONAL EXPORT" was awarded the first premium at every Cincinnati Exposition over all competitors, proving it the best beer in Cincinnati, and, consequently, the finest in the world. The berrel teer of THE CHRISTIAN MOERLEIN BREWING CO. is guaranteed to be equal, if not superior, to any beer brewed at home or abroad. Export beer is put up in casks of Ten Dozen Pints, and is guaranteed to keep in any climate.

Emil Selig, Atlanta Agent. ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

W.A. HEMPHILL, President.

JACOB HAAS, Cashier

CAPITAL CITY BANK

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

Open on Saturdays and Mondays Until 7 p. m Drafts issued on England, Germany, France and all parts of Europe at lowest market rates.

VOL. XIX.

A Cyclone Arises From the Bosom of the Gulf,

BREAKS AGAINST THE BORDER

Where It Separates Into Two Distinctive Columns

THE TOWN OF CALHOUN A WRECK

Four Men Crushed to Death in Lumber City.

CASUALTIES THROUGHOUT THE STATE

The storm of Tuesday night was remarkable for its unusual electrical display. The rain which accompanied it was terrific. As seen from Atlanta, the skies atound were frequently a ring of fire. It was evident from the first that great damage must have regulted, and that the extent of the storm was Early yesterday morning news began to come in from various parts of the state detailing great disaster. The tragic occurrence at Lumber City was the most serious incident of the storm. The destruction of Calhoun was remarkable because of the absence of casualty to human life. The story of the storm, its scope and its dreadful work will be found in that which fol-

THE TERROR AT AUSTELL. The Freaks of the Elements in Sweetwater Valley.

Austell, March 21.—[Special.]—The most destructive cyclone ever known in this section of the state swept through the little vale iu which Austell and Salt Spring is located last night, scattering death and ruin upon all

The storm began about eleven o'clock. The day was the most beautiful one of the spring. It was a perfect spring day, and when the sun went down there was no indication of the storm, which was then hanging over the place, and the people with no thought of the dangers to which they were to be subjected before another day came sought their homes. Austell is built upon two hills—one upon the north side of the railroad and the other upon the south side. Between these two hills is a narrow vale in which the business houses is located. The hills are considerably higher than the little valley and upon them the greatest destruction to property and the loss of

THE STORM GATHERS. Some time after dark Tuesday night, dark clouds began gathering and by half past nine o'clock the heavens were perfectly black. Only a few of the citizens observed this, however, as the Austell residents are early to bed and early to rise. Those who were up paid no attention to the threatening clouds. About ten o'clock lightning began flashing. At first the flashes were at irregular intervals and were fol-lowed by loud rumbling far away thunder, but in a short time the lightning became brighter and more rapid and the thunder louder, more one continuous flame and the thunder kept one continuous name and the thunder kept pace with it. So bright and continuous were the flashes that any portion of the city could be plainly seen almost constantly by those who were up. Just as the electrical display was mest intense rain began falling. At first it came steadily in large drops, but in a minute a perfect deluge ensued. Then with the rain came the wind. The wind was intense. It moved along only as a cyclone can move, and with it houses, barns, fences and timber Nothing like that wind was ever seen by any one here. It roared and mouned and went by like a flash. For ten minutes it continued, and then a calm ensued. But during that ten minutes one man was killed, another severely burt, in addition to the live stock and property locity was intense, and houses waved and rocked upon their foundations until people fearing that the building would go over ran out into the drenching cold rain. The rain reached every portion of the city storm-divided j st east of the town; and leaving the vale untouched swept the hills upon either side. On the north side of the road and just upon the top of the hill, Rafe Howard, a negro blacksmith lived. Howard's house was a one story frame of four rooms, and upon either side were houses less substantial, each about twenty to twenty-five feet distant. Immediately in front 1 Howard's, on the opposite side of the street —Mulberry street—is a small frame shanty.

ONCE AN ATLANTIAN,

The wind passed along the hill and over the shanty without as much as moving it. Then it struck Howard's honse with full force. Howard and his wife were in one room in bed, and their son, a boy of sixteen years, was in another room. When the wind hit the house and again dropped back. Then it rose again and again dropped back. Then the timbers began creaking and in an instant the roof dropped in, the walls tumbled down and the house was flat upon the ground, completely ruined. The WIND SWEPT ON and a hundred yards further east struch a new two-story frame house. The building was one of the most substantial in the place, but so great was the force of the wind that the house was lifted from its foundation and thrown several feet. Within a few feet of this house was the residence of Rev.T.F. Pierce, but the wind only whistled around the corners nearest the new building and went on its wild race.

Upon Mulberry street, on the south side of the road, Hon. N. A. Morse, mayor of the city, resides. His house is upon a hill, just as is the one upon which Howard lived, and along that the wind ran with the same destruction. In front of Mr. Morse's residence was a barn about 30x50 feet, in which he had some wagons, a buggy and some lumber stored. On a line with that barn the gentleman had an-distinct and nearer. Finally the flashes became which was destroyed. The wind moved from the west to the east and went along with a roll and dip, howling, whistling and singing, until every body in the town was aroused. Its ve-